H A N A U, January 5.

BY Order of Marshal Broglio all the Inhabitants of Hesse are forbid, on Pain of Death, from carrying any Messages to the Hanoverians, or supplying them with Money, Provisions, or Forage of any Sort.

Cassel, Jan. 1. The Marquis of Granby is en-ter'd into Winter Quarters. We are busy in repairing the Fortifications of our ancient City. We just now learn that the King of Denmark has appointed the Count de St. Germain to be Commander in Chief of all his Majesty's Forces.

Paris, Jan. 5. We shall have this Year an Army of 40,000 Men on the Lower Rhine; and Marshal Broglio's Army will amount at least to 80,000 Men.

Felnd, Dec. 24. The Palace of Prince Sul-towitz at Corzmin has been reduced to Ashes by a Fire. The Damage is said to exceed 130,000 Polish Florins.

Dec. 25. A Patent will soon pass the Great Seal, for appointing General Amherst, Governor General and Commander in Chief of all his Majesty's Forces in North-America.

The Losses which the Merchants and Owners of Ships have sustained, on Account of the frequent Captures made of late of their Ships and Cargoes, for want of a sufficient Number of British Privateers to oppose them, has been taken into Consideration by the Government, and an Order will be speedily given for equipping a considerable Number of 20 Gun Ships to be fully manned to cruize on all the Coasts of Great-Britain, and Ireland, to suppress the Enemies Privateers. It being accounted that within these 3 Months near 100 of our Vessels have been taken, and about 50 of them ransomed for large Sums.

It is now said, that 'tis his Majesty's gracious Intention, upon his Coronation, to discharge by a free Act all the Debtors, without Exception, in all the Goals in England, who were in Prison at the Time of the Demise of his late Royal Grandfather.

So great is the Curiosity of the People in general to see the Coronation, although no Time is yet fixed for the Purpose, that some of the Houses in and about New Palace-yard, within the View of the Procession, let at the amazing Price of 400 Guineas for the Day.

Jan. 5. The Lords of the Admiralty have ordered out four of the best sailing Frigates in the Navy, to cruize from 150 to 200 Leagues to the Westward, to protect the Trade.

In a Letter from Dunkirk, dated Nov. 17, we have the following List of Ships taken and ransomed by the Duke d'Ayen Privateer, Captain John Duchesne, viz.

Concord, Sutton, from Hull to Stockholm	500
Diadem, Torrington, from Ditto to Ditto	430
Unity, Cockerill, from Ditto to Ditto	500
James William, Jonathan, from Hull to Gottenburg	206
John, Addison, from Montrose to Riga	140
Sterling and Alloa Packet, Jamefon, from Amsterdam to Gottenburg	120
Elizabeth, Hagget, from Schardam to Scarborough	194

The Jealousie Privateer, Captain Peter Allemes, has taken the Bellona, Langdale, from Leven to Middleburgh, and ransomed her for 200 Guineas.

The Constant John, a Transport from Quiberon Bay, is taken by a French Privateer, and ransomed for 500l. she parted Convoy from the Intrepid.

Extract of a Letter from Portsmouth, Jan. 1.
 Yesterday came up the Mauriaude, a French Cutter Privateer of 10 Guns and 60 Men, taken by Admiral Rodney's Squadron.

This Morning arrived the Vaiso Le Duc Trouan Snow, from Havre de Grace, taken and sent up by the Tweed Man of War.

Jan. 15. On Saturday Morning, at 7 o'Clock, died at his Seat at Hatchland, near Guilford, in Surrey, of a Fever, in the 45th Year of his Age, to the Misfortune of his Country, and inexpressible Grief of his Friends, the R. H. Edward Boscawen, next Brother to Viscount Falmouth; a Lord of the Admiralty, Admiral of the Blue, General of Marines, one of the Elder Brethren of Trinity House, Member of Parliament for Truro in Cornwall, and one of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council. Admiral Boscawen married in December 1742, Frances, Daughter of William Evelyn Glanville, of St. Clere, in Kent, by whom he has left Issue several Children. He was chosen Member of Parliament for the Borough of Truro on the Death of James Hammond, Esq; in 1742, and was elected for the said Borough, as also for Saltash, at the General Election in 1747, but made his Election for Truro, and was elected a third Time for the said Borough in 1754. Among many other signal Services to his Country, he commanded in Chief in the Expedition against Cape-Breton, and, in Conjunction with Gen. Amherst, took the important Fortress of Louisbourg, in July 1758, from the French; and upon his Arrival in England, received the Thanks of the Hon. House of Commons, in an elegant Speech from the R. H.
 Speaker, upon his first Appearance at the House;
 and in August 1759, he fell in with the French Fleet, commanded by M. de la Clue, when he took three Ships of the Line, and burnt two.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, Jan. 16. Orders for the Court's Change of Mourning on Sunday the 25th Instant, for his late Majesty King George the Second, of blessed Memory, viz.

