RELIGION, the crowning Excellence of intelligent Nature, claims the Approbation and close Attention of every reasonable Being, who expects future Bliss. We are bound from Principles of Gratitude and Interest to promote the Honour and Worship of the supreme Mind, as necessary to our own Prosperity, the Good of Society, and future Happiness of Man. Animated by these interesting Motives, we, of the Presbyterian Persuasion in this Town, desire, not from Party Views, but from real Principle, to purchase a Lot of Ground to erect a decent Church for Divine Service, in which we may worship GOD according to our Consciences. Upon Enquiry we find ourselves as yet insufficient to raise such a Sum as is necessary to accomplish such an important Design, beg Leave therefore to solicit the Generosity of our Fellow-Christians to assist and encourage us in completing a small Lottery, at a Time when the Benevolence of our Countrymen is so well tried in this Way. We hope our Claim to the public Attention is equal to any that has solicited their Notice, and humbly expect that we shall meet with general Encouragement.

THE Empress-Queen has wrote Baron Laudohn, wherein she Power to give Battle, or decline shall judge proper. This Power the military Operations in the same Time the Officers and

The last Letters from the Army in that Electorate; yet they of the Empire having summoned Leipzig the Prussian Commandant sent Word to Marshal "That the King his Master had given him no than to defend himself." And immediately Commandant fired combustible Matters to lay in the Suburbs, and ordered the Inhabitants to lay in three Months; and that all useless Mouths must be turned out of the City.

From the Oder, August 4. Part of the Russian advanced to Hundfeld, within a German Mile a Body of 1800 of their Troops passed the Oder to attempt something against the advanced Knecht's Corps; but General Tauenzien, Commandant of Breslau, having sent out 2000 Men against some Cannon, they were soon obliged to retire. As to Breslau, the Fortifications having been augmented, and well garrisoned, and moreover Knecht's Corps, the Inhabitants think the King's Army, reinforced by Ziethen's encamps at Oppersdorf and Neustadt, watching the Russian Army. General Laudohn does not seem to remove farther from the Mountains into the The Russian grand Army remains at Namslau, central, by Marches and Countermarches, the King's Operations.

From the Letter from Eschwag, July 21. [a Town of Eastern Pomerania, in Germany in the King of Prussia.] August 8. We have just Advice, that the Russian Fleet has landed at Lubek, to assist in the Siege of Colberg.

From the LONDON GAZETTE, August 1. Colonel Freytag having marched the 18th from Langerhausen, with three Brigades of Cavalry, he detached on the 19th the Captains Kampen and with 100 Horses, towards Fulde, in order to destroy the Swedish Army in that Quarter.

"This Detachment marched for that Purpose back from Langerhausen. Being arrived at A they passed the Werra about Noon, and posted that in a Wood, at a League's Distance from Roth where they took, on the 20th, three French Companies to form Boats laden with Flour and Cannon. Captain Engell set out, with 80 Horses, to destroy the Swedish Magazine at Hirschfeld: He met in his Boat laden with Flour, Oats, Balls, Bombs, and Powder, which he threw into the River Fulde Fire to the Boats.

"According to the Advices he had, the General Hirschfeld was supposed to consist only of 2000 Men, which induced Captain Engell to make his Disposition having cut his Way through the Guard) for the Place.

"Some Chasseurs and Hussars appearing in the Evening the Commandant had doubled the Guard, and the Picquet, posted at the Gates of the Town. He ordered 60 Dragoons from Melsungen, who arrived about Three in the Morning. Notwithstanding this Captain Engell caused the Gate to be forced by the City; but finding the Enemy's Infantry very strong, and that they fired upon him briskly from the Horse, he was obliged to retire. Captain Engell attacked at 10 o'clock the Picquet, whose Officer and 30 Men threw themselves into a Barrack, which was thatched with Straw. Engell summoned, at several Times, that Party to surrender, but they refused to do so. Engell then ordered his Magazine to be set fire to the Barrack, and cut all the Picquet to pieces, except four Men, to whom his People gave Quarter. The Barrack, who remained too long in the Barrack, perished.
