his joining General Murray: That Captain Rench, in coming down the River, met the Louisburg Garrison (two Battalions) going up to Quebec, about 20 Leagues above Gaspee: That there was no Trade allowed at Quebec with the Inhabitants, who are said to be in great Want of Provisions, but that there was a Sort of Market kept without the Walls, at which the Soldiers only were suffered to exchange their salt Provisions for Greens, Milk, &c. brought there by the Canadians: That an Express of Rangers had arrived from General Amherst, who were 20 Days from Crown-Point; but in crossing the River St. Francis on a Raft, they were carried down the Falls, by which they lost their Packet, and all their Arms; so that General Murray could receive but little Information from them: That one of our Ships of War, above Quebec, had received some Damage from some of the French floating Batteries, and lost some Men: That a Friend Indian came in from Trois Rivieres, and said, the French told him, that Major Rogers had burnt two Villages on the Island Jesus, within five Leagues of Montreal: And that our Troops went off in high Spirits, the Officers, it is said, striving and petitioning for Leave to go on the Expedition.

Extract of a Letter from Antigua, July 23, 1760.

By Advice from London to the Fifth of June, nothing interesting had happened in Germany; but Prince Ferdinand was in full March towards the French, and, it was believed, would attack them, before they were quite ready for the Field. Prussia seems to be cautiously on the Defensive. The Expedition Fleet is bastened and countermanded alternately. The Foudregant, and some other large Ships, have lately been sent biber in a very private Manner, and we have a much larger Squadron than common Occasions can possibly require; but we have not yet any other Appearances of an Expedition, though it is certain they expect one at Martinico. Commodore Douglas has hitherto kept the Ship pretty much at Sea, yet that does not prevent the French Privateers from conducting most of the Northward Men to Martinico.

Our Advice from Oswego are of the Third Instant, when every Thing was ready to proceed, the General waiting only for the 46th and Colonel Schuyler's Regiment, who were daily expected, having left Fort Stanwix the 28th ult. It is said General Amherst will have at least 6 or 700 Warriors of his own Indians with him; and that there is a Prospect of the Oswegatchies joining him.

ANNAPOLIS, August 21. Tuesday last his Excellency our Governor returned to Town, in good Health, having been absent from us upwards of Three Months on Account of the Small-Pox.

On the Sixth Instant Died in Kent County, Aged 48 Years, ALEXANDER WILLIAMSON, Esq; one of the Representatives for that County, and once Speaker of the Lower House of Assembly; a Gentleman of a virtuous and exemplary Life, and who has left a truly amiable Character, no Man in his County having their more general Esteem. He had met with many and various Trials and Afflictions, by the Death of near and dear Relatives, which he always bore with a Christian Resignation and Manly Fortitude; 'til a Week before his Death, his eldest Son, Mr. Alexander Williamson, junior, a very hopeful and promising young Gentleman, being cut off, after a few Days Illness, it so much affected and depressed his Spirits, that in despite of all his wonted Resolution, he Died of Grief.

One Day last Week, a Welsh Servant Man on Kent-Island, attempting to swim after a Canoe, which went a-drift, was Drowned.

Last Saturday a melancholly Accident happen'd, at a petty Horse-Race near Magoty River, where William Rodwell, and Jemas Dawson, who before had had some Bickering about their Skill in Dancing a Jig, meeting together, Rodwell challeng'd Dawson to try then who was the best Man, as he term'd it, by Boxing; an odd criterion to determine Goodness! and at it they went; but after a few Blows, Dawson own'd he had enough, or that his Antagonist was the best Man. When their Broughtonian exercise was over, they walk'd, shook Hands, and drank at Friends; but a few Minutes after Dawson dropp'd down Dead, and is suppos'd to have got his Death from a Blow he receiv'd on his Left Side. The other immediately surrendered himself to Justice. By this unhappy Affair, a poor Widow and five small Children are left without any Support, and by far the best Man of the Two left to the Community.

A few Weeks ago, on a Moon-Light Evening, an odd Affair, which had like to have prov'd very Tragical, happen'd in Charles County; one Burrows, a very imprudent young Man, (to say no worse of him) with another young Fellow, load'd a Gun with mix'd Shot, and went some Miles to the Houfe of one John Cookfy, in order to shoot Cookfy's Dog, from whom he had receiv'd some Affront; when they came to the Houfe, the whole Family sitting out by the Door, Burrows fired his Gun, but either from his being a bad Markfman, or something else, he mis'd the Dog, but shot Mrs. Cookfy in the Foot; so that she is like to be a Cripple, three Shot went into an Infant in her Arms, whose Life was for some Time despar'd of; and three other Children were wounded, the Man of the Houfe narrowly escaping, one Shot grazing his Throat. It is to be hop'd that Mr. Blunderbust, whenever he attempts to shoot a Dog again, will get a Gun that will not Scatter so much, or take better Aim.

This Town is now clear of the SMALL-POX.

ALL Gentlemen of this Province, into whose Hands any Money has been paid, for the Relief of those unhappy People who suffered by the Fire, which broke out the 20th of March last at Boston, are desired to remit the same to the Commissioners of the Loan-Office; and such of the Ministers of the Gospel, as have not yet return'd the BRIEFS, which were sent to them, are desired to send the same as soon as possible to his Excellency, or to JOHN ROSS Clerk of the Council.

Baltimore-Town, August 14, 1760.

THIS is to forewarn all Persons from Trusting Reje Wilson, my Wife, on my Account, for I will not Pay any Debt of her Contracting after the Date of this Advertisement.
