AMHERST. This Officer, in his Regis the capital Figure in the Piece: He are a Pair of French Colours, as Em-Conquest; before him is a Group of Figplicate Mercy, who, we may imagine, ar-placed at his Side, which he seems to obe distributed amongst them. On a coming Stone, at one Corner of the Piece monumental Inscription:

At the opposite Corner is a Cannon mo-in's Carriage, on which is seen flying a Bu-gn. This Painting is said to be done by genious Mr. Hayman; and the Room it is will be ornamented with other Painting same historical Kind.
