ne Time ſince ſeized and brought in here by the ſſau, Capt. Pilkington, of Liverpool, being ded with French Produce, was cleared at a urt of Admiralty then held, as no Evidence could n be produced to prove that her Cargo is French operty: But, an Appeal to the High Court of lmiralty of Great-Britain was immediately lodg-
, in Behalf of the Captors.

Tuesday laſt, being the ſecond Day of diſcharg-, examining, and appraiſing the Cargo of the tch Snow Vrow Aletta, all the Appraiſers pret, the ſecond Calk of Coffee (all being probed Papers, by a bearded Inſtrument made on Pur-ſe) yielded a large Bundle of very intereſting ench Papers, ſewed up in Canvas, and laid in-midſt of the Coffee, relative to Part of the d Veſſel's Cargo, which it abſolutely proves to French Property, and to the dutchified French rgoes of many other Dutch Veſſels, and opening oſt ſurpriſing Scene of Villainy: More Papers expected to be found, ſecreted in the ſame anner: But already there remains no Doubt of s Snow's Cargo being as truly French Property French Produce; and we hope, in our next, to ſerviceable to the Captors of other pretended tch Veſſels (whoſe Fates may be ſtill depending) the Lights the above mentioned Papers have en. We muſt not here omit to remark, that a emn Affidavit has been lately tranſmitted hither m St. Euſtatia, annexed to an Invoice of every ticle of the Vrow Aletta's Cargo, of the whole ng no other than Dutch Property, by the co-ing Shippers of the Goods, and amongſt them erſon whoſe Station at leaſt, one would imagine, ſet him above Temptations to Perjury.

Monday Evening laſt, returned from a ſucceſsful uize, the Privateer Snow Royal Eſther, Cape. le, and brought in with him the Brig Notre me des Doleurs, Monſieur Turcon, Maſter, of Guns and 12 Men, from the Cape bound to Old nce, and was one of the Fleet mentioned in laſt.

Next Day was ſent in by the General Wolfe, ot Seymour, the Snow St. Anthony, Monſieur ddle, late Maſter, from Martinico for Old nce: Her Cargo is Sugar, Coffee and Cotton was taken the 6th of February laſt. The ve Veſſel was formerly the St. Andrew, of ſgow, Capt. Gilles, and loaded here about 12 nths ago for Ireland; but was afterwards taken a Voyage from Glaſgow for Antigua, when ot. Gilles had one of his Arms ſhot away, during the Privateer he was taken by.

Friday laſt the Ship La Juno, from the Cape, nd for Marſeilles, of 16 ſix and nine Pounders, 64 Men, Monſieur Aſpret, late Maſter, was in here, by the Tartar, Capt. Lawrence, and g of Pruſſia, Capt. Donaldſon, both in Priva-s of this Port. She engaged the Tartar better n two Hours, but Capt. Lawrence fought her cloſe, that Monſieur, after having four Men ed, and ſeven wounded, was obliged to ſtrike Colours. Capt. Donaldſon could not poſibly, ng all the Engagement was over. She was en the 21ſt of February, is a fine Veſſel, and ght to be the moſt valuable Prize brought into Port ſince the Commencement of the preſent having more Indico on board than all the t beſides, excluding the Men of War: Her go conſiſts of 225 Hogſheads and 41 Barrels hite Sugar, 64 Hogſheads and 9 Bags of ffee, 44 Hogſheads, 15 Tierces and 9 Barrels ndico, beſides 501 Hides of tann'd Leather, ome other Trifles.

By the Albany Poſt we learn, That Major Rohad been out on a Scout; and that he fell in and attacked near Ticonderoga, a Body of Enemy, of which he killed 33, brought off iſoners, and 6 Scalps; that he had a diſtinct w of Fort Carillon, and examined all the Out-ks: that he loſt 3 Men in the Engagement, that ſeveral of his People were froſt bitten, ſuffered by the extreme ſevere Weather.

Extract of a Letter from Albany, dated March 12.

