RELIGION, the crowning Excellence of intelligent Nature, claims the Approbation and close Attention of every reasonable Being, who expects future Bliss. We are bound from Principles of Gratitude and Interest to promote the Honour and Worship of the supreme Mind, as necessary to our own Prosperity, the Good of Society, and future Happiness of Man. Animated by these interesting Motives, we, of the Presbyterian Persuasion in this Town, desire, not from Party Views, but from real Principle, to purchase a Lot of Ground to erect a decent Church for Divine Service, in which we may worship GOD according to our Consciences. Upon Enquiry we find ourselves as yet insufficient to raise such a Sum as is necessary to accomplish such an important Design, beg Leave therefore to solicit the Generosity of our Fellow-Christians to assist and encourage us in completing a small Lottery, at a Time when the Benevolence of our Countrymen is so well tried in this Way. We hope our Claim to the public Attention is equal to any that has solicited their Notice, and humbly expect that we shall meet with general Encouragement.

CONDITIONS.

THAT the Lottery shall be drawn in Baltimore-Town as soon as the Tickets are disposed of, and previous Notice thereof shall be given in This and the Pennsylvania Gazette.

That a Deduction of Fifteen Dollars be made from every Prize of One Hundred Dollars, and so in Proportion for any greater or lesser Prize, thereby to raise the Sum intended of Three Thousand Dollars. The Managers appointed are, Messieurs John Smith and William Buchanan, John Stevenson, Jonathan Ploverman, William Lyon, and Nicholas Ruxton Gay, of Baltimore; Mr. David McCulloch, of Joppa; Mr. George Stevenson, of York; Col. John Armstrong, of Carlisle; Dr. David Ross, of Bladenburg; Mr. Peter Hubbard, of Dorset; and Mr. Jonas Green, of Annapolis; who are to give Bond, and be upon Oath faithfully to discharge the Trust reposed in them.

A List of the Prizes will be published in This and the Pennsylvania Gazette, after the Drawing is finished, and the Money paid after the Deduction aforesaid. Prize Money not demanded in Six Months after the Publication of the Prizes, to be deemed as generously given towards this laudable Purpose, and to be applied accordingly.

TICKETS to be had of any of the Managers; of Mr. Thomas Campbell, Merchant, at Nottingham, and of Mrs. Ramsay, at the Head of Severn.

N. B. Seven Shillings and Six-Pence, Pennsylvania Paper, will be taken in Payment for a Dollar, in the Purchase of Tickets, and to be paid in like Manner in Discharge of Prizes.

Charles County, October 1st, 1761.

THE Subscriber has a large Quantity of TOBACCO, of good Weight, on Patuxent and Patowmack, for Sale; also a Parcel of NEGROES at his own House, either for Ready or next Year's Pay; likewise some Horses to dispose of; and Land to Lease for a Dozen or Fifteen Years.
SAMUEL HANSON.

The SHIP ELIZABETH and ANNA,

LYING in the North-West Branch of Patuxent, takes in TOBACCO at Eight Pounds Sterling per Ton, consign'd to Messieurs ROBERT and JAMES CHRISTIE, Merchants in London.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living near Upper-Marlborough, on the 26th of February last, a Country-born Negro Fellow named Anthony, by Trade a Cooper, about 28 Years of Age, and 5 Feet 4 Inches high. He had on an old Cotton Coat with white Metal Buttons, Cotton Breeches, a Kersey, and Swanskin Jacket, Negro Shoes and Stockings, a Felt Hat, and an Osnabrigs Shirt. But it is probable he will change his Apparel, as he had Variety of Cloaths with him. He has been used to work on board Ships in Patuxent River, and it is supposed is somewhere thereabouts.

Whoever will take up the said Negro, and bring him home, shall have Forty Shillings, beside what the Law allows, if taken in the County; and if taken out of it, Three Pounds, beside what the Law allows, paid by JOHN GANTT.

The following Account of the Marriage of his late Prince of Wales with the Princess of Prussia is agreeable to our Readers.

HER Highness arrived in the Yacht at Greenwich, on Sunday the 17th, and landing at the Hotel, proceeded in one of his Majesty's Lord Delawar, to the Queen's Park, amidst the acclamations of spectators. Her Highness seemed highly delighted by the people's expressed at her arrival, and to show herself for above half an hour towards the Park. The Princess of Wales, a visit, and their Majesties, the Duke, and their complements.

Monday 26. The Prince of Wales dined at Greenwich in one of the rooms towards the river, the windows being thrown open to oblige the people: His Royal Highness afterwards gave a ball in the water, as far as the Tower in his barge finely adorned, and preceded music. The ships saluted their Highnesses as they passed and hung out their streamers and covered with boats. Their Highnesses stepped in public.

Tuesday 27. Her Highness came in his Majesty's Yacht from Greenwich to Lambeth, crossed the water and was brought from Whitehall to St. James's Palace; where was a numerous and beyond expression. The Prince of Wales received her at the garden door; and, upon her sinking on her knees, he affectionately raised her up, and twined her in his arms, and led her up stairs to the apartments, where presenting her to the King, she fell on her knees to kiss his hand but was up and saluted by him. Her Highness was to the Queen in like manner, and afterwards to the Princesses, who congratulated her arrival and dined with the Prince of Wales, and the Princess of Prussia. At eight the procession began to the Chapel, where the King and Queen were seated. Her Highness was in her hair, wearing a crown, as Princess of Wales, set all over with diamonds, as Princess of Wales, being of a tall stature with several rows of ermine, and was supported by Lady Caroline Lennox, and Grace the Duke of Richmond; Lady Caroline daughter to his Grace the Duke of Grafton; Lady Cavendish, daughter to his Grace the Duke of Devonshire; and Lady Sophia Fermor, daughter to the Earl of Arundel, all of whom were in virgin habits of silver lace and adorned with diamonds, not less in value than 30,000 l. each. Her Highness was led by the Duke, and conducted by his Grace the Duke of Grafton, Lord Chamberlain of the Household; Lord Hervey, Vice-Chamberlain; and attended by the Countess of Effingham, and the other Ladies in waiting. The marriage service was read by the Bishop of London, Dean of the Chapel; and a Te Deum was sung, a fine anthem was performed by a choir of voices and instruments. When the procession was over, His Royal Highness led his bride; and coming into the drawing-room, their Royal Highnesses kneeled and received their Majesties blessing: At half an hour after the ceremony, the King and Queen, the Prince and Princess, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, the Duke and Duchess of Grafton, and the Duke and Duchess of Richmond, were seated in the King's right hand, and the Princess of Prussia in the Queen's left. The Duke of Devonshire, the Duke of Grafton, and the Duke of Richmond, were seated in the King's right hand, and the Princess of Prussia in the Queen's left. The Duke of Devonshire, the Duke of Grafton, and the Duke of Richmond, were seated in the King's right hand, and the Princess of Prussia in the Queen's left. The Duke of Devonshire, the Duke of Grafton, and the Duke of Richmond, were seated in the King's right hand, and the Princess of Prussia in the Queen's left.