The Ladies to wear black Silk, fringed or plain Linen, white Gloves, black and white Shoes, Fans and Tippetts, white Necklaces and Ear-Rings.

Undress, white or grey Lutestrings, Tabbies or Damasks.

The Men to wear Black full trimmed, fringed or plain Linen, black Swords and Buckles.

Undress, Grey Frocks.

Admiralty-Office, Jan. 3. Captain Osborn, of his Majesty's Sloop Diligence, by Letter of the first Instant, gives an Account of his having taken on the 30th past, off Cape Barfleur, a French Snow Privateer, called the Favourite of St Maloes, of six Guns and sixty Men.

Captain Ourry, of his Majesty's Ship Ataxon, by Letter of the Twenty-ninth past, gives an Account, that having Intelligence of a Brig, and a snow Privateer being off the Start, he went in Pursuit of them; and, on the Twenty-seventh, between Twelve and One in the Night, he fell in with the Brig, and fired his starboard Guns at her as she passed him; and in less than eight or ten Minutes she intirely disappeared, though it was a fine Moon-light Night, and he could see for some Miles round the Horizon; and that in the Morning he saw two Sail within the Land, which he chaced, and soon came up with; one of them proved to be a Snow Cartel from Quebec, the other the Grivois Snow Privateer from St. Maloes, of ten Carriage and ten Swivel Guns, and eighty Men, which latter he took. She had been out from Cherburg three Days.

ST. CHRISTOPHERS, January 29.
 Captain Stewart arrived here since our last in a Ship from Louisburg, having on board several Officers, and about 60 Men, belonging to a Provincial Regiment, which had been in Garrison there; they were intended for Boston, but were blown off the Coast.

A Schooner, said to be from Boston, and bound to St. Kitts with Fish and Lumber, ran ashore at Berbuda about a Week ago.

February 4. The Britannia, Capt. M'Pherson, brought Yesterday into the Road of Basseterre, a Prize Sloop called the Joanna, bound from Eustatia for Martinico.

To the Printer of the St. Christophers Gazette.
 SIR,

THE inclosed Letter is a Copy of what I wrote to the Governor of Statia, which he did not think worth his while to answer: Your giving it a Place in your Paper will vindicate a Part that I am determined to act, and lay a great Obligation upon, Your most humble Servant,

JOHN M'PHERSON.
 On board the private Ship of War Britannia, January 26.

SIR,
 THE Indignity done to my Country, and the Injury intended to myself, on Wednesday the 21st Instant, I think justly entitles me to demand of you the Reason of such unprecedented and lawless Proceeding.

I suppose I need not inform your Honour, that in the Morning of the abovementioned Day, I brought to two Vessels to the Leeward of your Island; but as soon as I found they were Vessels on a fair Trade, I acquitted them: That soon after I spoke with two small Vessels bound to St.
 Martin's, which I did not detain one Moment, but acquitted them also; all this happened within Sight of your Town and Batteries, tho' not within Reach of your Guns; and that some Time after I was peaceably passing along Shore with my Colours hoisted, when your Leewardmost Battery fired three point blank Shot at my Ship. Had they been fired from the Place you reside in, I assure you I should have returned the Compliment:
 The Reason I did not, was my believing it was done unknown to you, and perhaps contrary to your Orders. And here I must beg Leave to observe, that I defy the bitterest Enemy I have in St. Eustatia to charge me with an inhuman or bad Action, or any Thing contrary to the Law of Nations.

I make no Doubt your Answer will prevent my firing three Shot into the first Dutch Ship I meet on the high Seas; for I assure your Honour, had I lost a Mast, or received any other Damage, I should have made Reprifals on the first Vessel I met bound to or from Holland. Your Answer will much oblige, Sir, Your humble Servant,

JOHN M'PHERSON.
 B O S T O N, March 23.

By a Letter from Guadaloupe we have an Account, that 33 Sail of Vessels from these Parts were taken and carried into Martinico from the 20th of January, to the 15th of February; among whom was Capt. Odiorne in a Ship from Piscataqua, who while the Frenchmen and his own People were ashore at Martinico, cut his Cable, and carried the Ship to St. Kitt's, and called for Assistance; but before they could bring the Ship to Anchor, she fell to Leeward, and was obliged to put into Tortola.

We have Advice from Halifax in Nova-Scotia,
 That his Majesty's Ship Norwich, Capt. M'Claberty,
