Whoever brings the Horse to the Subscriber near Port-Tobacco, or to Mr. Colmore Beanes at Nottingham, shall have Twenty Shillings Reward.
 THOMAS CONTEE.

Baltimore, July 1761.
RELIGION, the crowning Excellence of intelligent Nature, claims the Approbation and close Attention of every reasonable Being, who expects future Bliss. We are bound from Principles of Gratitude and Interest to promote the Honour and Worship of the supreme Mind, as necessary to our own Prosperity, the Good of Society, and future Happiness of Man. Animated by these interesting Motives, we, of the Presbyterian Perfusion in this Town, desire, not from Party Views, but from real Principle, to purchase a Lot of Ground to erect a decent Church for Divine Service, in which we may worship GOD according to our Consciences. Upon Enquiry we find ourselves as yet insufficient to raise such a Sum as is necessary to accomplish such an important Design, beg Leave therefore to solicit the Generosity of our Fellow-Christians to assist and encourage us in completing a small Lottery, at a Time when the Benevolence of our Countrymen is so well tried in this Way. We hope our Claim to the public Attention is equal to any that has solicited their Notice, and humbly expect that we shall meet with general Encouragement.

THAT the Lottery shall be drawn in Baltimore-Town as soon as the Tickets are disposed of, and previous Notice thereof shall be given in this and the Pennsylvania Gazette.

That a Deduction of Fifteen Dollars be made from every Prize of One Hundred Dollars, and so in Proportion for any greater or lesser Prize, thereby to raise the Sum intended of Three Thousand Dollars. The Managers appointed are, Messieurs John Smith and William Buchanan, John Steverfon, Jonathan Ploverman, William Lyon, and Nicholas Ruxton Gay, of Baltimore; Mr. David McCulloch, of York; Mr. George Stevenson, of York; Col. John Armstrong, of Carlisle; Dr. David Ross, of Bladenburg; Mr. Peter Hubbert, of Dorset; and Mr. Jonas Green, of Annapolis; who are to give Bond, and be upon Oath faithfully to discharge the Trust reposed in them.

A List of the Prizes will be published in this and the Pennsylvania Gazette, after the Drawing is finished, and the Money paid after the Deduction afore-mentioned. Prize Money not demanded in Six Months after the Publication of the Prizes, to be deemed as generously given towards this laudable Purpose, and to be applied accordingly.

TICKETS to be had of any of the Managers; of Mr. Thomas Campbell, Merchant, at Nottingham, and of Mrs. Ramsay, at the Head of Severn.

N. B. Seven Shillings and Six-Pence Pennsylvania Paper, will be taken in Payment for a Dollar, in the Purchase of Tickets, and to be paid in like Manner in Discharge of Prizes.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living near Upper-Marlborough, on the 26th of February last, a Country-born Negro Fellow named Anthony, by Trade a Cooper, about 28 Years of Age, and 5 Feet 4 Inches high. He had on an old Cotton Coat with white Metal Buttons, Cotton Breeches, a Kersey, and Swanskin Jacket, Negro Shoes and Stockings, a Felt Hat, and an Olinbrig Shirt. But it is probable he will change his Apparel, as he had Variety of Cloaths with him. He has been used to work on board Ships in Patuxent River, and it is supposed is somewhere thereabouts.

Whoever will take up the said Negro, and bring him home, shall have Forty Shillings, beside what the Law allows, if taken in the County; and if taken out of it, Three Pounds, beside what the Law allows, paid by JOHN GANTT.

Frederick-Town, June 1761.

STRAYED from the Subscriber, near Port-Tobacco in Charles County, on the 23d of last Month, a middle-siz'd White Horse, paces naturally, has a bob Tail, and a ridge Mane. Whether he is branded or not, is uncertain. Whoever takes up the said Horse, and brings him to the Subscriber, shall have a Reward of Twenty Shillings, and reasonable Charges, paid by JOHN HANSON, junior.

NEW-YORK, September 1. SATURDAY Morning last the PITT Packet Captain GODDARD, arrived here with the from FALMOUTH, which she left the 18th of August having had Nine Weeks Passage. By her we have following fresh Advices, viz.

