

Baltimore-Town, July 20, 1762.

JUST IMPORTED,
The ELIZABETH, Capt. MORISON, from LONDON, and to be SOLD by the Subscriber in BALTIMORE-TOWN,

BEAUTIFUL Grey MARE, near sixteen Hands high, whose Pedigree I am favour'd with from under his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland's own Hand. Extract of which is as follows:

The Pedigree of Young EBONY, 29th April, 1762. She was got by H. R. H. the Duke of Cumberland's Grey Arabian, called Muley; her Dam, by Mr. Pantan's old Crab; her Grand Dam, by the Yorkshire Childers; her Great Grand Dam, by the Duke of Rutland's Black Barb, which King William gave his Grace out of the famous Maffey Mare. She was Bred by his Royal Highness, and is Eight Years old this Grasp, and no more. I have it further attested by Mr. Barnard Smith, and Groom to his Royal Highness, that the Grey Arabian Horse, called Muley, is the Sire of Lord Artmore's Bay Mare, Madam, which won the Plate at Ascot Heath, in 1760: She won it again in 1761, and the aged Plate at Osibam, the same Season. Also, Mr. Smith asserts, that this Mare EBONY, was covered by H. R. H. the Duke of Cumberland's Bay Horse Cato, on the 13th April, 1762. Cato was got by Old Regulus, Son the Goddess Arabian, out of Mr. Bew's Parer Mare, and won as follows: He won the King's Plate at Newcastle, for 5 Years old Horses, 1753: When 6 Years old, he won the following King's Plates, carrying 12 Stone, at Guildford, Salisbury, Canterbury, Winchester, and Lewis.

In the Year 1755, Cato won the aged Plate at Ascot Heath, where he beat Crab, and the famous Little Driver.

At New-Market, Cato beat Crab a single 4 Mile Match. The October following, Cato gave Crab Pounds.

In 1756, Cato won the 50 l. Plate at New-Market, for aged Horses.

In 1759, Cato beat Lord Oxford's Pickle, a 4 Mile Match, over New-Market.

In 1760, Cato beat Lord Governor's Invalid, a 4 Mile Match, over New-Market.

The October following, Cato beat Mr. Staffin's Slides, a 4 Mile Match, over New-Market.

The Groom who had the Care of this Mare, doubts not her being with Foal by this Horse.

To prevent Trouble to Gentlemen who live at Distance, or out of the Province, I think proper to inform them, that her first Colt was 200 Guineas, and those who would not choose to give a reasonable Advance on that Sum, cannot deal with
Their most humble Servant,
JONATHAN PLOWMAN.

2 JOHN HALL.

Nottingham, on Patuxent, 8th July, 1762.

THE Subscriber having lately received positive Instructions from Messieurs SHORTRIDGE, GORDON, and Company, of Glasgow, his Employers, to call in all the Debts due to them in this Province, either for Dealings with Mr. Henry Tubman at Benedict, or the Subscriber at Nottingham, gives this Public Notice, that all concerned may speedily come in, and give such Satisfaction as is in their Power. As the Subscriber intends to Great-Britain, after staying a reasonable Time for the Settlement of his Affairs in this Province, he hopes that every one who hath Dealings unsettled with him, either for himself or his said Employers, and are unable to make immediate Payment, will, for their own Sakes, come and settle with the Subscriber, as it may be a Means of preventing Disputes, that otherwise may hereafter rise in settling these old Dealings with his Successor, in the Management of the said Gentlemen's Affairs. Altho' I am strongly enjoined to make a very considerable Remittance out of Debts by this Summer Shipping, yet I am willing to indulge such of my Customers as are really unable to pay this Summer, with a little longer Time, provided they will come and settle their Accounts, and give Security, if required: And I flatter myself, that they will all prefer such easy Terms to Suits at Law, which will certainly be the Consequence of their standing off.

2 THOMAS CAMPBELL.

Calvert County, July 6th, 1762.

THE Subscriber intending for London this Summer, all Persons having legal Demands against him, are desired to bring the same in, and receive Payment. And all Persons in ways Indebted to the Subscriber (particularly those Indebted on open Accounts) are requested to pay off, or otherwise settle the same without Delay; which will prevent Trouble, and oblige

Their humble Servant,
