LATELY PUBLISHED,

And to be Sold at the Printing-Office in Annapolis, (Price One Shilling and Six-pence)

A DISCOURSE Concerning the CON-VERSION of the HEATHEN AMERI-CANS, and the final Propagation of Christianity and the Sciences to the Ends of the Earth.

IN TWO PARTS.

Part 1st preached before a voluntary Convention of the Episcopal Clergy of Pennsylvania, and Places adjacent, at Philadelphia, May 2d, 1760; and published at their joint Request.

Part 2d preached before the Trustees, Masters and Scholars of the College and Academy of Philadelphia, at the first anniversary Commencement.

By WILLIAM SMITH, D. D.

Provost of the said College and Academy.

N. B. Though these two Parts were preached at different Times, yet being both on the same Subject and Text (Pl. ii. 8.) they are now joined together. In the first Part, the Author endeavours, from a View of sundry Prophecies, to shew — "That it is God's gracious Purpose to extend the Knowledge of his blessed Gospel to the Heathen around us;" and that, from several Circumstances, in the Situation of Things on this Continent, compared with a general View of the Gospel-progress and Economy from the Beginning, there is "a Probability of a speedy Accomplishment of this Event."

In Part 2d the Author considers the planting Seminaries of Learning among us, as one of those Circumstances, and enters into a general Analysis of the Sciences, and of the sublime Gospel Doctrines, in order to shew the great and immediate Subservency of the former, to the Advancement of the latter. This Part hath been already published in the Author's Volume of Discourses at London, and the following favourable Character given of it.

"In our Author's fifth Discourse (say the critical Reviewers) which turns upon planting the "Sciences in America, the Cultivation of Learning "and the Sciences is proved to be conducive to "the Propagation of Christianity; and the Argu"ments therein urged, we apprehend, sufficiently "confute the Paradox advanced with great Bold"ness, and maintained with equal Eloquence, by "the celebrated Monf. ROUSSEAU, of Geneva;
"namely, That the Arts and Sciences have rather "corrupted than improved the Manners of Mankind."
