2000 Tickets at 10 s. each, are 1000 l. AS the Sum wanted is but small, and the Number of Tickets are few, the Proportion of Prizes to the Blanks could not be increased without making the Prizes so small as to render them not worth the Acceptance of the Adventurers. But as the Price of the Tickets is low, and the designed Application of general Benefit to all interested in Navigation, it's hoped this Scheme, for raising the Sum wanted, will meet with Encouragement from both the Merchant and Planter. The Managers are, Messrs. Christopher Lowndes, John Row, Thomas Chittam, Richard Henderson, Francis Hatfield, Daniel Stephenson, Richard Whitte, Thomas Gantt, junr. (one of the first Commissioners for laying out Bladenburg), and David Ross: They will give Bond for their faithful Performance, and act upon Oath in the Discharge of the Trust reposed in them.

Notice of the Time of Drawing, at Bladenburg, will be given in this GAZETTE. Prizes not demanded in Six Months after Publication of the Numbers, will be deemed as generously given to the Design.

Tickets may be had of any of the Managers, and at the Printing-Office in Annapolis. N. B. Dollars, Pistoles, or Pennsylvania Currency, will be received as they now Pass, for Tickets; and the Prizes paid off in like Manner.

JOHN INCH, SILVERSMITH.

HEREBY gives Notice, That he still carries on his Silversmith's and Jeweller's Business, buys Gold and Silver, and keeps Tavern as formerly; and has provided himself with a very good House Painter and Glazier lately from London, who shall work for any Person very reasonably. Mr. GREEN,

I HAVE, with much Pleasure, Received the Letter of your ingenious and Beneficent Commerce, published in Numb. 879: And as he seems to be so well qualified for the Task, as him, would be kind enough to point Means of improving Trade, and increasing Export.

He expresseth a Wish, that the General would turn their serious Thoughts upon endeavour to become better acquainted with Genius. I believe, Mr. Green, this is a us Planters; for we see, from many un Falls in the Market, a Mystery in Trade be very glad to find out, that we might Footing with the Merchants we deal with better Prices for our Tobaccos, Corn, &c. than they often care to give us. But how Knowledge, under our poor Circumstances My Parents, I thank God, besides a and some Stock and Negroes, left me as as the Country usually affords; which I and helps me to consider a little what I of my poor Neighbours, who have been from their Infancy, and find Employment ing hard with the World to rear up their little Tracts, have not the like A neither Read nor Think to any Purpose, of others. And as the Bulk of Planting this Province, is necessarily made up depend on others, whose Judgment upon their Notions of Matters which lie ever Bounds of their ordinary Employment will be found in Fact, that the General hood think and act in most Things as if among them (of whose Understanding Opinion) instructs them, and whom themselves to look upon as an Oracle, infallible. I myself have some little I among my Neighbours, who are a plain Sort of People; and from a sincere fare (as well as my own Interest) should instructed myself, that they might recenst from my Advice when asked.
