Letter from a Gentleman in the Expedition against am just come down from within a little better than iles of Quebec City, where I have had a full Prospect Our Army has been landed some Days, to the A-of about 8000, in two Divisions, viz. one on the n Extremity of Orleans Island, the other on Point-within Cannon Shot of the City) on the South Shore. ay before Yesterday, 4000 decamped from Orleans, nded on the North Shore, whereon stands the City, without Opposition, as I am informed, though the have two large Camps on the same Ground; the Day much Firing was made by our Esquads, some thrown from our Ketches, though with little Success, two which I saw fall in their Camp, and put them in Confusion, the rest, being about seven, burst in my fired smartly from the City on Point-Levi, where within the Range, the French Shot going Half a Mile our Battery. Admiral Holmes, and Capt. Rouse, to the North Shore as near as their Keels would let and began firing smartly; but I believe the Whole little Purpose as yet on both Sides, as the French fired floating Batteries of 20 Guns on a Quadrangular, 5 in line. Their Camp lay on high Ground, and, it is my on, our Ships Guns cannot touch them: They are be 14,000 strong, 4 or 5000 of them Regulars. the 27th of June we had a violent Storm for about ours, which put many Transports adrift, dismasted tore away their Heads, even down to the Water, by ing foul of others; losing their Bowsprits, many An-lost, five or six Vessels, as Ships, Snows, Brigs, and People drowned; however we met with no great Da-The Night after the Storm the French, imagining ere distressed, sent down the River with a fair Wind, by the Vigilance of our Seamen, towed clear of every in the Fleet, and grounded on the Shore, where they hells, with long Chains to them, into the Fireships, hereby towed them with Ropes to the End of the Chains.

own People Spirits) though it is a small Allay to our tion of the whole Country, and of the Walls of Quebec graced with English Colours." cannot help observing the French Artifice, in order to up the Spirits of their People, by representing that Affairs with General Amherst; for it is evident he did not ex-ake till some Time after the Date of the above Letter: if General Amherst should succeed in reducing their Fort, which we soon expect to hear, we should not be surpris'd ive an Account, that the French had sung Te Deum for ictory they had obtained.

NEW-YORK, August 13.
Wednesday last a Gentleman (one of his Excellency Major-al AMHERST's Aids de Camp) came to Town from nderoga, by whom we have the agreeable News of his lency's taking Possession of the Fort of Crown-Point, after it was left by its Garrison. As soon as the Rangers ght Infantry that were sent forward to try to extinguish lames (which were occasioned by the Blowing up of the azines; and which Explosion destroyed the Citadel, and of the Batteries) arrived at the Fort, they immediately set the Execution of their Orders from the General; and, a good deal of Trouble and Fatigue, prevented the Flames penetrating to the other Parts of the Fort:—As soon General and the main Body of his Army arrived at n-Point from Ticonderoga, they used all possible Means tily to extinguish the Fire, and happily accomplished it.
The Fort was a beautiful Building.

General AMHERST is going to build a very strong Fort the Place where Crown-Point Fort stands; and will y the old Fort, after he has taken every Thing from it may be of Service in erecting the new One.—When Work is finished, the General, it is said, will, after g a proper Number of Men to garrison it, march forwith the rest of his Army, in order to further his Opes against the Enemy.

General JOHNSON, we hear, still continues at Niagara, the Troops under his Command; though it is said, as as he has taken effectual Measures for the Security of Place, he will go with all his Indians, and some Reguto a Place called Oswegatchie, and attempt the Reduc-of that Place.

we have the Pleasure of assuring the Public, that by our Accounts from the Armies of the Generals AMHERST ONSON, we are informed, That our Troops keep their h exceeding well, and are in high Spirits.

