ANNAPOLIS, February 19. We hear that Capt. James Ralfe, in a Brigantine... from the West-Indies, was lately cut away about 20 Leagues to the Northward of Cape Charles; the Vessel and Part of the Cargo lost; but the People saved.

Last Tuesday Evening, Died, at his Father's House on... of a confirmed Consumption, in the 23d Year of his Age, Mr. BASIL DORSEY, Junior, of this City, Attorney at Law; a young Gentleman of great Hopes, endowed with many valuable Qualifications, which, if ripened by Years, must have rendered him eminent in his Profession, and a conspicuous Character in social Life.

Last Week Two Men were committed to Prison here, for breaking open and robbing a Store at the Head of South-River.

One Morning last Month, a young Infant was found Dead in a Well at Chester-Town in Kent County. It was drawn up by the Bucket, and had lain there for some Time. It had a String round its Neck, was cramm'd into Part of a Stocking, and is suppos'd to have been tied to a Pair of Pot-Hooks which was found at the Bottom, to sink it. The suppos'd Mother is taken up and committed to Prison there.

Last Week a Woman in Baltimore County, who had lived near Deer-Creek, was committed to Prison at Jessa, for the Murder of a Bastard Child. She was often tax'd with being with Child, but always denied it; and at the Time of her Travail, went to the Creek Side, and was Delivered by herself, and flung the Child in. A few Days after, the dead Child being found by the Children of the House, and the being charg'd with it, confess'd the Fact.

And on Tuesday Afternoon last, a Dead Female Child was found floating in a Pond in this Town, sew'd up in a Linen Rag, suppos'd to have been not above 4 or 5 Days since the Birth. A large Pin was stuck in the Hip of it, and some other Marks of Violence. The Mother (if Wretches of her Stamp may be call'd by that Appellation) is not yet discover'd; but it is hop'd she will soon, now being the proper Time for Examination; not only that the Guilty may suffer, but that the Innocent and Virtuous may be cleared from the malicious Whispers and Aspersions of the Ill-mind-ed and Cenforious.