VIENNA (Capital of Germany) ACCORDING to the last Dispatches of the Emperor's Ministers, the Head-Quarters of the Imperial Army are still in the new Town of Dresden. General Laudohn, he was yet at Hauptmansdorf on the 20th, but his Dispositions to re-enter Silesia seem great Blow with the Help of the Russian Regiments that is on the Point of joining him.

Frankfurt, on the Oder, June 25. The King received undoubted Intelligence, that the Russians, being two or three Days in their Camp near Potsdam, refused their March forward, he resolved to detach Battalions and Squadrons from his Army, in order to force General Goltze, against whose Corps, it is said, the Emperor intend to make their chief Efforts.

Wetzlar, June 15. An Estimate of the Damage done to the Electorate of Saxony during the present War, drawing out, in order to lay before the Congress at Rastatt, in Heaps of obtaining some Satisfaction.

Embsch, in the Principality of Grubenhagen, Prince Ferdinand apprehending that M. Broglie is marching with the greatest Part of his Forces towards the Empire, and that he has sent Orders to General who was at this Place with his Troops, to march Expedition to Ullar, to dispute the Passage with the Vienna, June 25. The Russians have halted March so much, that all the different Columns of the arrived the 13th and 14th at Posen, from whence march to its Destination, after halting a few Days.

Leigh, June 20. The Head-Quarters of the the Empire are at Zuickau. It is thought that it the left Wing of M. Daun's Army; and if this Col be joined by the French and Saxon Regiments, which arrived on the 18th at Eysenach, Prince Henry's position will scarce be tenable.

Hanover, June 26. They write from Hanover they have received Advice there from London, that the Majesty is determined to pay all his Grand Debts in that Electorate, which, together with the may amount to 500,000 Rix-Dollars, one Third of which will be paid directly.

Colz, June 26. Soubise's Army is composed of Foot, 11,340 Horse, 3000 Dragoons, and 3600 Troops; in all, 88,140 effective Men [on Paper] Engineers and the Train. It is followed by 120 Cannon, 500 Waggon of Biscuits, and 500 Soldiers may not be straitened for Want of Subsistence.

Hagen, June 30. The last Letters from Westphalia the 26th Instant, bring an Account, that Prince Ferdinand removed his Head-Quarters from Geske to So that the Prince his Nephew, who for some Days resided at Ham, was advanced to Dunkern, in order to join Prince Ferdinand, if it should be necessary.

Port Orient, June 17. The English Squadron reduced Belleisle now forms three Divisions, one consisting of ten Ships of War, is before Brest, another before Rochefort, and the third before Port Louis. English Ships have also appeared before Dunkirk and the Gracie; and we at Port l'Orient are as much threatened as any.

The English may succeed against the I Oron more easily than at Belleisle; but St. Cas warning to them not to meddle with our Continents for the Rest, they may do what they please on the we shall take our Revenge at Hanover.

For the Security of Port l'Orient, M. de Marbeuf ordered to repair with 3000 Men, to the Isle of O which covers our Harbour.

Hagen, June 30. We have received the following columns of Major Scheiter's late successful Expedition of the Rhine at Bislick, with 36 Horses, and 600 French Magazines at Xarten which consisted of about Nations of Hay and Straw, and 1400 Sacks of Flour. From thence he went to Soubeck, and passed by G and Stralden, in his Way to Kakirchen and Rure but learning that Ruremonde was possessed by a Troop, he went to Aersen, where he burnt a very Magazine of Hay and Straw, which at a moderate rate was valued at least, of a Million and a Half of money; and two Boats, having on board 4000 Sacks of which he cast into the Maas. Near Geldern he burnt two Boats, which he caused to be unloaded. From Aersen he took the Route of Genn and Stray; and some Thousand Rations of Oat this Year he made 16 Prisoners, whom he took along with him, besides a Sergeant and 18 Austrians, and 4000 men, whom, not being able to take with him, he afterwards burnt four double Boats with Forage on board the Rhine again at Loburg.

At Boderick there was a Regiment of French which plundered Horses; they detached 250 Horsemen and Two Hundred Foot were sent after him, in
