The Still-House is built of Cedar 32 by 26 Feet clear. Also a new Framed House 29 by 19 Feet, with a Cellar under it; convenient to the Still-House.

Any one who is acquainted with the Country, may see a great Opening for the carrying on a very extensive and profitable Business through Chesapeake and its many fine Rivers, from this only Distillery in Maryland, if not also Virginia. All Grain is there cheap, being usually from 6 d. upwards cheaper in the Bushel than at Philadelphia. Wood is there at 3 s. per Cord, and there is a good Market for Flour, Lumber, and other Commodities, for a West-India Trade, to be purchased cheap. The Country is in flourishing Circumstances, and consumes great Quantities of Spirituous Liquors, which at all Times are sold at a considerable Advance upon the Philadelphia Price. As a further Encouragement to the Business of a Distiller in Maryland more than till late has been in 1756 an Excise of 4 d. per Gallon on Rum and spirituous Liquors imported from other Provinces is laid on the Retailer or Consumer; and in 1758 a further Duty is laid upon what shall be brought from Pennsylvania and the Three Lower Counties of 3 d. per Gallon, to be paid by the Importer, which together make 7 Pence Duty per Gallon; whereas there is only 2 d. per Gallon charged on what is made and consumed in Maryland. Also the Dwelling-House, Store-House, &c. of the late Peacock Bigger, in the said Town, fitted for a Tavern or Store-keeper.

One Third of the Purchase Money to be paid down at the Sale, and Time to be given for Payment of the Remainder upon Security given. The Sale to be on the Premises.
