Baltimore, July 1761.

RELIGION, the crowning Excellence of intelligent Nature, claims the Approbation and close Attention of every reasonable Being, who expects future Bliss. We are bound from Principles of Gratitude and Interest to promote the Honour and Worship of the supreme Mind, as necessary to our own Prosperity, the Good of Society, and future Happiness of Man. Animated by these intertelling Motives, we, of the Presbyterian Persuasion in this Town, desire, not from Party Views, but from real Principle, to purchase a Lot of Ground to erect a decent Church for Divine Service, in which we may worship GOD according to our Consciences. Upon Enquiry we find ourselves as yet insufficient to raise such a Sum as is necessary to accomplish such an important Design, beg Leave therefore to solicit the Generosity of our Fellow-Christians to assist and encourage us in completing a small Lottery, at a Time when the Benevolence of our Countrymen is so well tried in this Way. We hope our Claim to the public Attention is equal to any that has solicited their Notice, and humbly expect that we shall meet with general Encouragement.

SCHEME of the LOTTERY.

THE Russian Fleet being separated Wind, two Days after their departure, several of them lost their Rigging, &c. and were other maged, and some of their T' stranded. There is yet no ce ber, to what Ports the greatest Part of their Fleet, near Neiss, where his Majesty arrived on a forced March of Eight German Miles. It is by this March his Prussian Majesty has prevented his Incurfions into Hesse, to retire to the Harz, to watch the Motions of the Enemy's Disposition, August 2. It is expected the King will encamp not far from hence To-morrow, a Detachment of Prince Soubise's Army will be in Canton this City.

August 4. We have no News from the 28th ult. but the Accounts from the Town of Paderborn had been repossessed by the French. The French were forming Magazines, and throwing up some Entrenchments at Hoxter, and Dantrick and Colberg, were driven into Pillau.

August 7. Last Night we received that the King of Prussia had, by his Motions, obliged the King of Poland, to return back to Wartenberg, upon the Confines of Poland. The King's Army was still at Giesmanndorf, and General Lauchau; and from the King's Position, it was extremely difficult for the Russians to join the Army from the LONDON GAZETTE and other

BERLIN, August 2. GENERAL Laudohn having received a Reinforcement of five Regiments, entered Silesia by Wartheim. Upon this, the King of Prussia's Army camped from Pultzen the 21st of July, and marched to the Heights of Lobedau, about half a Mile distant from Patzchkau. The 22d, the King's Army marched with his Army to Giesmanndorf, distant half a German Mile from Neiss. On the 23th his Majesty's Head Quarters was still at Giesmanndorf. The Prussian continued encamped near Patzchkau, the Prussian having by the Celerity of his Marches, prevented them from joining the Russian Army, which he did on the 25th, the Camp of Namslaw, and was drawn out more towards the Higher Silesia. Gen. Knoblauch commands at present the Corps which opposes the King's Army, and General Zethen, Corps, is posted at Mucheln. General Romanzow is in the Camp of Cossin, waiting for the Arrival of the Fleet, which, on the 17th, was dispersed, and managed by a Storm. Letters of the 25th from the King, with 220 Men, had perished; and that several had been driven a-shore. On the 19th of July, the small Garrison at Demmin, lost an Hundred Men; and at Damgarten the Enemy made a Li
