LONDON, N

The humble ADDRESS of the Right Honourable LORDS of the HOUSE OF COMMONS, to the Honourable Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament assembled, on Monday the 6th of February, 1761. His Majesty's SOVEREIGN,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords and Commons in Parliament assembled, doth with much Satisfaction and Gratitude to Your Majesty, thank You for the great and amiable Accomplishment of the late Act, for the better Addition to that of Your People, and for the longest Duration to this Felicity! And with a numerous Progeny, to transmit to their illustrious Parents, and perpetuate Your Majesty's Name.

It is impossible to approach Your Majesty, without making our first Offerings of our most joyful Congratulations on the occasion of Your Royal Nuptials. We are how warmly we are affected with an affection to Your Majesty, and to all Yours, to express our Gratitude to Your Majesty, who whilst She compleats Your Majesty's Reign to future Ages.

We thankfully acknowledge Your Majesty's communicating to us, that Overtures of several Belligerent Powers, in order to and by France, for a particular Peace and that Crown, whereupon a Negotiation which since entirely broke off. Not wanting to us, that the Continuance of fusion of Christian Blood, cannot, without being imputed to Your Majesty's beneficence and Benevolence of Your own Interest.

Your Royal Wisdom has appeared in the present signal Successes of Your Majesty's important Conquests with which the War has been attended, in other Parts, to feel, that superior Numbers cannot be your Superior Capacity and Conduct of Your Majesty's Princes Ferdinand of Brunswick, and of Your Officers and Troops. We commendation, those repeated Proofs of Majesty's great Ally, the King of Prussia, which with so many Difficulties, has Your Majesty's Sentiments cannot be weighed with us, because we are sure to be supported by the Love and Affection of Your Majesty's Subjects, and therefore from Conviction, that we do not concur in Your Opinion, that it is not our most vigorous Efforts in every enemy may still be attacked with Advantage.

We beg Your Majesty to accept the most affectionate Assurances, that we will, and Ardor, and at the Hazard of every us, stand by and support Your Majesty's War in the most effectual Manner for the Kingdoms, and in performing, to the Honour of Your Majesty's Allies, we are evident, than that this is the only equitable and honourable Conditions of Reason, be expected from our Successors. We should be greatly wanting to the Honour of Your Majesty, if we did not testify for Your paternal Goodness, in having that both in carrying on the War, and in Consideration whatsoever shall make true Interests of these Your Kingdoms, and Your Crown.

This Resolution, so truly worthy and so engaging to all Your loyal Subjects, Returns on our Part. Penetrated with Your unbounded Tendernefs and Confidence, we do, from the Bottom of our Hearts, that we will, with the utmost Duty and Confidence which Your Majesty's fully persuaded of the Necessity of a Dispatch, in the present critical Situation, by the gracious Admonition
