

Turnball thought they were some of our own People; but when they came higher he soon discovered them to be Enemies; on which he and his Men made the best of their Way for the Shore, and the Enemy pursued them very hard, especially the Bark Canoe, in which were 12 or 14 Indians, but our People happily got to Shore before them, and ran up thro' the Woods: The Enemy followed them for four Miles, but could not take any of them Prisoners: They all five came safe home to Camp about 8 o'Clock the Day after; but without either Coat, Breeches, Shoes or Hose.

PHILADELPHIA, July 12.
At a Court of Admiralty, held here last Week, the four Prizes, lately brought in by the Britannia Privateer, Capt. M'Pherson, were all condemned.

Extra of a Letter from Boston, June 25, 1759.
A Vessel is just arrived here in 8 Days from Louisburg, by which we learn, that a French Schooner was sent in there, taken by Admiral Durell's Squadron, within 15 Leagues of Quebec.

The Schooner was bound down the River, and informed the Admiral that two French Ships of the Line, three Frigates, and thirteen or fifteen Transports, had got up to Quebec, and others were daily expected; but we hope our Fleets will prevent them.

We have Advice from Albany, that two Families were lately cut off, within five or six Miles of Sir William Johnson's.

Extra of a Letter from Pittsburg, June 26, 1759.
There lately arrived here two Indian Messengers from Chinesse, a Town of the Seneca Nation, with a Message to all the Tribes settled on the Ohio, acquainting them, that the Six Nations had taken, near that Place, Juncobr, the famous French Interpreter, with another Officer, and killed a Third, whose Scalp, with the two French Officers, and some French Soldiers, they had sent to Sir William Johnson.

Extra of another Letter from the same Place, dated the First Instant.

"The Convoy is arrived safe, which would have been attacked by a large Body of French and Indians, if they had been one Day longer on their March. Upwards of 400 Indians, of different Nations, have been lately at this Fort, and were all clothed. The Beaver Chief, with several other Chiefs, of sundry Tribes, and their Attendants, are expected."

ANNAPOLIS, July 19.

We hear that on Wednesday last Week a Party of French and Indians made a sudden Attack upon Loyal Hamon, killed Three of the Royal Americans, and carried off Two Prisoners. On Thursday they attacked Stanz-Creek, and killed Capt. Jones of the Pennsylvanians, Three Privates, and one Woman, who were looking over the Redoubt; and would in all Likelihood have carried that Post, had not Four Hundred of the Royal Americans very fortunately entered it, about an Hour before. On Friday they made an Attempt upon Rays-Town; and killed Three or Four there: At which last Place a Field Officer's Guard is kept, as they expect another Visit from them. 'Tis said that by Advices from Pittsburg, this Party consists of Three Hundred Indians and Sixty French, of whom we hope soon to have a more agreeable Account. Last Monday Capt. David Lewis, in the Tide and Yan, who came out with the Fleet, arrived in South River; the whole Fleet being now arrived, except Captain Montgomery in the Cato, who met with some Damage soon after he came out, and put back.

There have lately been several Robberies committed at Bladenburg; and Threatening Letters dropp'd; and a few Days since a young Gentleman was shot at as he was leaning over the Rail of the Bridge; and the Bullet went thro' his Hat (within about an Inch of his Head) and knock'd it off.

A LIST of the PRIZES drawn in the MARLBOROUGH LOTTERY, will be inserted in our next Gazette.
