

LOTTERY,

disposing of Effects to the full Value of Ten Thousand Pounds Virginia Currency, without any Deduction.

The Subscriber intending for England as soon as he can possibly accomplish it, his Affairs greatly there on Account of his Absence, and this Method as the most expeditious to dispose of his Effects. It is with great Diffidence and Confidence he addresses the Public, as he is sensible that Candour and Generosity must be almost necessary with so many Repetitions of Things of this Nature: And nothing but the present Situation of his Affairs, both here and at home, could have prevailed upon him to do it; which, he is glad to flatter himself, that to his Friends and well-wishers, to those who feel a secret Pleasure in assisting such as labour under Difficulties, and whose Motives sufficient to remove any Prejudice they may have entertained against Lotteries of this Sort. To the Public in general, very inducements to adventure will not be wanting. This Lottery is beyond Dispute as well calculated for the Advantage of Adventurers as any other to the Public, as every Article in the Scheme will be valued at the lowest Rates, and the Prizes paid off without any Deduction. All the Schemes hitherto presented to the Public propose a Deduction of Fifteen per Cent. to raise, as it is called, a Sum in that Proportion, which, in this present Lottery, would amount to Three Hundred Pounds; which the Subscribers will have the Benefit of, as the Subscribers do not want to make any Advantage by the Lottery, but only to dispose of what Effects are on Hand as soon as possible, at a reasonable price. The first Place, the Lottery will consist of Tracts of Land (for which effectual Deeds are given to the Fortunate); great Part of the same, and none of them Ten Miles distant from Patowmack, which, for Richness of Soil, is exceeded by very few Lands in America; and the Tracts, particularly such as are situated in the Countries daily increase in Value, is a Circumstance too well known to be insisted on.

1. Arcadia, lying upon a Branch of Patowmack, containing 750 Acres, 300 Acres of which may with Ease be made as good Meadows in Virginia. The greatest Part of the same is rich enough to produce Corn in great Abundance without the Trouble of attending after it in the Ground. A delightful Stream runs through it, with which, at any Season of the Year, the Soil may be watered.

2. Wigton, lying upon the North Fork of Patowmack, containing 418 Acres of extremely rich and valuable Land, and possessed of the Advantage that Land unimproved can boast.

3. Tirzab, lying upon the South Branch of Patowmack, containing 400 Acres, about 30 Acres cleared, Ten of which as rich Meadows as in America. A Tenant lives upon it.

4. Kelsike, lying upon the South Branch of Patowmack, containing 230 Acres, betwixt 30 Acres cleared, was planted with Corn last Year and produced a prodigious Crop. There is through it an excellent Stream for a Mill, Turn-Mill-Run, which preserves nearly an equal Height all Seasons of the Year.

5. Pappos, lying upon the Waters of Patowmack, about 7 or 8 Miles from Patowmack, containing 221 Acres; which, for Richness of Soil, may vie with any Lands upon the Face of the Earth. The Stream, which waters it, is a Trout and a Variety of other Fishes, situated most advantageously for a Range for

6. Abby-Helm, situated upon one of the Branches of the South Branch of Patowmack, called Bottom-Run, containing 400 Acres, 150 Acres of which is extreme rich Bottom, and may be made at Pleasure. The rest is well adapted for every Kind. It's Situation also convenient for an extensive Range.

7. Mamre, lying upon the Waters of Patowmack, containing 400 Acres, very rich Bottom watered with a beautiful Stream.

8. Cumberland, lying upon Stony-Lick-Run, about 7 or 8 Miles from Patowmack, containing 400 Acres of very rich Land, and an extensive Range for Cattle round it.

Very neat Assortment of Dry Goods, fresh, newly now opening; consisting of a Variety of the most valuable Silks, newest fashion'd Millinery, and all sorts of Womens Wear; Broad-Cloths, Jeans, and all sorts of Duroys; Stuffs of sundry Kinds;

Hats laced and plain; together with all Kinds of Mens Apparel; and a Number of other Articles too tedious to mention.

A large and very valuable Collection of Books, in History, Divinity, Natural Philosophy, Commerce, and on almost every Art and Science; among which are Pestlethway's Commercial Dictionary, Chambers's Cyclopaedia, Twenty Volumes of the Universal History of all Nations, Locke's, Addison's, Pope's, Swift's, Sir Isaac Newton's, Montaigne's, Voltaire's, Murari's, Marquis D'Argen's, Isiquet's, Rowning's, Graveland's, and Robault's Works; Rowning's Religious Philosophical Natural Philosophy; Newintol's Religious Philosophy; Salmon's Geography; Pliny's and Cicero's Letters, translated by Melmoth; also the latter's Orations and Offices; Harris on the Globes; Rollin's Ancient History and Belle Letters; Watts's Philosophical Essays; Jesuit's Perspective; with a Variety of the best Authors on every Branch of the Mathematics. The Reviews, Gentleman's, London, and Universal Magazines; and a Number of Plays, Novels, and other Books of Entertainment.

A great Variety of the latest done Maps, coloured and executed in the most elegant Manner. A considerable Collection of Perspective Views of the most magnificent public and private Edifices, Bridges, Monuments and Ruins, in Rome, Venice, France, England, and China; with a curious magnifying perspective Mirour. A Collection of the genteelst Pictures, done by Hogarth, and other masterly Hands. His Election Prints are amongst them.

The Prizes will be classed in such Order, that the Fortunate may have as complete a Variety as the Value of the Prize will admit of.

The whole Collection to be examined by disinterested Persons, who are well acquainted with the Worth of each Article, and the intrinsic Value to be ascertained by them, that the Public may be satisfied there can be no Fraud in the Undertaking. And to prevent the least Appearance of Confusion, particular Mention will be made on each fortunate Number in the Wheel, what the Prize consists of. After the Drawing is finished, Care will be taken to forward the Prizes of the Fortunate, that are moveable, to any Part of the Continent, in such Manner as they may please to order.
