PHILADELPHIA, May 28. From the Antigua Papers by Captain Porter we receive the following Advices, viz. That a new masted loaded Ship, from Piscataqua, was run ashore at Barbuda, having been first taken by the French, who got ashore, but the Vessel, and the greatest Part of her Cargo, was intirely lost: That Captain Middleton, of his Majesty's Ship Emerald, taken a French Privateer Brig of ten Guns, at Captain Taylor, in the Griffin Man of War, sent two French Privateers to Guadaloupe, 3 and 10 Guns: That two French Privateer Booners, taken by the Antigua, ran foul of another, and were both lost: That two Piscataqua Ships had been taken, but retaken by the British and Bienfaisant Men of War: And that Captain Barton, of the Ship Christian, from Bristol, in with 7 Privateers to Windward of Antigua, that none of them made a close Attack but which he soon obliged to sheer off, in the Manner she could.

Captain Porter informs us, that the Captains in and Todd, from Maryland to Antigua, were taken; but that the first was retaken, and sent to Guadaloupe; the latter ranfomed for 1000 Dollars. He further advices, that the Captains Per and Hatton, both from Virginia to Antigua, were taken by a deep loaded French Frigate, boundeward bound, and ranfomed; the first for the last for 450 Pounds Sterling: And that the same Frigate had also taken two Boston Men, a Schooner belonging here; their Names not known.
