

have the Pleasure to assure the Public, that Sanmarz brought her into Kingroad last night, where both Ships are safely anchored.
Theelope related her with three Guns, on which immediately struck her Colour.
She is called the Belliqueux, and was bound in Quebec to France; has on board upwards of 170 Men, 50 or 60 of whom are sick, and are of the Province. This Day it is expected the Orders will be sent to Knowle. The Captain of Antelope believes his Prize to be rich, having already discovered a great many Bales of Fur, is imagined to be the same Vessel that took Marquis of Carnarvon Indianan, and Wis-sea Man of War, and that she has a Quantity Gold Dust, and other Valuables, taken from on board the latter. She had the Indianan in Tow, being chased by Admiral Boscawen's Squadron her Prize, and was forced into the Channel.
Report of her having been ashore on the 8th entirely Groundless.
It is reported that Admiral Saunders has taken other of the French Men of War which were performed by Admiral Boscawen, and sent her into Falmouth.
Sunday Sir Charles Hardy arrived in Town at Spithead, and waited on his Majesty at Kennington, and was graciously received.

ed from the French Islands, with about 130 Prisoners; and some are left behind at Guadalupe.

NEW-YORK, January 15.
At the Election held here on Tuesday last, for the Choice of Representatives to sit in the next general Assembly for this City and County, Observant Lancy, John Cramer, Philip Livingston, and Edward Livingston, Esquires, were chosen, after without Opposition; and returned duly elected.
These Gentlemen, instead of giving Liquor at the election (which is an old exploded Custom) jointly made a Present of Two Hundred Pounds for the Use of the Poor of this City and County.
Several Robberies and Burglaries have been committed lately in and about this City, and the perpetrators have escaped undisturbed. Their illandous Practice is to slip into the Doors of Houses, either in the Evening or early in the Morning, and either secreting themselves in the Houses all night, or carrying off at once whatever they can find in their Hands when they first enter. On Wednesday last the 9th Instant, the Dwelling-house of Captain Isaac Sears of this City, was violently broke open, and the Villains carried away about Two Thousand Five Hundred Pounds in Gold and Paper Money, out of his Desk, which they also broke open.
Wednesday last his Majesty's Ship, the Crown, 40 Guns, Capt. Mead, arrived here. She left behind the 22d of October last, in Company with the Arundel Man of War, and several Sloops, bound to Louisburg, having also under Command a great Number of Merchantmen, the whole fleet consisting of upwards of 60 Sail.
We have the following Particulars from Capt.
Mead, viz. That he put into Cork on his Way on the 11th of November failed from thence in Company with Commodore Keppel, who had under his Sail of the Line, two Forty Gun Ships, and two Bombs, under him, bound to Africa; and that he parted with the Commodore on the 22d November last.
The Kensington Man of War, now in this harbour, we hear, is bound to England; and is intended to fall in a Day or two. General Ab-ramble, 'tis said, intends to go home in her.

PHILADELPHIA, January 14.
Extra of a Letter from Lisbon, dated November 24.
The King of Prussia is returned into Silesia, and, having joined all his Troops together, has now got as fine an Army as ever he had; and Count Daun is going after him; so we are in Hopes he will soon give him a Retaliation for his Surprize. The French Ministry are entirely changed, and they are in as great Confusion as a Court can possibly be.

Extra of a Letter from a Gentleman in Barbadoes, dated December 14. 1758.
We have had no Packet from England for near three Months past; I believe they are stopped for some Time. Two Men of War have lately arrived with Expresses to our Commodore. It is thought there will be something done in these Parts this Winter; I hope Martinico will fall.

Other Letters from the same Place say, that 14 Sail of the Line, with a Number of Transports, and Troops on board, were daily expected.
And we hear, that on the Arrival of a Packet from France at Martinico, the Inhabitants immediately set about putting that Island in the best Posture of Defence, they expecting a Visit soon from the English.

ANNAPOLIS, January 25.
Sunday last arrived here from St. Kitt's, Capt.
James Cole, in the Brigantine Hanquiter, belonging to this Province, having been taken and retaken in his Voyage.

With Capt. Cole, came in Capt. Joseph Hayton, late of the Schooner Zephyr, of Edenton in North-Carolina, who was taken on his Voyage from thence to Antigua, by 5 French Privateers, on the 4th of November past, about 8 Leagues to Windward of that Island.

Two Days before Capt. Hayton had the Misfortune to be taken, he took up, about 50 Leagues Eastward of Antigua, Ten Men in a small Boat, who had been in her 21 Days, without any other Provisions at first than two Pieces of Pork, and a little Water, and were then all almost perished: They were the Crew of a Snow from Guersey for South Carolina, who, on their Passage being chased by the Unicorn Man of War, carried so much Sail to get clear of her, that she sprung a Leak, which a Day or Two after the Unicorn had spoke them, increased so much that she sunk from under them, and obliged them to take to their Boat, which was but 12 Feet Keel, and so small that only 6 of them could lie down in her at a Time.

By the above Vessel we have an Account, that the Woolwich, of 40 Guns, Capt. Parker, met with and took a large French Store-Ship, mounting 22 Guns, deeply laden, from Old France bound to Cape Francois, and esteemed a very valuable Prize. She had on board 100 Ton of Shot, 40 Ton of Powder, and a great Number of Small-Arms.