"By an Expreſs from Fort-Edward laſt Satur-Night, we have an Account, That Major ers was on his Return from a grand Scout, upwards of 600 Men; that he has taken 5 oners, and ſix Scalps, and killed about 30 of Enemy: Our Loſs, it is ſaid, is three Men kilone Mohawk wounded, and about 14 Men t-bit. The Priſoners give an Account, that rench Indians were ſent out from Ticonderoga, ut off our Convoys between Still-Water and ghtoga. All the Poſts above Albany are put their Guard, ſo that it is to be hoped no Miſwill enſue from theſe Savages.

We are aſſured from good Authority, that the Province of Pennſylvania have voted One Hundred Thouſand Pounds, for his Majeſty's Service the enſuing Campaign; and that it was generally thought there would be 2700 Men raiſed in that Province, being the ſame Number raiſed the laſt Year.

ANNAPOLIS, March 29.

His Excellency our Governor is expected in Town, from the Northward, on Saturday or Sunday next.

And the General Aſſembly is to meet here on Monday.

Laſt Tueſday Evening arrived here the Schooner Cheſter, Capt. John Seager, in 20 Days from Antigua. By him we have an Account, that Major-General Hopſon died of a Fever, at Guadaloupe, about 10 Days before he left Antigua; and was ſucceeded by Major-General Barrington.——That the whole Iſland of Guadaloupe had not ſubmitted to his Majeſty's Arms, many of the Inhabitants having fled to, and remaining in, the almoſt inacceſſible Mountains.——And that the Troops were ſickly, many of them dying.

This Morning arrived here the Ship Wye-River, Captain Edward Nott, after a long Paſſage from London. She came out with Veſſels bound to different Ports, one of them to Carolina with Preſents to the Indians, under Convoy of the Succeſs and Mermaid; but parted from them about 100 Leagues to the Weſtward of Madeira. Tueſday laſt ſhe parted with the Edward, Capt. Davis, for New-York; and Yeſterday Morning came in the Capes.

Laſt Monday arrived at Hampton, from Plymouth, with Diſpatches for his Excellency General Amherſt, and the ſeveral Governors, his Majeſty's Frigate the Leoſſoffe, of 32 Guns, Captain Dean, having left Plymouth the 8th of February. And Yeſterday Evening, Lieutenant Campbell, from the Leoſſoffe, came up to this Town by Water, with the Diſpatches to Governor Sharpe, and is going Northward to the General, and the other Governors. Mr. Campbell has brought the melancholy News of the Death of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Orange, but not any of the Engliſh Prints containing the Particulars of her Death. He likewiſe informs us, that a Fleet of 10 or 12 Sail of French Men of War, had got out of Breſt the latter End of January; but whither gone not known. By him we were favour'd with the Loan for a few Hours of the General Evening Poſt of January 16, January 30, and February 1. From which we have taken the following Articles:

From the LONDON GAZETTE EXTRAORDINARY.

WHITEHALL, January 29.

ON Saturday Night laſt was received the following Letter from the Honourable Commodore KEPPEL, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary PITT.

"SIR, Torbay in Goree Bay, Jan. 3, 1759.

"I ARRIVED here with the Squadron under my Command the 28th of December paſt in the Evening. And the next Morning, agreeable to his Majeſty's Inſtructions, I attacked with the Ships the Forts and Batteries on the Iſland of Goree, which were ſoon reduced to deſire to capitulate, and the Governor's Demands were, to be allowed to march the French Troops out of the Garriſon with the Honours of War. His Terms I abſolutely rejected, and began a freſh Attack; it was, however, but of a very ſhort Duration, when the Iſland, Forts, Garriſon, &c. ſurrendered at Diſcretion to his Majeſty's Squadron.

"Lieutenant-Colonel Gorge had his Troops embarked in the flat-bottom'd Boats, in good Order and Readineſs, at a proper Diſtance, with the Tranſports, to attempt a Deſcent when it ſhould be found practicable or requiſite.

"Two Days after the Surrender of the Iſland, I ordered it to be delivered up with the Cannon, Artillery, Stores, and Proviſions, &c. found in it, to the Officer and Troops Lieutenant-Colonel Gorge thought fit to Garriſon the Place with, and the Colonel is taking all imaginable Pains to ſettle and regulate the Garriſon in the beſt Manner, and as faſt as Things will admit of.

"The Incloſed, Sir, is the State of the Iſland, with the Artillery, Ammunition, and Proviſions, found in the Place at it's Surrender.

