April 15. The Fleets which are to be commanded by Sir Edward Hawke and Admiral Saun. ders, are getting ready with all Expedition.

We hear that the Transports now in the Downs, bound to Quebec, are to take on board the Garrison of Louisburg, after the Fortifications are demolifi. ed, and afterwards to sail up the River St. Law. rence to Quebec, to join the Troops there, in order to assist in the Reduction of the Places that shall still remain in the Possession of the French.

On the 2d Inft. a Conference was held at Rifwic, in Holland, where Count Golofkin resides, at which Duke Lewis of Brunswick, the Count D'As. fry, the French Ambassador, and the Baron Reis. chach, the Austrian Minister, affisted. At this Conference and not before, the formal Answer of the Courts of Vienna, Paris, and Petersburgh, to the Courts of Vienna, 1 aris, and receiving n, to the Proposal made, on the 25th of November 1ath, by the Courts of London and Berlin, for holding a Congress, was delivered to the Duke of Bruns. wick... The Substance of which Answer was, that the three Courts are ready to hold a Congress; but as they cannot treat of Peace but in Concert with their Allies, they defire that the King of Poland, as Elector of Saxony, and the King of Sweden, may be invited to it.

April 17. Yesterday the Earl Ferrers was brought up to Westminster Hall, when the Remainder of his Lordship's Witnesses were examined; after which the Lords adjourned to their own Chamber, and came in again, and the Lords Opi-nions taken by the Lord High Steward, when ther Lordships unanimously found him guilty of the Felony and Murder; and his Lordship is to have Sentence passed on him this Day.

The following, we are told, is the Sentence of the Court Martial upon Lord G. S.

"The Court, upon due Consideration of the whole Matter before them, is of Opinion, that " Lord G. S. is guilty of having disobeyed the Orders of Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick, " whom he was, by his Commission and Instruc-"tions, directed to obey, as Commander in Chief, according to the Rules of War: And it is the " further Opinion of this Court, that the faid Lord "G. S. is, and he is hereby adjudged, unfit to ferve his Majesty in any Military Capacity

" whatever." April 19. Yesterday the Earl Ferrers was brought from the Tower to Westminster Hall to receive his Sentence, which was passed on his Lordship by the L. High Steward, about 2 o'Clock, and is as follows: That "His Lordship be taken back to the "Prison from whence he came, and from thence to the Place of Execution, on Monday next, and there to be hanged by the Neck till he was dead; after which, his Body was to be delivered to " Surgeon's Hall, to be dissected and anatomized." Afterwards the Lord High Steward took Notice, that the Lords, his Judges, had a Power of respiting, and therefore, that he might have more Time to prepare himself, they respited his Execution to

Monday the 5th of May next.

Earl Ferrers read a Paper, in which he expressed his Concern for the Trouble he had given their Lordships, but that he had been advised by his Friends to make the Plea of Lunacy, and begged their Lordships to recommend him to the King for Mercy. Yesterday Morning between 9 and 10 o'Clock, a dreadful Fire broke out at the House of Messeurs Barrow and Reynolds, Oilmen, in Thames-street, adjoining to St. Magnus Church, which consumed their House; also Mr. Bayley's, the Tackle-porter Alehouse; Mr. Bland's, an Orange Merchant; Mr. Williams's, a Salter; Mr. Franklin's, a Cocper; Mr. Prentice's, a Seedsman; Mr. Wood's, the King's Head Alehouse, in Fresh Wharff Gateway; all the Warehouses at Fresh Wharsf; and the Roof of St. Magnus Church, which fell in, and has very much damaged the Pews, Altar-piece, &c. The Organ was removed, but the Hurry being so great, it is supposed that it is very much damaged; two Ships lying off Fresh Wharff received little Hurt, but? great Quantity of Sugar, Wine, Oranges and Lemons, and other Goods that were in the Water houses, were entirely destroyed.

Some fay it was occasioned by a Servant whe was drawing off some Turpentine, when a Spack from his Candle flew into the Vessel and set it on Fire.

Other for the Servant went out to see the Earl Ferrers go by.

