George Prater.

Piscataway, February 15, 1759.

THE Subscriber intending for BRITAIN, hereby gives Notice to all Persons who have Accounts, unsettled, for Dealing they have had with him at Piscataway, for Accounts of Messieurs John Glassford and Company, to come and settle the same by Bills of Note, or without Delay, otherwise they may expect Trouble without Respect of Persons. He hopes that every one who can, will discharge their Debts to the said Company, before he leaves the Country; and those who cannot, will have Time given them upon proper Application. He hereby further acquaints the Public, that the said Messieurs John Glassford and Company's Store at Piscataway, will be continued with the usual good Assortment of GOODS, to be sold for Money or Tobacco.

JAMES MARSHALL.

THE MANAGERS of the ANNAPOLIS LOTTERY, notwithstanding the repeated Notice already given to Gentlemen in distant Parts of the Province, to send in Accounts of the Tickets in their Hands (prevented as we presume by the Business of the Season) not having yet received them all, are under a Necessity of postponing the Drawing for a few Weeks. This is therefore to give Notice, that they will peremptorily begin the Drawing on the First Thursday of the Provincial Court, being the 10th of April next. They have fixed on that Time, as there will be many of the Adventurers then in Town on other Business.

THE Subscriber hereby gives Notice to all Persons indebted to the Concern of Edward Trafford, Esq; and Sons, at Piscataway, either by Bond, or Note of Hand, to make Payment as they become due, otherwise they will immediately be put in Suit. All those that have not already settled their Accounts due from them to the said Concern, and do not immediately come and discharge or settle the same, may expect to be treated in such a Manner as will not be agreeable to them.

GEORGE BOWDIN.
