

Nottingham, on Patuxent, 8th July, 1762.

THE Subscriber having lately received positive Instructions from Messieurs SHORTRIDGE, GORDON, and Company, of Glasgow, his Employers, to call in all the Debts due to them in this Province, either for Dealings with Mr. Henry Tulman at Benedict, or the Subscriber at Nottingham, gives this Public Notice, that all concerned may speedily come in, and give such Satisfaction as is in their Power. As the Subscriber intends to Great-Britain, after staying a reasonable Time for the Settlement of his Affairs in this Province, he hopes that every one who hath Dealings unsettled with him, either for himself or his said Employers, and are unable to make immediate Payment, will, for their own Sakes, come and settle with the Subscriber, as it may be a Means of preventing Disputes, that otherwise may hereafter rise in settling these old Dealings with his Successor, in the Management of the said Gentlemen's Affairs. Altho' I am strongly enjoined to make a very considerable Remittance out of Debts by this Summer Shipping, yet I am willing to indulge such of my Customers as are really unable to pay this Summer, with a little longer Time, provided they will come and settle their Accounts, and give security, if required. And I flatter myself, that they will all prefer such easy Terms to Suits at Law, which will certainly be the Consequence of their standing off.

Bladensburg, February 1, 1762.

SCHEME of a LOTTERY, for raising the Sum of Two Hundred and Twenty Pounds, for removing several Shoals, in the Eastern-Branch of Patuxent, from the Wharf at Bladensburg downwards, and from thence to the Bridge upwards, and for enlarging the Wharf:

THE SCHEME.

202 Prizes, 1798 Blanks. Sum raised 220

2000 Tickets at 10 s. each, are 1000 £.

AS the Sum wanted is but small, and the Number of Tickets are few, the Proportion of Prizes to the Blanks could not be increased without making the Prizes so small as to render them not worth the Acceptance of the Adventurers. But as the Price of the Tickets is low, and the designed Application of general Benefit to all interested in Navigation, it's hoped this Scheme, for raising the Sum wanted, will meet with Encouragement from both the Merchant and Planter.

The Managers are, Messrs. Christopher Loveland, John Rowe, Thomas Chittam, Richard Henderson, Francis Hatfield, Daniel Stephenson, Richard Whittle, Thomas Gantt, junr. (one of the first Commissioners for laying out Bladensburg), and David Ross: They will give Bond for their faithful Performance, and act upon Oath in the Discharge of the Trust reposed in them.
