General Monckton had almost finished a Fort, just above the Entrance of that River; the Spot where the French some Time ago had a Fort, which they afterwards demoof our Fields, &c. which they had deserted a Number of Vessels lay ready to carry our Troops as far up the River as they could, where, 'tis said, the French have a Fort, and where they have got up two Vessels taken from the English some Time ago in the Bay of Fundy, and afterwards improved on. That these Troops were to proceed to Major Morris had joined them from the Cape, from which Place they had an Ex-

Extract of a Letter from the Oneida Carrying Place, October 13, 1758.

The Grand Sachem of the Oneida Indians was with us at the taking of Frontenac; he was one of the most Christian Indians I ever saw in my Life, constantly at Prayer, talking of Heaven and a future State, and said, if we go on praying, the Land would be ours; and he would help us all that he could. Friday last he took his Leave of us, and said, if he heard of any Thing he would let us know it: At One o'Clock, he, with three others, bid us farewell; but before he got half a Mile from our Encampment, he was shot dead, one taken, and the other two got in:
The Captains alarmed went out, and found the poor King scalped, and brought him into the Fort, but could not come up with the Enemy: The General ordered a Coffin to be made for him, and gave his Wife white Linen to lay him out in; and on Saturday in the Afternoon he was decently buried in the North West Bastion; three Cannon fired over him, and the Indians performed their Ceremonies by drinking of Wine; the Oneidas are determined to have Satisfaction for so great a Loss: The same Afternoon an Indian who belonged to Major Ingersol, and who was taken at Lake-George, 1757, came in, having made his Escape from the Party that killed the King; he says, he was carried to Canada, and has lived with the Indians ever since; that the Party consisted of 100, and only 5 Frenchmen: That they could have killed several white Men, but did not want to do it, as they had got the Person they wanted.

NEW-YORK, October 30.

Yesterday arrived here a large French Prize Ship, taken by Capt. Valentine, in a Privateer Snow of this Place: She was bound from Canada to the West Indies; and loaded but indifferently. The same Day came in the French Prize Ship of Capt.
Nicholl, as mentioned in our last.—Capt. Devereux in the Privateer Ship St. George, on Tuesday last, returned here from a Cruise. She has taken and sent in here, the Ship Rising Sun, of Bourdeaux, mounting 14 six and four Pounders, with 50 Men, bound from Quebec to the Cape. He took her between Isabella Bay and Monti Christo.

The St. George also re-took a Sloop between Monti Christo and the Cape. She was bound from South Carolina to Barbados, and on the 11th of September was taken by the French.

November 6. Since our last, a large French Prize Ship arrived here, called the Molly, bound from Quebec for the Cape; loaded with Fish, Oil, Planks, &c. She was taken off the Cape, the 19th of September last, by the Royal Hester Privateer, of this Port.—She formerly belonged to the English, and was a Privateer called the Nancy, out of Guernsey, mounting 18 Nine-Pounders, and proved very successful out of that Place, having taken, it is said, near one hundred French Vessels, before she was taken by the French, two of whose Frigates carried her into Morlaix, from thence she was sent to Canada, and now had but two Guns mounted. Four English Prisoners were taken on board her, designed to be exchanged at St. Domingo.

Friday last was sent in here by the Privateers George, Capt. Haley; King George, Capt. Leycraft; and Abercrombie, Captain Valentine; a Schooner loaded with Sugar, which was taken the 16th of October coming out of a French Port on Hispaniola: She came in under the Command of Capt. John Haley, who informs us, That a French 74 Gun Ship got into Port-au-Pais, in a shattered Condition, having lost about 100 Men, engaging two English Men of War; but got clear, by out-sailing them; and that a Fleet of about 30 Sail was upon to push out of the Cape, under Convoy of two Frigates and a Snow of War.

PHILADELPHIA, November 9.

On Sunday last an Express arrived here from the Westward, by whom there is Advice that General Forbes left Ray's-Town for Loyal Hanning the 27th ult. that the Killed, Wounded and Missing, on our Side, in the Attack on Loyal Hanning, amounted to 64, the Wounded chiefly by the French, and most of the Missing since found dead; the Loss of the French not exactly known, but thought to be very considerable, as one of our People, who lay on the Field all Night scalped, and his Thigh broke, said, they were a long Time in carrying off their Dead and Wounded on our Horses: That our Bullocks were all saved, but that we lost a great many Horses: And that the French made three different Attacks, in as many different Places, and behaved with great Courage and Resolution; but were as often repulsed by our Troops, who defended the Place most gallantly.
