

Monday last Captain Sneed arrived here in six Weeks
... by whom we have certain Advice of the
... the KING of SPAIN: That Admiral Boscawen
... there with three Ships of the Line and four
... and had sailed again, a Month before the
... John Admiral Boscawen's Squadron, and to ... command of both, consisting, together, of seventeen
... of the Line, four Fire-ships, and several Frigates,
... which he was to proceed to Naples, in order to carry
... of the Two Sicilies to the Court of Spain: That
... to be joined by eighteen Spanish Ships of the Line,
... Frigates, which were to be fitted out at Cadix and
... That twelve of these Ships had actually sailed to
... Admiral Boscawen; that the rest were soon to follow:
... If needful, he (Boscawen) was to take with him
... Spanish Land Forces he thought proper.
... Sneed also advises, that twelve Sail of St. Do-
... Men had been carried into Gibraltar by our Men of
... very rich, besides many other Prizes.
... hear that two of the Royal Americans have been late-
... and scalded near Stony-Creek, and another carried
... that two of our Provincials met with the same
... Bedford, and one of them also made Prisoner;
... Mr. Morton, a Wagon-master, and a Commissary,
... died within these few Days, by a Party of the En-
... Fort Littleton and Bedford.