Extract of a Letter from Ticonderoga, July 26.
This Day we began to cut Timber for a Vessel that is unt 20 Guns, 9 and 12 Pounders; the Enemy having mber of armed Vessels on Lake Champlain.—Governor of Carolina, with two other Gentlemen, arrived at George two Nights before we embarked, and are here ectators."

we hear from Ticonderoga, that the New Hampshire Regi-had left that Place, in order to join General Johnson's y at Niagara.

Wednesday Night last Capt. Prescott, of the 15th Regiment, d here from Crown-Point, in 3 Days, being 275 Miles: gone to England in the General-Wall Packet, Captain tyche, who sailed Yesterday for Falmouth and carries the News of the Reduction of Crown-Point, and Niabeing dispatched by General Amherst for that Purpose.

PHILADELPHIA, August 16.

Extract of a Letter from Crown-Point, August 3, 1759.
After the Enemy had retreated from Ticonderoga to this Place, they likewise abandoned it, having blown up their Magazine, or Citadel Bastion, burnt all the Inside Work, and destroyed their Gardens. The Remainder of the Fort is pretty intact. It is a regular square Stone Building, with four Batteries, but only defensible against small Arms; no Ramparts for Cannon.
It is a very pretty Spot, and may be made an excellent Frontier against our Enemies. We are at present encamped in a fine Field of Clover."

By a Letter from Niagara, of the 21st ult. we learn, that by the Affiduity and Influence of Sir William Johnson, there were upwards of Eleven Hundred Indians convened there, who, by their good Behaviour, have justly gained the Esteem of the whole Army: That Sir William being informed the Enemy had buried a Quantity of Goods on an Island, about 20 Miles from the Fort, sent a Number of Indians to search for them, who found to the Value of Eight Thousand Pounds, and were in Hopes of finding more: And that a French Vessel, entirely laden with Beaver, had foundered on the Lake, when her Crew, consisting of 41 Men, were all left.

We have Advice from Pittsburgh, of the first Instant, that the Night before, a Centinel, and another Soldier, both Highlanders, were carried off by the Enemy from the Centinel's Post; and that one of them was found dead and scalped a little Way off: That at Venango there were 100 French, and about 60 Indians (some of them in our Interest) and that the Artillery that was brought to Venango, was all carried up French Creek, in order to be conveyed across the Lakes.
Extract of a Letter from Fort Bedford, dated the 3th Instant.

"On the Fifth of this Month, a large Convoy, going to Ligionier, was attacked at the Foot of the Laurel Hill, four Miles from the Fort. Captain Jocelyne, of the Royal Americans, who commanded a Party that had been sent that Morning from Ligionier to meet the Convoy, came just in Time to support the Escort, upon their being first attacked by the Enemy. This brave unfortunate young Gentleman, with an Impetuous becoming the best Officer, advanced upon the Enemy with his subtle Party, and repulsed them. They left two of their Indians dead on the Field, and retired with the utmost Precipitation, but it was the hard Fate of poor Captain Jocelyne to receive a Shot from the Enemy, which went through his Body, and he expired very soon after; however, let it be recorded, to his Honour, that he saved a most important Convoy of Stores, and Provisions, from falling into the Enemy's Hands, and bravely left his Life fighting for his Country. The Enemy left also five Guns, Blankets, and other Marks of their Defeat, behind them."

ANNAPOLIS, August 23.
Last Monday as a Sloop was going up South-River, with a fine Breeze, having only one Man and two Boys on board, the Boys scuffling at Play on the Deck, accidentally fell over board, and were Drowned in one another's Arms. One of them was a pretty sprightly Lad, Son to a Gentleman in Ireland; the other a Negro belonging to Mr. Thomas Norris.
We are informed from Hampton, that the beginning of this Month, Capt. Walter Montgomerie, (who was to have come with the Fleet) in the Cato, arrived there from England, after a Passage of Eleven Weeks.

By some Articles, brought in by the Packet to New-York, we find, that the News Writers have brought the King of Spain to Life again. It is said now that his Illness is like to be of long Continuance, and that a Council of Regency was to be establish'd, with the Queen Dowager at the Head of it.
