In France they are going to establish a new Twentieth-penny. At Vienna they talk of making all the Corporations and Public Bodies advance their Quotas up to the end of the next Year. The City of Vienna alone, it is said, will furnish 200,000 Florins.

L O N D O N.

St. James's, Dec. 3. This Day a numerous Body of the People called Quakers waited on his Majesty with their Address; and being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Chamberlain of his Majesty's Household, Dr. Fothergill presented the same to his Majesty, who was pleased to receive it very graciously.

To GEORGE the Third, King of Great-Britain, and the Dominions thereto belonging,

The humble Address of his Protestant Subjects, the People called QUAKERS.

May it please the KING,

DEARLY affected with the sudden and sorrowful Event, that leads our Fellow-subjects with Complacence to the Throne, we beg Leave to express the Sympathy we feel on this afflicting Occasion.

Justly sensible of the Favour and Protection we have enjoyed, during the late mild and happy Reign, and impressed with the warmest Sentiments of Duty and Gratitude to our deceased Sovereign, we pay this Tribute of unaffected Grief to the Memory of the Father and the Friend of his People.

We have abundant Reason to acknowledge the Goodness of Almighty God, for continuing to this Period a Life of such Importance to the Welfare of these Kingdoms; a Period, when we behold a Prince, endowed with Qualities that add Lustre to a Crown, formed by Tuition and Example to protect the Liberties of his People, ascending the British Throne, and, in the earliest Acts of Power, giving the most ample Demonstrations of his Royal Regard for Piety and Virtue.

Ever faithful and zealously affected to thy illustrious House, though differing in Sentiments and Conduct from others of our Fellow-subjects, we embrace this Opportunity to crave thy Indulgence and Protection; and beg Leave to assure the King, that our Dissent proceeds not from a contumacious Disregard to the Laws, to Custom, or Authority, but from Motives to us purely Conscientious.

The same religious Principle that produces this Dissent, we trust, through Divine Assistance, will continue to engage us, as it always hath done since we were a People, to exert whatever Influence we may be possessed of in promoting the Fear of God, the Honour of the King, and the Prosperity of his Subjects.

May the Almighty bless thy Endeavours to put a Stop to the Effusion of Blood, and render thee the happy Instrument of restoring Peace and Tranquillity. May sacred and unerring Wisdom ever be thy Guide, adorn thee with every Virtue, and crown thee with every Blessing, that future Ages may commemorate the Happiness of thy Reign with grateful Admiration.

Signed in London, the 1st Day of 12th Month, 1760.

To which Address his Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer.

THIS dutiful and loyal Address is very acceptable to me, and you may depend on my Protection.

Afterwards a Deputation from them waited on her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales, at Leicester House; where being introduced by Sir William Irbby, Bart. Dr. Fothergill read the following Address, to which her Royal Highness returned a very gracious Answer.

May it please the Princess Dowager of Wales,

WE the People called Quakers, beg Leave to testify our Grief for the Loss we have sustained, by the Decease of our late gracious Sovereign: Duty, as well as Gratitude, for the Favour we enjoyed, during his long and happy Reign, claim our unfeigned Regard to his Memory, and to every Part of the Royal Family, our most grateful Attachment.

As the Afflictions that befall them, very deeply affect us; so we share in the Blessings they enjoy; and we sincerely rejoice at the happy Accession of thy Son, our Sovereign, to the Throne of these Kingdoms.

The noble Proofs he has already given of great and illustrious Qualities, sufficiently point how much we are indebted to a Mother's early Care in his Education.

It will, we trust, be our constant Endeavour to manifest our dutiful Affection to the Princess, and our cheerful Obedience and Fidelity to the King, by a Conduct becoming our religious Profession. May the Almighty pour down his choicest Blessings on every Branch of the Royal Family. May they be regarded as the Ornaments of the present Age, and as Examples of Virtue in succeeding Generations.

N E W - Y O R K, March 9.

General Gage's Answer to the Address of the Inhabitants of Montreal.

GENTLEMEN,

THE Address which you presented to me on the melancholy News we have just received, deserves my most sincere Thanks. The Loss of a King, whose Actions, during his whole Reign, tended to the Welfare and Happiness of his People, cannot be felt without Grief; and Gratitude inspires us to reverence his Memory for ever. He left the Throne to a young Prince, from whom we are well grounded to expect great Things. Educated under the Care of a Princess, who, more than Woman, is blessed with Qualities that set her above her own Sex, imbibed the Principles of Virtue, Justice, Piety, Wisdom and Moderation; what could we not hope from a Monarch thus formed!

Persuade yourselves that he will tread in the Steps of his glorious Ancestors, that the Mildness of his Government will be diffused on all his Subjects. I cannot but feel the highest Pleasure at your approving of my Conduct. You may rely on me, whenever it will be in my Power, to promote your Happiness, and if there be an Opportunity, I will omit nothing that may contribute to make you a flourishing and happy People.

P H I L A D E L P H I A, March 12.

Captain Arthur Burrows, from New-Providence, in Lat. 37. Long. 71, met a large Schooner, New-England built, with a red Bottom, all under Water, excepting about 5 Feet of her Bows. He took up a Barrel of her Flour, marked H, but imagines she was chiefly loaded with Lumber.

Captain John Nash, of Rhode-Island, homeward bound from Surinam, got into Providence, after being 127 Days out; during which Time he was thrice in Soundings, but always beat off. He was supplied with Provisions by three different Vessels.

Captain Parker, for this Place, from Lisbon, likewise got in there, after being 12 Weeks at Sea, and sailed again with Captain Burrows for this Port.

From South-Carolina we learn, that considerable Magazines were forming, and every necessary Measure taken, for forwarding and facilitating the Expedition against the Cherokees: That the Creeks were still much divided among themselves as to joining in the War with them: And that Major Thomson, and Captain McIntosh, had set out from Ninety-Six for Fort Prince-George, with 555 Rangers, escorting some Cattle and Hogs, a large Number of Waggons with Provisions for the Garrison there, and some Goods, to be laid out in redeeming the unfortunate Prisoners that are in the Hands of the Indians.

From Kingston, in Jamaica, we have Advice, that a Spanish Guarda-Costa has taken two Sloops of that Port, and several others belonging to the Island, and sent them to Carthagena.

A N N A P O L I S, March 19.

We are informed, that Mary Annett, of Baltimore County, (who lately murder'd her Bastard Child, as heretofore mentioned) Died before she could be got to Prison. She confess'd her Crime, and seem'd greatly to repent of it. She said the Child cried twice before she flung it into the Pond, and after she had flung it in, she would fain have taken it out again, but the Water was so deep she could not.

Last Saturday Morning about 3 o'Clock, one Edward Harris, Blockmaker, of this Town, was seiz'd with an Apoplexy, and died in a few Minutes.