"State of the Iſland of GOREE, as it ſurrendered to his Majeſty's Squadron the 29*th of* December, 1758.

"French made Priſoners of War, about 300.

"Blacks in Arms, a great Number; but I am not well enough informed as yet to ſay preciſely.

"The Loſs the Enemy ſuſtained, as to Men, is ſo very differently ſtated to me by thoſe that have been aſked, that I muſt defer ſaying the Number till another Opportunity.

[The Iſland of Goree, called Gheree, by the Dutch, a good Road for Shipping, is in W. Long. 17° 40, Lat. 15, a ſmall Iſland near Cape Verd in Africa. It is all ſurrounded with Rocks, and inacceſſible every where, except at a little Creek ſituated E. N. E. about 20 Fathoms broad and 60 Fathoms long, incloſed between two Points of Land, one of which is pretty high, and called the Point of Burying-Ground; the other is much lower, and before it lies a Sand Bank, over which the Sea beats with ſo much Violence, that it may be perceived from a great Diſtance. There is very good anchoring all round this Iſland, and particularly in the abovementioned Creek: Between it and the main Land, the Ships may ride ſecurely from the greateſt Surges. It is a natural and moſt ſafe Harbour. This Iſland was yielded to the Dutch in the Year 1617, by Biram, King of Cape Verd; and they built a Fort, called Naſſau, on the Hill, upon the North-weſt Side of it, on a pretty high Mountain, very ſteep on all Sides: But that Fort not being ſufficient to prevent an Enemy from landing in the Creek, they built another, called Fort Orange, to ſecure their Warehouſes. It was taken by the Engliſh in 1663, by Commodore Holmes, and retaken by De Ruyter the Dutch Admiral ſome Time after: But they did not keep it long; for the French under Count de Etrees, made themſelves Maſters of it in 1677, and demoliſhed the Forts, which they afterwards rebuilt, and continued in Poſſeſſion of the whole Iſland until the Arrival of Commodore Keppel, as above mentioned.]

Copy of a Letter from Capt. Barton, of the Litchfield Man of War, ſtranded on the Coaſt of Barbary, at a Place called Keadore, about 9 Leagues to the Northward of Saffy, dated December 4.

"I am ſorry to inform you, that on the 29th of November, his Britannic Majeſty's Ship Litchfield, of 50 Guns and 350 Men, was caſt away here. We have loſt the firſt Lieutenant, Captain of Marines, and his Lieutenant, with ſeveral Officers and Seamen, amounting to 30. There are of us on Shore two of my Lieutenants, and other Officers and Seamen, amounting to 229. It blew ſo hard when we came on Shore, that the Ship ſoon went to Pieces, and we could not ſave either Proviſions, or any other Neceſſaries. For theſe two Days paſt we have been on Shore, we have ſubſiſted on drowned Sheep and Hogs, and Water and Flour baddened on the Fire. A great Number of Men are lamed by the Bruiſes received againſt the Rocks, by the Violence of the Surf. The poor Sufferers were extremely ill uſed by the Natives when they got aſhore.

"P. S. The Somerſet, a Tranſport with Troops, and a Bomb-Ketch, which were in Company with the Litchfield, are ſaid to have ſhared the ſame Fate."

Jan. 15. By a Liſbon Mail arrived Yeſterday, there is a Confirmation of 3 Portugueze Noblemen being taken into Cuſtody for treaſonable Practices. This Mail came in 12 Days, and one of thoſe Noblemen was to be executed the Week after the Departure of the Packet-Boat: The other 2 were ſuppoſed to be in Danger of the ſame Fate: And 'tis farther ſaid, that there are about 300 Perſons of Note concerned in the ſame Conſpiracy.

Feb. 1. The Juno Frigate is arrived at Plymouth from a Cruize, and has brought in the Machault Privateer, of Granville, of 24 Nine Pounders, and 240 Men.

They write from Paris, that they have Advice from Breſt, That 25 Ships of the Line, and 7 Frigates, lay in that Harbour, which, in Conjunction with other Men of War from Toulon, were to ſail for North-America as ſoon as poſſible.

By a Liſbon Mail arrived this Day, we have an Account of the following Executions there:

The Marchioneſs of Tavora, beheaded.

