WHAGUE, January 15. We have just received an account of the Demise of an English Duke, who died the 5th Inst. and we likewise hear, that a rival of that News is the Imperial Highness the Duke of Saxe-Weimar, who immediately proclaimed Emperor, by the name of Frederick Augustus the Third, at the Head of the Russian Army.

Lisbon, Dec. 15. Some pretend, that the King of Portugal had offered us 30,000 Men to defend the Coast of Oporto, if we will join them, and march into the Kingdom of Castile.

Madrid, Dec. 7. Seven Spanish Ships of the Line are now ready to sail from Ferrol, or St. Vincent.

Toulon, Dec. 30. The Squadron which consists of 12 Men of War. The Court of Spain has offered us 30,000 Men to defend the Coast of Oporto, if we will join them, and march into the Kingdom of Castile.

By an authentic List of the Privateers Merchants of Dunkirk, it appears to the Duke of Burgundy, that he has 49 Degrees North Latitude, and 8 Degrees 36 Minutes East Longitude, discovered an Island of the Name of Tenerife, which he has taken up with, and very briskly for about three Quarters of a Mile, the English some Minutes after the Privateer, which made five Holes in the Privateer, and immediately after a great Smoke was perceived on board the Enemy's Ship, which was the Duke de Noailles; but at about 10 o'clock he blew up. By some Papers which appeared to be the King George of London, bound to London, from Philadelphia, on board Passengers included, who all of them received considerable Damages, and the rest of the Ship sunk.

LONDON, Dec. 15. The Harriot Packet Boat, Captain Falmouth, from New-York, after 24 Days Voyage, arrived here safe and sound.

January 2. We are well assured, that the King of Spain has sent a Requisition to the Court of England, that no English Ships for the Trade should enter the Harbour of Lisbon.

January 5. The last War against Spain, which began on the 22nd of October 1739, now upwards of 22 Years ago, that the present King of Spain, Don Carlos, was settled on the Throne by the Assistance of a powerful English Fleet, which was sent to the Coast of Spain, and landed on board, and lately he has espoused the Princess of Parma, daughter of the late King of Spain.

Such is the Gratitude of the King of Spain, who got out of Cadix, say, the Sail of Merchant Ships, besides a 60 Gun Ship, that had Notice given them by an Hours before the Spanish Governor of Madrid; and that a great Number of Sailors and Soldiers, were sent to take off the Rudders; but our People, some of their Boats, and killed several of the Spaniards, and each striving to be the first to enter the Harbour.

There are only two Admirals in Spain at this Time: Don Navarro, who is the Division in the Engagement with the Havanna, in 1748. Don Navarro, 26 Ships of the Line at Ferrol; but his Infant Don Philip, commonly called the Young King, is now no more than 114 Guns, and 1300 Men, in the Bay of Carthagena, in such a bad Condition, that he is thought to sink her off the Harbour.

January 16. This Morning died Dr. Hayer, Lord Bishop of London, who was 78 Years of Age.

The Rev. Dr. Obaldiston, will be made Bishop of London, and the Rev. Dr. Mordaunt will be made Bishop of Ely.

James the First, waiting upon his walking in St. James's Park; the King, who was more troubled bow to do, (being then void) than he was, for there are many that make Interests, that I know not, said the King. The Doctor told his Majesty, That he would easily dispose of it. Do you take me for a Fool? No, please your Majesty, for if your Majesty had Faith, you might have clapping his Hand upon his forehead, and said, The King was so well pleased with him the Bishopric.
