

Majesty's Ships Warfight and Intrepid from Fleet to the Mediterranean.

A Train of Artillery is embarking in the River, to be sent to Spithead, to join the Expedition Fleet; and a large Draught of Matrosses, &c. for Portsmouth next Week, to embark on board the said Fleet.

It is said the Earl of Antrim will have the chief Command of the Troops that are going on the Expedition.

The Field Equipages of the Officers who are to accompany this Summer, are getting ready with all Expedition.

A Reinforcement of Invalids is to be sent down all the Garrisons on the Sea Coast.

The Phila, Farmer, from New-York, is arrived at the River, after being taken by a French Privateer, and ransomed for 2000*l*.

They write from Spain, that 29 Men of War ordered to be equipped in their several Ports with all Expedition.

Thursday, the First of March, a Vessel arrived from Seville, in 15 Days, who brings an Account of the King of Spain's Death, and that the greatest Preparations were making for receiving Don Carlos, and that several Men of War were sent to Naples to bring his Majesty to Spain, assume the Crown of that Kingdom.

Monday 18. According to the last Advice from the South of France, Grain of all Kinds has been very scarce, and consequently very dear; but that extraordinary Supply from Naples and Africa, 136,000 Lasts of Corn, which had been imported within a little Time into Marseilles, had reduced the Price very considerably.

We hear from Cadix, that the grand Rendezvous of the 20 Sail of Spanish Men of War, that were ordered to be equipped, is to be at Ferrol; and that besides their usual Complement of Seamen, some Land Forces are to go on board.

We hear that the Perion of Distinction, a Methodist, who has lately taken holy Orders, is a Noble Lord.

Extract of a Letter from Falmouth, March 20.

The eldest Man living in this Place who has weathered such a Storm as we had Yesterday. The greatest Part of the Vessels in the Harbour drove from their Anchors, and received considerable Damage. The Town and Neighbourhood have also suffered greatly, several Houses being blown down. The King George, and the Harriet Packet parted from their Cable, and drove on Shore, but got off again.

A Vessel laden with Brandy and some Plank, stove and fell in with Water. The Dolphin, Dillon, from Jamaica, drove on a Bank and had spent her Water in her Hold. A Ship laden with Fish, fell her Mast; a Schooner and a Brig lost, all the Crew perished; bad weather.

A Ship beat to Pieces, some Tobacco Sticks were driven on Shore, but from what Cause or where found, unknown. A Schooner called the Fortune, John Nickett, Master, (Died) from Guinea or London, with Lemons, drove off at 8 o'clock, and beat to Pieces; 200 Chests saved, and sold at 3*l* 9*s* 6*d*.

His Majesty's Ships Unicorn and Adventure, have taken the Moras Privateer of St. Malo, Capt. La Fosse, of 20 Guns, and 200 Men, and sent her into Plymouth. She had been out a Month, but had taken nothing.

His Majesty's Ship Montague has taken the Marquis de Marigot Privateer of Granville, of 18 Guns, and 180 Men, and the Hardiment Merchant Privateer of Dunkirk, of 8 Guns, and 60 Men, and brought them both into Plymouth.

BOSTON, May 21.

Last Monday Capt. Orme arrived at Salem, in a Schooner from Jamaica, who was taken to his Passage coming thro' the Gulf, by a French Frigate, but ransomed his Vessel and Cargo for 800 Dollars. This Frigate, his said, was bound from France with Dispatches for Quebec, but it being impracticable to get up the River St. Lawrence, stood to the Southward, in order to forward them by the Way of the Mississippi.

Saturday forenoon a Vessel arrived at Newbury 7 Days from Halifax, in which came an Officer, who informs that General Wolfe was arrived there, which had very much animated our Forces; and all possible Diligence was used in forwarding the grand Expedition. That the Sloop had returned which had been sent to view St. Lawrence River, with Advice, that the Ice has broke up, and the River almost clear, except what floated down from above. That Admiral Dorell, with his Squadron of eight Men of War, by Admiral Saunders's Order, had sailed upon a secret Expedition, having on board 500 Land Forces, including two Companies of Grenadiers, and one of Light Infantry, the other picked Men, detached from the several Regiments. The said Officer had Dispatches from General Wolfe to General Amherst's Orders, removed and returned.