The Duke d'Aveiro, and the Marquis de Tavora, broke on the Wheel.

The Count d'Atougia, the young Marquis de Tavora, Don Joye Maria the youngeſt, a Son of the old Marquis de Tavora, a Servant of his, and two Servants of the Duke d'Aveiro, firſt ſtrangled, and then broke on the Wheel.

One Servant of the Duke d'Aveiro's burnt alive, and another burnt in Effigy.

The Scaffold, with the dead Bodies, were conſumed with Fire, and their Aſhes thrown into the River.

The following remained in Priſon, their Fate uncertain: Don Jean de Tavora, Don Nuno de Tavora, Don Manuel de Tavora, Biſhop of Oporto, Biſhop of Evora, the Marquis de Gouvia, Marquis d'Alorno, Count de Obidas, Count de Ribeiro, Dutcheſs d'Aveiro, the young Marchioneſs de Tavora, Counteſs d'Atougia, Penerardo de Tarenda, and about ten Jeſuits.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, Jan. 15.

"Saturday arrived the Dorſetſhire from Liſbon, which confirms the Conſternation of Affairs there.

"The Squadrons for the Eaſt-Indies and America are equipping with great Alacrity."

Feb. 1. By Letters from Madrid of the 6th ult. we learn, that according to the laſt Account from Villa Vicioſa, his Catholic Majeſty grew worſe, that he was weaker, and his Body reduced to a Skeleton; that he had made his Will, and appointed the King of the Two Sicilies to ſucceed him, and willed 1,200,000 Pieces of Eight, to be diſtributed for ſaying Maſſes for the Repoſe of his Soul.

Deal, Jan. 11. The Two Siſters, Hanrick, from Maryland, is arrived at Cork.

Nancy, Boyd, from Ditto, at Londonderry.

Expedition, Cook, from Virginia, at Hull.

Madrid, Dec. 25. If the Lunacy of Charles VIth occaſioned ſuch Misfortunes to France, what is not to be apprehended from the dreadful State into which the King our Gracious Sovereign is fallen? Ever ſince the Death of the Queen, he hath kept himſelf immured at Villa Vicioſa, where he ſhuts himſelf up in a Chamber, abandoning himſelf to Grief and Melancholy, in a Manner, of which there are few Examples. He will not hear of any Buſineſs. He often paſſes 30, ſometimes 60 Hours, without taking any Food, or even the leaſt Reſt but by Intervals, laying himſelf down acroſs Chairs. His Conſtitution naturally good is daily impaired by this Kind of Life. He is much waſted, and a ſlow Fever, which ſometimes increaſes much, wears him away inſenſibly. He hath never ſuffered himſelf to be ſhaved, nor put on clean Linen ſince the 5th of September. He remains unmoved by the moſt reſpectful and moſt vehement Repreſentations. The Care and Skill of the ableſt Phyſicians, and we have many ſuch with reſpect to theſe Kind of Diſorders, have produced no Effect. The Nation naturally devout, hath Recourſe to Saints and Relics. Amidſt theſe melancholy Circumſtances he hath however been prevailed with to make his Will. The Count of Valdeparoiſo performed the Office of Notary on that Occaſion. And the Duke of Bejare, High Chamberlain, ſigned it for the King. The Infant Don Lewis ſtays conſtantly at the Palace of Villa Vicioſa, but he does not ſee the King, who will ſee no Body. His Royal Highneſs amuſes himſelf, from Time to Time, with Hunting, to avoid perhaps falling into his Brother's Diſorder.

March 29th, 1759.

WHEREAS Ruth M'Kinnon, formerly Spouſe to me the Subſcriber, is for ever hereafter juſtly ſeparated and diſcharged from me, becauſe of her having lately brought into my Family an adulterous Child, which was begot about the Beginning of June, 1758, while I was abſent in Britain; being born in full Time and Health on the ſecond of this Inſtant March. Theſe are therefore to forewarn all Perſons of whatever Denomination, for the future, from dealing with, or truſting her on my Account; for I do hereby ſolemnly proteſt, that I will not (according to Law) pay ſo much as a Farthing of any Debt or Debts, which ſhe may contract from the Date hereof.
