THE Sixth of November last was left with me Four Crop Notes, by Capt. Alexander Rebb, who desired me to send them down to Nanjemoy Warehouse, to be put on board a Sloop he had ordered to call there for these and some other Tobaccoes. Accordingly I sent a Negro Boy down the next Day with the above Notes; but before he got there, the Sloop had taken the other Tobaccoes out of the Warehouse, and proceeded on her Passage; so the Boy brought them back. I have kept them in my Possession ever since, in Expectation of hearing from Capt. Rebb; but as I have received no Directions in regard to this Tobacco from him, and perhaps the Gentleman who intended to ship them, knows no other but that they are gone Home, I think it necessary to inform the Owner that they are still in my Hands. They were inspected the last of July at Nanjemoy Warehouse, in the Name of George Tubman, and mark'd DW, No. 17, 22, 24, and 25; they are also mark'd RL, No. 1, 2, 3, 4, which I suppose is the Gentleman's Mark who intended to ship them. Whoever these Notes belong to, may have them, paying the Charge of this Advertisement, and applying to GEORGE BOWDON.
