

George-Town, Frederick County, Feb. 7. 1763.

THE Subscriber Choſes to inform his Friends in and about Marlborough, Piſcataway, &c. That he intends (God willing) to be down early in the Spring to Inoculate as uſual, according to Promiſe: He has Inoculated Numbers with very good Succeſs, and hopes to the Satisfaction of all that Employ'd him. He has Reason to ſuſpect that low Inſinuations have been propagated thro' a View of prejudicing his Character. Characters are very Delicate; therefore would adviſe a certain Gentleman to be more Cautious. I hate Snarling Currs. I always have and ever ſhall deſpiſe the Puppy in the Manger.
