

force a Submission to much harder Terms; also the taking of Louis, and the Howick our Privateers must along the Coast the Island, must be strong Inducement to submit under the best able Conditions which have been offered. From Barbados the King's Castle, as far as Englishmen's Hands, the Privateers have hardly left a House standing near the Sea, but they encourage them to do the same by Grandterre and the Coast of Guadalupe.

P. 3. Since the above was prepared for Publication, have received a certain Account, that, in Consequence the taking Fort Louis, all Grandterre has surrendered.
Extract of a Letter from Barbados, dated the 21st Instant "We are in daily Expectation of the English and Fleets; and 'tis said, the Trident, and two other Ships War, are on their Passage for this Island; and that Transports with Highlanders, may be expected."

Several Vessels have arrived from Guadalupe here last, by which we learn, that on Saturday last a Party went out from the advanced Post of our Army, to bring a flock of Cattle which were seen at a Distance; but in a Gully, near the Place, the Enemy fired at them from behind an Entrenchment, and killed an Officer and 4 private Men, yet the Entrenchments were notwithstanding forced; but the Enemy found Means to carry off the Cattle Feb. 24. We have Advice from Guadalupe, that English Troops have taken Possession of an entrenched Ground to the Eastward of the Fort, and where the French have lately thrown up a Redoubt.

Feb. 28. Several Privateers arrived Yesterday from Guadalupe, laden with Plunder; and brought in one Prize Tugue, supposed to be very valuable. The Reports from Guadalupe are, that the English Army have decamped, and advanced very near the Enemy; but we cannot give it as Certain.

BOSTON, March 19.
The General Court have in their present Session made Provision for raising forthwith FIVE THOUSAND Men, for the General Service of the Year 1759, with a Bounty of Six Pounds to such as have not served before, and of Eight Pounds two Shillings to such as have served in any of the former Campaigns this present War; said Number to be completed by a Draft from the Militia on the 6th of April next, if the whole Number should not enlist before. And to such Seafaring Men as chuse to serve for the Campaign in the King's Ships, rather than go in the Land Service, the same Bounty, and to make their Wages together with the King's Pay to Six Dollars per Month. And the Court have by a Message to his Excellency the Governor, given him Hope, that in the Event and Operations of this Campaign, should any Emergencies arise, that might make any further Exercises necessary, they in such Emergency would endeavour to exert themselves.

NEW YORK, March 12.
Particulars of Major Robert Rogers's last Scout against the Enemy, viz.

THAT on the 3d March, Instant, he marched from Fort-Edward for Ticonderoga, with Capt. Lotteridge, and 52 Indians, composed of Mohawks, Concocheries, Scharries, Dilliwans, Oneidas, and Seneca's; and the following Detachment, viz. Of the Royal Regiment, Lieutenants West and Cook, 4 Sergeants, 1 Corporal, and 40 Privateers, Royal Americans, Light Infantry, Captain Williams, Lieutenant M'Key, Ensigns Brown and Moony, 4 Sergeants, Corporals, and 110 Privateers. Volunteers of ditto, Lieut.
Crumball, 3 Sergeants, 4 Corporals, and 41 Privateers; and Lieut. Brime, Engineer; and of the Rangers, Lieut. Tut, Holmes, Brewer and Stark, 7 Sergeants, and 79 Privateers; the Whole, Officers included, being 358: That they em-camped the first Night at Half-Way Brook, on the Road to Fort William Henry; one Indian having hurt himself on the Road, returned back with another to take Care of him; that on the 4th, at 10 o'Clock they began their March towards Lake George, and within a Mile of the same, altered till the Close of the Evening, that they might the next pass undiscovered from any Party of the Enemy, that might be watching on the Hills, when they continued their March till two o'Clock in the Morning, at which Time they crossed the first Narrows.—In the Morning several of the Detachments being Frost-bitten, sent back 23 of them with careful Sergeant of the Rangers, with Orders to return them to Fort-Edward. On the Evening of the 5th, they began their March, and reached Sabbath Day Point at One o'Clock, when they encamped till the Morning of the 7th, at which Time marched again, and arrived at the ending Place about 8 o'Clock in the Morning, and halted at a Point of Land on the East Side, near Mutton-Island, where they intended to form an Ambuscade, and endeavored to draw out a Party from the Fort, by a few skulking Indians, who were to return again to the main Body.— At 9 o'Clock they sent out two Rangers and two Indians to reconnoitre, that the Major might the better effect Designs; they returned about 11 o'Clock, and reported, there was no Party out on the West Side, but on the East Side, there were two Parties cutting of Wood.—It appearing a good Time for the Engineer to make his Observations, &c. Capt. Williams was ordered to remain with the Regulars, and 30 Rangers, whilst the Major, with Engineer and 49 Rangers, and Capt. Lotteridge, with Indians, should go to the Hill on the Indian's that overlooks the Fort; where Major Rogers left Lieut. Tut, and Rangers, as a Guard, with an Intent to cross the Lake the Remainder to the East Side, and cut off the working Party that Night.—That when he came near the Lake, he found that he could not get over undiscovered in the Day time, therefore returned to the Engineer, who was left to the Observation of the Fort, &c.—and with him, and the whole Party, marched back to the Point where Capt.
Williams was, first leaving five Indians and one Ranger to observe what Numbers crossed the Lake in the Evening, from the East Side to the Fort.—That about dark the Indians Rangers returned with an exact Account of their Number, at which Time the Engineer set out again with Lieut. and 10 Rangers, and went to the Entrenchment, from where he returned about Midnight without any Molestation; he had accomplished his Business to his Satisfaction.—That upon this the Major ordered Capt. Wylliam with the Regulars, back to Sabbath Day Point; as the weather was excessive cold, and the Party much fatigue, it did not appear prudent to march them any further, therefore sent with them Lieutenant Tut, and thirty Rangers, as occasional Pilots, or flanking Party.

