Line; and had not been fortunate enough to meet with either Monsieur or Deu;—That he was indefatigable in his Cruise, and 'twas imagined would not continue long on it before he made a Push at some of the Enemies Ports.—That Lord Egremont was well satisfied with Capt. Bonnell's Behaviour, in his Engagement homeward bound, though he was obliged to throw over his Mail.—That his Lordship recommended him to his Majesty, and the Postmistress General, who were pleased to order him a Present of 100 l. to be paid him and the Ship's Company, for their gallant Defence of the Packet Boat the Harriot, on the 11th of July last, against a large French Privateer of 16 Guns, and upwards of 100 Men.—And that Bonnell was afterwards promoted to the Command of an East India Packet.—
His Majesty's Ship Cygnet sails for England this Week. Weather permitting.
PHILADELPHIA, October 21.
TERMS of CAPITULATION proposed by the French Garrison and Troops, at St. John's, Newfoundland.
I. THE French Troops shall surrender Prisoners of War. [Agreed to.]
II. The Officers, superior and inferior, shall retain their Arms, for to keep their Troops in Order. [Agreed to.]
III. Proper Vessels shall be provided, in the Space of a Month, to carry the Officers, Grenadiers and Soldiers, both wounded and not wounded, to the Coasts of Bretagne, in France. [Agreed to.]
IV. The Officers of the Officers and Soldiers shall be preserved to them. [Agreed to.]
V. The Galleys will be taken Possession of this Afternoon, and the Garrison will lay down their Arms, signed, Wm. AMHERST.
Le Comte d'HAUSSONVILLE.
This is also to be signed by Lord COLVILLE, but is now, and shall remain, in full Force. Camp before St. John's, September 18, 1762.
There is a Report, that one of the Men of War, arrived at Newfoundland from England, took a French Frigate on the Banks.
It is said the Number of our Forces, at the retaking of Newfoundland, was about 900 Regulars, and between 2 and 600 New-England Provincials. The French 800 Regulars, and a Number of Marines.
Captain Jervis, of his Majesty's Ship Gosport, arrived at Sandy-Hook from Newfoundland, proceeds immediately for Virginia, in order to convoy the shipping bound to Europe.
On Friday last came to Town, Captain Coburn, of his Majesty's Ship, who was taken some Months ago, and carried to Porto Rico, which he left the Third of this Month, with a Number of other Masters of Vessels.—He was Prisoner there between three and four Months, in which Time from sixty to seventy Prizes were sent in.—They have been that Port about 40 Sail of Privateers, chiefly small, from six to twelve Guns, and two Brigs, of 12 or 16 Guns.—There were still left at Porto Rico seven English Masters of Vessels, and 2 or 300 Sailors, all very ill used; the former kept in close Confinement, and the latter obliged to work very hard, in fitting out their Privateers, &c.
The Earl of Halifax Packet, Captain Bolden, is arrived at Falmouth from New-York.
From Martinico there is Advice, that the Enemy's Privateers have of late disappeared, Admiral Rodney having ordered four Frigates, at last, to cruise for the Protection of our Trade.

THREE likely young COUNTRY-BORN NEGROES, to be Sold by WILLIAM WILKINS.

Annopolis, October 20th, 1762.
RAN away from on board the Ship Dove, now lying at Annapolis, Benjamin Sutfield, Commander, on the 17th Instant, about three o'Clock in the Morning, Three Sailors, whose Names are as follows, viz.
Simon Richardson, a Foreigner, a tall, thin made Fellow, with his own light coloured lank Hair.
Dugall Mackalm, a low, thick-set Fellow, with his own black shock Hair.
George Beady, a stout, broad-set Fellow, with his own brown Hair.

This is to acquaint them, that if they do not return to their Duty on board the said Ship, they will forfeit all the Wages that is now due to them, and will be otherwise treated as the Law directs: And likewise to warn all Captains or Masters of Ships, not to employ any of the aforesaid three Sailors, as they may depend on being sued as the Law directs.

Whoever apprehends the aforesaid Sailors, or any of them, and secures him or them, shall receive as a Reward for so doing Four Pistoles for each, and all reasonable Expences.
BENJAMIN SUTFIELD.

RAN away from the Subscriber, on Tuesday the 12th Day of October, a Servant Man, named John Payne, born in this Country, about 5 Feet 7 Inches high, a thin spare Man, black Complexion, his Hair lately cut off, supposed to be about 25 Years of Age: Had on when he went away, a Claret or Pompadour coloured Cloth Coat, black worsted figured-wove Jacket, fine Castor Hat, and white Linnen, or check Linnen Cap, but perhaps he may now have a Wig, blue Cloth Breeches, mixed Yarn Stockings, and his Shoes lately mended: He married a Daughter of one Thomas Mobley in Anne-Arundel County, and it is supposed he may be in that Neighbourhood; he worked with me at the Ship Carpenter's Business, but he professes to be a Blacksmith, House Carpenter, and sometimes a Shoemaker; he answers to many Names, viz. John Conway, John Weaver, John Cowley, but indented himself to me, by the Name of John Payne.

Whoever apprehends the said Run-away, and brings him to me at the Eastern Branch Ferry, or secures him, so that I get him again, shall have a Reward of One Pistole, besides what the Law allows, if taken within 10 Miles of my House, Two Pistoles, if 15 Miles, Three Pistoles, if 30 Miles, Five Pistoles, if 50 Miles, or Six Pistoles, if 30 Miles, and out of the Province, paid by RICHARD BOWES.

N. B. Any Person that harbours, or keeps any Correspondence with the above Servant, may, if discovered, depend upon being dealt with as the Law directs.

THREE POUNDS REWARD.
