raft of a Letter from Quebec, via Boston.
about a Fortnight ago the British Merchants Place presented a Memorial to the Govern-complaining of the Hardships laid upon them particular, as well as upon the Nation in gene-the 26th, 37th, and 48th Articles of the tation of Canada. By these Articles the have Liberty to export to France whatever they may have, without being confined to any particular Time or Quantity, to which they are, moreover, to be bound with Vessels at any Time. By this Means the have got Possession of the Fur Trade as as before the Conquest of Canada, and run a more Rique than that of the Sea, in sending it to the Consequence of which is, that the Merchants being better acquainted with the Fur Trade, and even import Goods of the Manufacture of France, by Way of Guernsey and by which Means they will always be ena-to ingross the Fur Trade, and laugh at all Attempts of the British Merchants to share it with so that if a Stop is not put to the French Importation of Furs, and to their Importation of Goods by Way of Guernsey and Jersey, to the British Trade in Canada; it will be in-possible to import any Thing more than the Trifle that is wanting for the Use of the Troops.

WILLIAMSBURG, September 25.
This Week his Honour the Governor, with several Gentlemen, set out for the Northward; we hear he proposes being back by the 10th of the Month.

PHILADELPHIA, October 1.
Captain Stewart, from Hamburg, informs us, in the Gazette of that Place, of the 23d of September there was an Account of an Engagement between Part of Prince Ferdinand's Army, and the French, in which the latter lost, killed, or taken Prisoners, between Three and Four Thousand

ANNAPOLIS, October 8.

We hear from several Parts of the Country, of 8 or 10 Tobacco Houses, full of Tobacco, being burnt, during the close wet Weather, occasioned by making of Fires in the Houses, to keep the Tobacco from spoiling. Mr. Thomas Sprigg had a valuable Negro Fellow burnt in one of his Tobacco Houses.

Last Saturday, as a Gentleman, with his Wife, and Two small Children (the Eldest a little Boy about Five Years old) were going from Patuxent to West-River, on a Visit, the Horse chafed, by going over a Stump, and the little Boy fell overboard, so that the Bone came thro' the Fleish and his Thigh broke so that the Bone came thro' the Fleish and Skin, and none were unhurt but the Infant, who by the sudden Toss was flung out on a Parcel of Leaves, and received no Damage.

Tuesday Evening last, the Hon. FRANCIS FAUQUIER Lieutenant-Governor of Virginia, with a Number of Gentlemen, came to Town, by Water, from George-Town having been to the Northward as far as New-York. And this Morning set Sail for his Government.

Monday the 24 Day of November, is fix'd for the Election of Four Representatives for this County.
Yesterday Afternoon, Mr. MIDDLETON, of this Place, return'd home in his Boat from Virginia. By him we are informed with the following great and important News; taken from an Edinburgh Gazette of the first of August, brought in there by Capt. Scott, in 8 Weeks from Leobrain:
"St. James's, July 22d. Arrived here Major Wedd-burn, dispatched by Prince FERDINAND on Thursday the 16th with the following Account, That on the 15th of July the French attacked the Allies on the Heights of Keriden, not far from Hillstrup, begun at Ten in the Morning, and held till Nine at Night, when the Enemy gave Way in great Disorder: The Prince ordered them to be attacked on their Retreat, which was done with so much Vigour, that the Enemy never could Form again, but threw down their Arms, and run off in the greatest Disorder and Confusion. When Major Wedd-burn came away, they had taken 12 Pair of Colours, 20 Pieces of Cannon, 3000 Prisoners, besides a great Number of Officers, some of Distinction, and every Moment were bringing in more. The Marshal Duke de Broglie was committed on the Right of the French Army." A London Gazette Extraordinary, which Capt. Scott brought in, imported, "That the Victory obtained by Prince Ferdinand over the French Army, was the greatest and most complete that had been gained this War, and with very little Loss on his Side."

About the Beginning of September, Six Ships sail'd together from the Cape, but parted soon after, and only Three were together when they were attacked by a French Privateer, which took Two of them, Capt. Carling, who loaded in Patuxent, and Capt. Breckin, who loaded in York River.
Captain Errington, in the Fishburne, who was the other, was Three Times attacked by the Privateer, and as often beat her off, and is returned back to Norfolk to refit.
We have an Account by Mr. Middleton, that the Fleet had not sail'd last Tuesday; the Wind having been Easterly for near Three Weeks. On Tuesday last about Three Afternoon, the Signal was made for unmooring, when they all got under Sail; but soon after, it became Calm, and he saw them come to an Anchor again; but as the Wind came fair again about Three o'Clock Yesterday Morning, and continued so till Twelve or One at Noon, he thinks they sail'd Yesterday out of the Capes. He has favour'd us with a List of the Ships, which we have not Room to insert this Week.
The List was taken last Monday, there being then 110 Sail-besides two Ships which he saw join them, who went down the Bay, and Two out of James-River.
