THERE is at the Plantation of Jacob Peck, below the Mouth of Anti-Eatam, in Frederick County, taken up as a Stray, a middle-siz'd Bay Mare, she has a Star in her Forehead, and a Snip on her Nose, one of her hind Feet is white, and is supposed to be branded on the near Buttock and Shoulder N C.
 The Owner may have her again, on proving his Property, and paying Charges.

STOLEN from the Subscriber, near Upper-Marlbrough, in the Night of the 24th of November last, a Black Horse, about 17 Years old, 13 Hands high, branded on one of his Buttocks with S, has several Saddle Spots about his Withers, a Switch Tail, a hanging Mane, paces and gallops, and trots, especially up a rising Ground. The Person suspected to have stole him, is one Thomas Hamilton, an Irishman, who said he was going to Annapolis on an Errand of Col. Taylor's in Virginia, and that he was Col. Taylor's Overseer. It is likely he will sell the Horse, as I expect he will tire or founder, the said Hamilton having with him a large Luggage, consisting of Broad-Cloth, striped Holland, a very good Saddle, and Housing with a Silk Fringe.
 If he is Sold, and any Person will inform the Subscriber, or if he is offered to Sale, will stop him so as he may be had again, shall have Thirty Shillings Reward from 4 BASIL BURGESS.

Whoever finds the Saddle and Bridle, and returns them, shall receive Twenty Shillings Reward; but any Person detecting the Thief, so that he may be convicted of the Crime, shall have a Reward of Forty Shillings, paid by
 X5 RICHARD TOOTELL.

STOLEN from the Subscriber's Stable, on Friday Evening the 29th of January, a half-worn brown Hunting Saddle, and a checked Swan-skin Saddle Cloth; with a Pair of remarkable double eyed Brags Stirrups; and a Pelham Bridle with double Reins.

Whoever finds the Saddle and Bridle, and returns them, shall receive Twenty Shillings Reward; but any Person detecting the Thief, so that he may be convicted of the Crime, shall have a Reward of Forty Shillings, paid by
 X5 RICHARD TOOTELL.

WHEREAS the Act of Assembly of this Province, made and passed in 1733; for emitting and making current Ninety Thousand Pounds, is near Expiring; The Commissioners of the Loan Office therefore think it their Duty, to inform all those who have any Bonds in that Office, to come and discharge the same; otherwise they will be proceeded against as the Law directs.

 From the VOYAGES and CRUISES of WALKER

WHEN Mr. Walker on his second cawen private D. 1745. French Office was taken, that a gunner's wife on board, began now to be men, as ominous of the Mission attend the cruise. One of the for his sobriety and good character alarmed the Ship, by declaring strange appearance of a woman him, among other particulars, be lost. The story spread and said such hold of the imagination been attended with the most success had not Mr. Walker contrived to get into ridicule, and with great related the following anecdote of the Ship's crew:

In June, 1734, Mr. Walker at Cadiz, in his ship the Elizabeth Ireland, whose name was B... board, going to take his passage. This gentleman was a particular Mr. Walker's, and he was extremely being a man of great good sense in conversation. The night before speak of happened, the subject of decease of friends, in man seemed much to believe strange stories as authorities giving some metaphysical arguments the natural fear we had of the confession of them. But Mr. entirely of another way of this his arguments with ridicule, Mr. bred a physician, was curious to might be wrought on in an unbecoming to prove the power of this natural senses: A strange way, you would the mind by attacking the imagination was curiosity to see the operation of it, it was too nice an experiment a friend's mind for information of the humour of the thought was for he was a man of a gay temper.

About noon, as they were of the ships company, upon deck, castle, looking at some of the boats making fast to a buoy of in order to watch the money, they carried out of the country, Mr. as a plan for a Wager, he being a swimmer, to leap off the gunner five all the way quite under water to the boats at that distance, and them, to startle the people at a wager being laid, he undressed himself entirely out of sight. Ever forwards, keeping their eyes at he was expected to come up; to their expectation, and their hopes of ever seeing him concluded he was drowned, and the greatest pain and concern who by laying the wager, though some measure necessary to his skillful diving, having turned the the ship; and being also very a quarter ladder in at the cabin every body was busy and in the forward part of the ship; then the remaining part of the day in a room, wrapped himself up in a Mr. Walker's. Evening coming company being very melancholy Mr. Walker retired with a friend
