A Person Died lately, who left a large Estate to a Female Relation, provided he would Marry one of the Name of Pearce. She not knowing any one of that Name, advertised in the public Papers, That if any such Person would come to her, he might hear of something to his Advantage. At Length one came, to whom she would give 150 l. per Annum, if he would Marry her, settle the Rest of her Fortune upon her, and live elsewhere. Which Proposal he gladly accepted, being just released from Jail by the Insolvent-Act.

EDINBURGH, Sept. 27.

This Day Mr. Johnson performed his surprising Feats of Horsemanship in Comely-Garden, to the Astonishment of all the Beholders, who acknowledged that he by far surpassed any Thing contained in his Advertisement, of which the following is a Copy.

I. He rides a single Horse standing upon one Leg, on his Back, and in that Position puts the Horse through all his Exercises, whilst the Horse keeps Time to the Music. He then stands with both Feet on his Back, whilst the Horse goes three Times round the Green on full Speed. He then lays the Bridle on the Horse's Neck, and gallops him round without the Assistance of it.

II. He rides two Horses, with a Foot in each inside Stirrup: When the Horses are at the greatest Rate, he extends himself between them, at full Length; then raises himself up, and vaults from one to one; stands upon the Saddles upright, and gallops three Times round.

III. He rides three Horses; and, when in full Speed, tosses his Cap and catches it several Times.

IV. He rides a single Horse, and mounts and dismounts while the Horse is on full Speed; and, to the great Surprise of the Spectators, leaps over the Horse when at his greatest Rate.

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) Nov. 13. From Virginia we learn, that the Murrain has lately made its Appearance amongst the Cattle there. This Distemper broke out among our Cattle about 18 Years ago, and still continues in the Province.

We are desired to make it public, that George Lemond, and Joseph How, who went as Hostages to Cape-François in 1758, for 2000 l. Sterling, on Account of Messieurs Papey and Boan, Merchants in Jamaica, remained close confined in Goal the 21st of August last, only Part of the Ransom Money having then been paid.

Nov. 20. On Thursday last arrived here from Havannah, his Majesty's Ship Mercury, Samuel Cranston Goodall, Esq; Commander (of whom Sir George Pocock writes very advantageously) being ordered hither by Sir George, as an additional Station Ship to the Success and Bonetta. She has on board the Spanish Bishop of St. Jago, and other Ecclesiastics, accused of dangerous Practices, and ordered to be landed at St. Augustine, whither we hear they will be sent as soon as the Bonetta comes in from her present Cruise.

Sir George Pocock sailed for England from Havannah, the same Day as the Mercury left it, in the Namure, and took with him the following other Ships of War, viz. Temple, Marlborough, Devonshire, Infante, San Genaro, and Assumption Register Ship (the two last, with the Register Ship, taken at Havannah) with about 80 Sail of Transports and Merchantmen under his Convoy: He was parted with in the Lat. of St. Augustine, the 14th Inst. and had to that Time taken the most extraordinary Care of his Convoy.—The Ships left at Havannah are, the Belleisle, Rippon, Hampton-Court, and Port-Royal Sloop.—Lord Albe-marle, we hear, goes Home in the Rippon about the 1st of January.—On the 24th of October, 3 English Transports were lost, just as they came out of the Havannah, by the North Winds suddenly setting in; one of them was the General Wolfe (an old Indian) the Lion was another, the Name of the 3d we have not learnt.

PROVIDENCE (in New-England) Dec. 11.

Last Saturday the Brig Britannia, Capt. Dudley Saltonstall, arrived at New-London, in 40 Days from Coracoa; in whom came Passenger Mr. John Snow, of this Town, late Mate of the Brigantine Industry; Capt. Philemon Williams, who has been gone near twelve Months, without ever being heard of.—Mr. Snow gives the following Account of the Loss of said Vessel, on the Voyage from Barbados to Saltertuda, and the many Difficulties and Hardships they afterwards underwent, viz. On the 3d of April last, they sailed from Barbados in the Fleet for Saltertuda, and were to touch at Martinico, but their Vessel being an extreme heavy Sailer, they soon lost Sight of the Fleet; and after many fruitless Efforts to get into Martinico, they bore away for Saltertuda; but were by strong Currents, and adverse Winds, driven so far to Leeward, that on the 17th of April, about 4 o'Clock in the Morning, they unfortunately ran ashore on the Spanish Main at a Place called Cora; where they were soon after boarded by 150 Savages from the Shore, who plundered them of every Thing that could be of any Service to them, and turned them ashore (seven in Number) without any Kind of Provision to subsist on, with Directions to go to Maricoy, a Spanish Settlement, about 300 Miles from thence. They accordingly set out upon their Journey, through a Country they were unacquainted with, and after travelling three Days, in the greatest Distress for Want of Subsistence, and continually exposed to wild Beasts of Prey, and the more savage Nature, they were luckily overtaken by 7 Spaniards, who supplied them with Refreshments, and conducted them to the Spanish Town. As soon as they arrived they were immediately imprisoned, without Distinction, in a loathsome Goal, where they all continued for five Months, except one who embraced the Roman Catholic Religion, after a Month's Confinement, and was set at Liberty, and treated with great Kindness. At length the Spanish Governor ordered the fix that kept fast to their Faith, on board of a Dutch Sloop that was trading there, in which they got to Coracoa. Capt. Williams died on the 19th ult. on his Passage Home, after a few Days Illness.

NEW-YORK, December 27.

We have Letters in Town from Lisbon, as late as the 29th of October, by which we learn that the Portuguese expected to be able to stop the Progress of the Spaniards in a short Time, and prevent their attacking any more of their Towns for the Campaign.