The Damage, it is thought, amounts to the Sum of at least 40,000 l. In the House where it began, there was a great Quantity of Gunpowder which took Fire, the Explosion of which greatly terrified the Inhabitants, and prevented many Persons from venturing to assist the Distressed. Several Firemen, and other Persons, were wounded, and one was blown up. All possible Diligence was used to stop the Spraading of this dreadful Calamity, and the Warchouses, &c. from Thames-street to Billingstate were emptied, in order to save the Commodities, if the Flames should spread.

Several Cass of Oil were prudently staved in the Thames, which probably saved many Houses. Find the Missortune happened at Night, it is impossible to say where it would have ended: As the Vind was at South West, it is more than probable it might have reached the Custom-House. Another Fisherman, arrived at Marblehead, informs, that about the same Time he saw on Bank Quero seven Sail of Ships, but was not near enough to know who they were, but supposed to be the above Store-ships.

Monday last arrived here from Cork, with Provisions for his Majesty's Troops in North-America, the Ship Mary, Capt. Mitchell; Ship Ellen, Capt. Dawson; and Ship Wye-River, Capt. Noel: They sailed from Cork the 25th of March, in Company with fix other Ships, and a Snow, under the Command of his Majesty's Ship Nightingale, Capt. Campbell, but parted from them three Weeks since, and are all save one that is destined for Louisburg) bound in here.

Tuelday last the Lizard Frigate, James Doake, Esq; Commander, sailed from Sandy-Hook (after lying there 19 Days) for Quebec, with several Vessels under his Convoy, having on board about 400 Soldiers belonging to the different Regiments that were left at Quebec, but sent to New-Jersey for the Recovery of their Health, most of them being either fick or wounded.

Lords of Appeal difpatch the Dutch Ships very fast: Thee Lords of Appeal difpatch the Dutch Ships very fast: Those that have touched at the French Islands are condemned without Mercy; but those that came from the Dutch Islands are discharged, paying coste; and my Lord Chief Justice Mansfield has declared in Court, That the Dutch have an indisputable Right to bring from their own Colonies all Manner of Goods they may purchase there. The Spaniards are sitting out 40 Men of War, and increasing their Land Forces. We hear from Albany, that Major Rogers had lately made an Excursion from Crown-Point, in one of the Sloops, which went up within three Miles of Isle de Noire, where he and two Rangers went on Shore: That on the Enemy's feeing the Sloop, they dispatched two Birch Canoes, in which it was computed there were 70 Men, but the Sloop firing on them, they immediately turned Tail, and landed near where Rogers and his Men lay; and 'tis said he narrowly escaped. All the Discovery he made was, that there appeared to be Numbers on the Island. The Brig accompanied the Sloop. All the regular Regiments are gone from Albany to their different Destinations; and the Provincials arrive there daily. Yesterday arrived here the Ship Countes of Berkley, Capt. Whitson, in 38 Days from the Land's End to Sandy-Hook; and by her we have Advice, that his Majesty's Ship Penguin was lately taken off of Oporto, by two French Frigates, and carried into Lisbon.—Capt. Whitson received this Intelligence from the Culloden and Lime Men of War, which he spoke with on his Passage (one of which [the Lyme] had touched at Lisbon) they being bound home with a Convoy from the Streights of Gibraltar.

A Letter from Falmouth, by the Packet, mentions 20,000 Men being designed to be put on board the Fleet destined for the French Coast: That Prince Edward was to be the Third in Command: That most of the Regulars were to be sent abroad: And that the Kingdom was to be defended by 30,000 Militia.

We have a Report, by the Way of New-York, which we hope may be relied on, That the Siege of Quebec was Rais'd, on the Arrival there of Lord Colvill: It was brought by two English Prifoners, that made their Escape from Montreal, who say, that two Indians, just before their Escape, arrived there with the News. For the Particulars we must submit there with the News. For the Particulars we must submit to a little Time.

Our Fleet from England, we are informed, by Letters by the Packet, lay in the Downs ready for failing, and only waited for a Wind, on the 22d of April past.

By a London Article of the 20th of April, we learn, that the Dragon, Capt. Hanick, of this Province, was taken by a St. Maloes Privateer, and ransomed for 2000 l. and afterwards arrived in the Down. And by a Letter from London, of a later Date, we are informed, that the Ransomer was taken by one of our Men of War.

About a Fortnight ago, as an Express was going from Fort Liganier to Pittsburg, he was killed by the Enemy and scalped.