Yesterday Capt. Jenkins arrived here from Halifax, which Place he left on Monday, about Two o'Clock in the Afternoon. He informs us, that Admiral Saunders, with seven Men of War, and a Number of Transports, sailed from thence at 4 o'Clock the same Morning (Sunday May 13) with a fair Wind for Halifax, that as soon as the Admiral got out, he was joined by three Men of War, and some Transports, which continue say was Commodore Holmes, as he saw his Blue Flag at the Mizzen-top-mast, and the Admiral and Commodore compliment each other with a Salute. The Transports that sailed from Halifax had on board Capt. Gorham's and Brewer's Companies of Rangers; and were to go immediately up the River St. Lawrence after Admiral Dorell, who sailed about a Fortnight before, with 8 Ships of the Line, and some Troops; and if they did not meet him at the Mouth of the River, were to proceed 65 Leagues up, where it is said they have Orders to make some advantageous Post; that the Troops at Halifax were to embark the next Day, and sail the Day following; that the regular Troops from Lunenburg were relieved by the Provincial Troops of Col. Thomas's Regiment, and joined the Admiral without disembarking; and that those from St. John's in the Bay of Fundy, was not arrived, but hourly expected.

Thirty Sail of Transports, under Convoy of the Hind Man of War, failed last Tuesday to join General Wolfe at Louisbourg.

NEW-YORK, May 28.

Capt. Courtney, of the Sloop Achilles, arrived here Wednesday last from Louisburg, in 16 Days. On the 16th of May, being in Lat. 40*o* 46*'* North, and Long. 69*o* 00*'* West from London, he spoke with a Sloop from Surinam, bound to Rhode-Island, Randall Holden, Master, who had been seven Months out of Surinam, had lost his Mast the 6th of January last, as likewise his Sails, except a Piece of an old Main-sail, and a Flying Jib, had but the Mast and two Men alive, and had neither Bread nor Meat on board; when Courtney spared them about 20 Pounds of Beef and Pork, and about 4 Dozes of Bisket, being very short himself.

Last Monday arrived here the Ship Redbreast, Capt. Isaac Woodcock, from St. Martin, which he left the 6th of May. He informs us, that the Day he left St. Martin, he saw and spoke to one Kinnion, a Person who constantly trades from that Island, among the French, and who informs him, that on the 28th of April, he spoke to the General of the French Forces which were landed that Day at St. Francois on Grand-terre, in order to assist their Countrymen. That the General told him he was brought thither by two Frigates only, of Monsieur Bompey's Squadron, and five Privateers, who as soon as they loaded him, immediately put to Sea; That when he heard Guadaloupe was surrendered to General Boscawen, he made a Signal to the Frigate to return and take off his Men, which they did the same Day they landed, without Molestation; and that he had deputed a French Privateer Sloop, which put into the Mouth of St. Francois (with a Philadelphia Snow she had made Prize of), in order to carry him and some few of his Officers back to Martinico.

The French General was also very inquisitive of Mr. Kinnion, about the future Operations of our Forces, the which he was not backward in letting him know, as far as he was acquainted, by telling him they were actually to make a Descent upon Martinico, upon the Arrival of a Reinforcement from Home, which was hourly expected; the General soon after went off with shrug Shoulders, and a fallen Look.

Thursday last arrived here a French Prize Sloop, called La Fortune, taken on the 4th of April last, by the Privateer Ship General Johnson, Capt. Wale, of this Port. She was bound from St. Louis, on Hispaniola, to Cayenne, and laden with Sugar, Cotton and Coffee; and had three Frenchmen on board, who say the Sloop and Cargo are entirely French Property.

Captain Light, the same Day took a Schooner bound from the said Port, which he ransomed for about 1000 Dollars; and in his cruising Ground, when the La Fortune left him, he made no Doubt, if his Intelligence was good, of taking some valuable Prize.

On Friday the Brig Abigail, Capt. Phillippe, arrived here in 18 Days from Montpelier. In his Passage he fell in with his Majesty's Ships the Namure, Augusta, and Edinburgh, who were cruising off the Old Cape, and intended to go on for the Mount, to put a Stop to the Trade carried on at that Place by the English.

A Gentleman, from Albany informs us, that there was but 6 of the Party of Rangers killed and scalped by the Enemy, instead of 30, as was at first reported. The Party, consisting of 35, went out under the Command of a Lieutenant, and being between Fort Edward and Lake George, were attacked by a large Party of French and Indians, which they twice bravely repulsed; but another Party, doubling up, they were overpowered by Numbers, 6 being killed, and the rest taken Prisoners, and carried to Ticonderoga.

The Prize Snow brought in by Captain Ritchie, belongs to a Fleet of 16 or 17 Sail, from Bonaventure for Quebec, laden with Provisions, all Vessels of Force; each Ship had a Number of Soldiers on board; and they were convoyed by two of the 96 Gun Frigates.

We hear that at a Treaty lately held with the Indians at Sir William Johnson's, among the Prisoners delivered to him, there was one belonging to this Province, a Girl of 5 Years old, of the Name of Annetrop, taken from Indians; and that the different Nations, at that Meeting, had obliged themselves to give up the Prisoners in their Hands, to be sent near Fall.

Captain Phillippe, of the Brig Abigail, who has just arrived here, speaks with the Britanna Privateer, of this Port, Capt. ...
