n Friday Evening laft, died here, in the 40th Year of Age, the Honourable BENJAMIN TASKER, junior, Secretary of this Province, and one of his Lordship's neil of State. Tho' his Illness was tedious and painful, gave him early Indications of his approaching Diffolution, ne bore it with that manly Firmness and Equanimity, he so peculiarly diftinguished him in every Circumstance fe. To a native Sweetness of Disposition, and unaffectelicacy of Manners, were happily united a found Under-ing, and undeviating Rectitude of Heart. He was cha-le without Offentation, courteous without Art, and in riendships steady and sincere. His public Honours he with so easy and becoming a Grace, and a Deportment lodest and unaffurning, as forc'd even Envy itself to con-them a Tribute due to his Merit. Attach'd to no Party-rs, uninfluenc'd by any other Motive than a sincere Love is Country, he contributed, on every Occasion, his best arours to promote it's true Interest. In every Relation rivate Life, whether confider'd in the Light of Son, ther, Friend or Master, his Character was conspicuously able, and truly worthy of Imitation. Thus bles'd with choicest Endowments of Nature, improv'd by the finest uistions of Art;—thus qualify'd to shine most eminently , was this ever to be remember'd, ever to be lamented univerfally effeem'd Ornament and Benefactor to Man-, fnatch'd from his Country, Family and Friends.
