The Engagement began at Seven o'Clock, and continued very hot, till Twelve; during which the Captain Bowd beat the Privateer off three Times, and recd her the last Time, but could not come up with her. Captain Bowd had but 17 Hands, including two Boys, who behaved extraordinary well; as did a Passenger he had on board. There were none killed or wounded on board; the French of August, but the Enemy was supposed to have sustained considerable Damage.

Captain Darrell, from Bermuda, in Let. 34. 50. North, Long. 65. 38. West, saw ten Sail of Vessels steering E. one of which, a very large Ship, supposed to be a French Man of War, and their Convoy. He imagined them to be bound westward, from Cape Francois. Two other Vessels following the Fleet, which he took to be English Privateers.

From Fort Augusta we learn, that the Garrison was well supplied with the First Instant: That a Number of Indians were at that Place, in order to trade with our People, who all seemed well satisfied, and very quiet: That there were amongst them some Families from Allegheny, who said they would settle at Wyoming: And that several of the Mingo Indians had also been at that Fort, and brought with them white Prisoner, a Lad about sixteen Years of Age, who was carried off from Juniata four Years ago.

The Sloop Nancy, Capt. Adams, of this Port, lately taken by the French on her Passage to Antigua, is retaken by the Letter of Marque Vessel.

The Ship Prussian Hero, Capt. Mitchell, bound to Antigua from this Place, ran ashore on the Nine Feet Bank at Bermuda. Part of her Cargo was got out, and it was thought the Ship would be saved.