That at 3 o'Clock the Major marched with Capt. Lotteridge and 45 of his Indians, with Lieutenants Holmes, Stark, and Brewer, and 40 of his Rangers, and one Regular, in order to attack the working Party, on the East Side, early in the Morning, and crossed South Bay, 8 Miles South of the Fort, from thence bore down the same till they were opposite the Fort on the East Side, where they halted within half a Mile of the Lake; from whence sent out two Indians to reconnoitre, who returned in a few Minutes, and brought Intelligence, that the working Party was close to the Bank of the Lake, opposite to the Fort. Upon which they stripped off their Blankets, and ran down upon them, took seven Prisoners, four Scalps, and killed several others, as they were retreating to the Fort, whereupon eighty Indians and Canadians rushed out of the Fort, and pursued our Men closely, being backed by about 150 French Regulars.— That in about one Mile's March the Indians and Canadians overtaken them, and began to play on their Rear; as they marched in a Line abreast, their Front was easily made, and halted on a rising Ground, and engaged the Enemy, who behaved with great Bravery for a little Time, but soon found they could not stand before our Marks-men, till their Reinforcement could come up, and was obliged to scatter and run for it. That after this the Major began his March again in a Line abreast, and when he had proceeded about half a Mile further, the Enemy appeared in Sight again, but he did not chuse to engage them there, and went a little further, and halted on a long Ridge on that Side, opposite to the Enemy, when the Canadians and Indians came up very close, but their Pursuit was soon stopp'd by a Volley from the Mohawks and Rangers, which broke them immediately, when Part of Rogers's Detachment pursued them, till they were in Sight of the French Regulars, where the French made a Stand.—That afterwards he marched off without any Opposition, the Enemy not daring to pursue him any farther.—That in these several Skirmishes they had 2 Rangers and 1 Regular killed, and one Indian badly wounded, and judged to have killed about thirty of the Enemy."

We can further assure the Public, that Major Rogers's Party in general, both Officers and Men, behaved extremely well, and especially Captain Lotteridge and Lieutenant Holmes, who strove to exceed each other, both of whom behaved with great Bravery and Coolness during the whole Affair.—That he continued his Retreat till 12 o'Clock at Night, and at the End of fifty Miles March, from where he set out in the Morning, joined Capt. Williams at Sabbath Day Point, who had kindled Fires for his Reception, which were, no doubt, very acceptable to the Party.—And that next Morning he marched as far as Long-Island, on the Lake, with the whole Detachment, where he encamped, from which Place he sent an Express to Col. Haldiman, at Fort Edward, and was met the next Morning at Lake George, by Captain M'Bein, with a Detachment, who brought some Slays to carry the disabled Men to Fort Edward, where they all arrived the Evening of the 10th.

We hear the Mohawks carried four of the French Prisoners home with them.
The Ship Dolphin, Monsieur Dumain, late Master, of and for Nantz, from the Cape, taken on the 19th of February by the Captains Miller, Dale and Lilly, of this Place, and Captain Wright, of Cape-Fear, came into Port on Tuesday last.

The same Day came into Port also, the Ship Peter, of Amsterdam, Andries Zeegard, Master, from the Cape for Amsterdam, as the Captain says, that when taken by the Captains Troup, Donaldson and Dale, of this Port, he was under Convoy of a 74 Gun Ship and a Frigate, and sailed from Cape-Francois in Company with the Fleet: She is 600 Tons Burthen, and has a valuable Cargo, consisting of 630 Hogheads of white Sugar, 60 Hogheads, 104 Tierces, and 200 Barrels of Coffee, besides 476 Pieces of Campeachy Wood.

ANNAPOLIS, April 5.

A Gentleman in London, to his Friend here, writes, That in Holland there was much Confusion since the Death of her Royal Highness the Princess Gouvernante, and it was apprehended the People would Rise against the States; and that a War with Holland was talk'd of.

His Excellency our Governor returned home, from the Northward, in good Health, on Tuesday last.

Yesterday Morning STEPHEN BORDLEY, Esq; was sworn in one of his Lordship's Honourable Council of State of this Province.

In the Afternoon the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of this Province met here, when his Excellency the Governor opened the Session with the following SPEECH, viz.

Gentlemen of the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly,

HIS Majesty having nothing so much at Heart, as to improve the great and important Advantages gained the last Campaign, as well as to repair the Disappointment at Ticonderoga, and by the most vigorous and extensive Efforts, to avert, by the Blessing of God on his Arms, all Dangers which may threaten North-America, from any future Irruptions of the French, and not doubting but all his faithful and brave Subjects here, will cheerfully co-operate with, and second, to the utmost, the extraordinary Succours supplied by the Kingdom of Great-Britain for our Preservation and Defence: He hath been pleased to order the Right Honourable WILLIAM PITT, Esq; one of his principal Secretaries of State, to write to the Governors of these Colonies, and require them once more to convene the General Assemblies of their respective Provinces, and urge them to raise, with all possible Dispatch, as large a Body of Men as the Circumstances of each Province will allow, to act in Conjunction with such of the King's Regular Troops, as may, during the ensuing Campaign, be employed against his Enemies on this Continent: In Obedience therefore to his Majesty's Commands, so signified to me, I meet you again at this Time, and that you may the better know what is expected from us, I shall lay before you several Letters that I have lately received from the Secretary of State, and from General Amherst; the Contents whereof will, I hope, induce you to embrace the Opportunity which now presents itself, the last probably that you will have of making Amends, in some Sort, for your Failure last Year, by a ready and dutiful Performance of the Service, which, in Pursuance of his Majesty's Commands, is now so earnestly recommended to us.
