Piscataway, February 13, 1759.
THE Subscriber intending for BRITAIN, soon, hereby gives Notice to all Persons who have Accounts unsettled, for Dealings they have had with him at Piscataway, on Account of Messieurs John Glasford and Company, to come and settle the same by Bond, Bill, or Note, without Delay, otherwise they may expect Trouble without Respect of Persons. He hopes that every one who can, will discharge their Debts to the said Company before he leaves the Country; and those who cannot, will have Time given them upon proper Application. He hereby farther acquaints the Public, that the said Messieurs John Glasford and Company's Store at Piscataway, will be continued with the usual good Assortment of GOODS, to be sold for Money or Tobacco.
JAMES MARSHALL.

THE MANAGERS of the ANNAPOLIS LOTTERY, notwithstanding the repeated Notice already given to Gentlemen in distant Parts of the Province, to send in Accounts of the Tickets in their Hands (prevented as we presume by the Hardness of the Season) not having yet received them all, are under a Necessity of postponing the Drawing for a few Weeks. This is therefore to give Notice, that they will presently begin the Drawing on the First Thursday of the Provincial Court, being the 17th of April next. They have fixed on that Time, as there will be many of the Adventurers then in Town on such Business.

THE Subscriber hereby gives Notice to all Persons indebted to the Concern of Edward Trafford, Esq; and Sons, at Piscataway, either by Bond, or Note of Hand, to make Payment as they become due, otherwise they will immediately be put in Suit. All those that have not already settled their Accounts due from them to the said Concern, and do not immediately come and discharge or settle the same, may expect to be treated in such a Manner as will not be agreeable to them.

Mr. GREEN,
WHEN I introduce the Corn Wolf in the 21st Decem. Garb and Mien raise the Hue at the Possie, to bring the Felon to the Shepherd Boy in the Fable, Wolf, the Wolf, in Sport, and his Neighbours, that when the Wolf they would not believe him: For of is much more mischievous Woods. I cried out in earnest, not only recommended some Method found by Experience to be attended in some Parts of Europe, but also a Method for the total Extirpation of from among us. Now, though I take any Pains to make Trials, I ver'd in the theoretic Way, and give Hypotheses as visionary, I may promise; yet by no Means practical Observations, when Experience prov'd their having been successful even the Theory be laid aside, I contemplative View of the Nature of the Curious had not discovered the well as Sufenance, &c. of the Silk Worm, the Damage done is not be effectually prevented, nor the other improved.

It is not purely and vainly to ment to those of Mr. H. Q. in your 18th January that I resume the Wolf; but, as declared in my last Enquiry alive till we can, if possible, a factual Remedy; which, when we may give the Name of Wolf Propriety, than to a certain Vegetation. And I know nothing more conducive than to reduce this Inquisition to (for there are such in Natural Philosophy) Responses and Replies, as Mr. Q. has thought fit to without refusing, and introduce partly his own; it may not be a former, any thing he has said nor we examine the latter.

As to the first, there needs no the Public, that my Method of bacco, Oil of Turpentine, &c. is visionary, that, as I said above, Success in some Parts of Europe is not universal, perhaps for want of standing. Indeed by this Method sroy much stronger Animals, I ven Men. We will now examine.

He observes right, that without of Heat and Moisture, the Eggs ed; consequently whatever will p acquiring such a Degree of Heat preserve it from the Damage of and all such Insects.
