

Inhabitants were under no apprehension of their coming to any Head again, about 200 of them having been killed and taken, and the rest separated into small Parties, with but little Ammunition. When this last Conspiracy broke out, the Negroes were about 1200 strong, and have murdered about twenty of the White People.

Extra of a Letter from Pittsburg, July 4, 1760. "General Monckton arrived here the 20th of June, and immediately gave Orders for the March of a large Detachment of the Army to Presque Isle, every Thing being provided for that Purpose. The Troops appointed for this Service, are to set off on Monday Morning next. Our Magazines of Stores, Provisions, Forage, &c. &c. are most amply supplied, and every Thing wears a smiling Countenance this Way. The Indians to all Appearance, are hearty in our Cause; and a Number of them go, under Mr. Croghan, with the Troops designed for the Lake."

We hear General Amherst left Oswego about twelve Days ago. Since our last came to Town 29 Indians from Machmir, an Indian Town, about 60 Miles above Wyoming; they brought with them three Prisoners, a Boy, and two Girls; and appear to be a religious, sober, well behaved Sort of People.

By a Vessel arrived at New-York from South-Carolina, we have Accounts to the 5th of July, from Charles-Town, which say, That their Advices from Col. Montgomery's Camp was as late as June 23. That Tipton was sent out to carry Terms to the Indians, not returning as was expected, and a Rumour came in who brought Accounts, that the Upper-Towns did not choose to make Peace, had invested Fort-Loudon and put several Prisoners to Death; that the Indians were naked, had little Corn, and almost destitute of Ammunition. That on this Intelligence the Army moved from their Camp, and the 22d crossed the Keowee River, each Man taking six Days Provision, and the 24th they marched for the middle Settlements of the Cherokee, and that the Army were all Healthy and in high Spirits.

ANNAPOLIS, July 24. Sunday Evening last, Mr. ANDREW BUCHANAN, of Baltimore-Town, Merchant, was Married to Miss SUANNA LAWSON (Daughter of Mr. ALEXANDER LAWSON) an amiable and well accomplished young Lady, with a very pretty Fortune.

The Reverend Mr. WILLIAM BARROLL, is Inducted into the Living of St. Stephen's Parish, in Cecil County, vacant by the Resignation of his Venerable and Reverend Uncle Mr. HUGH JONES.

A few Days ago, in Calvert County, a little Girl, Daughter of Joseph Strickland, who could but just go alone, got by itself some Distance from the House, where the Oven was, and fell down on a Heap of Coals just drawn, and lay there till it was burnt so much that it Died soon after.
