By the KING.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS a Definitive Treaty of Peace and Friendship between Us, the Most Christian King, and the King of Spain, to which the King of Portugal hath acceded, hath been concluded at Paris on the Tenth Day of this Inst. March; in Conformity therewith; we have thought fit hereby to command, that the same be published throughout all our Dominions; And we do declare to all our loving Subjects our Will and Pleasure, that the said Treaty of Peace and Friendship be observed inviolably, as well by Sea as Land, in all Places whatsoever, strictly charging and commanding all our loving Subjects to take Notice hereof, and to conform themselves thereto accordingly.

Given at our Court at St. James's, the 27th Day of March, 1763, in the Third Year of Our Reign.
GOD Save the KING.

LONDON, March 27.
Yesterday Morning the Peace was proclaimed, pursuant to his Majesty's royal Warrant, signed for that Purpose. The Ceremony was as follows:
At Ten o'Clock the Officers of Arms assembled at St. James's Gate, properly apparelled, on Horseback; when the Proclamation of his Majesty's Declaration of Peace was made, with the usual Solemnity.

From thence they marched to Charing-Cross, in the following Order, viz.
Guards to Clear the Way.
Constables and Beadles, two and two, bare-headed, with Staves.
The high Constable.
The Officers of the High Bailiff of Westminster.
The high Bailiff.
The Grenadier Guards.
Knights, Marshal Men, two and two.
The King's Trumpets.
The Sergeant Trumpeter, bearing his Mace.
Pursuivants and Heralds, two and two.
Norroy King at Arms, having on each side a Sergeant at Arms with a Mace.
Garter, Principal King at Arms.
A Troop of Horse Guards.
At Charing-Cross Peace was proclaimed a second Time.

From thence they proceeded to Temple-Bar, where the Officers of Westminster retired, and within the Gate the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Sheriffs performed the usual Ceremony, at their Entrance into the City.
Then Proclamation was made a third Time at the End of Chancery-Lane; then at the End of Wood-street, in Cheap-side, and the fifth and last Time at the Royal Exchange, during change Time.

Their Majesties, and most of the Royal Family, were at the Windows over the Gate-way at St. James's, to hear the Proclamation read.
It is said the Peace was proclaimed Yesterday, by Agreement, in Paris, Madrid, and Lisbon, as well as London.
Paul Fisher, Esq. of Clifton, near Bristol, who died lately, has left to the Magdalen Hospital 2000 l. and to the Society for propagating the Gospel 500 l. to be disposed of in the following Manner; 500 l. for propagating the Gospel in America, 500 l. for encouraging the Protestant Working Schools in Ireland, and the remaining 1000 l. for the Use of the first Bishop that shall be appointed in America, with the Interest of the same, provided such a See be constituted in 25 Years. And it is greatly to be hoped that such a well intended Bequest will not be lost for such a necessary Establishment in our now widely extended Empire in America; especially as many Romish Bishops have been long established in those Parts by the French and Spaniards.

The late worthy Bishop of Cloyne has told us, that in 1745 there were many Churches vacant in our Plantations, and many very ill supplied; nor could all the Vigilance and Wisdom of that Prelate, whose peculiar Care it was, prevent this, so long as those Churches are supplied from England: And supplied they must be with such as can be picked up in England or Ireland, until a Nursery of Learning for the Education of the Natives is founded; which might provide a constant Succession of learned and exemplary Pastors; and we may easily judge what Effect this must be supposed to have on their Flocks.
Most certainly, the Establishment of Episcopacy in our American Empire would be attended with infinite Advantages, as well to the Mother Country, as to her Colonies. American Missionaries may be then employed for the Conversion of America, and the Savages be brought to a Life of Civility and Religion.

The late Report of Justice in our Colonies is solely lodged in the King's sacred Person, with the Advice of his Privy Council, exclusive of Westminster-Hall, or any other Judiciary. The brightening of the Care of the present nor perhaps be thought unworthy the Care of the future happy Reign, to which the Improvement and future Security of so large a Part of the British Dominions, the Advancement of Trade, universally supporting the glorious Cause of Liberty, seem to be preferred by the peculiar Hand of Providence.

It is said, that the Design of putting all our Provinces in North-America under military Government, is laid aside.
The Betty and Ruth, Trueman, of Boston, was spoke with by the Betty, from Maryland, bound to the Orkneys, having lost her Malo-mast.
This Day the Definitive Treaty of Peace was proclaimed at the usual Places round the out Parts of London and Westminster, by the Sheriff of Middlesex, attended by the proper Officers.

We are informed, that the Right Hon. the Earl of Harcourt, Master of the Horse to the Queen, will be appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

It is said the Queen lies-in in June.
The Hours of Peers sat on Monday Night till near Ten o'Clock, and was never known to be fuller.

March 30. By the 3th Article of the Treaty of Hubertshourg, the Emperor's Queen and the King of Prussia promise to restore the Subjects of either, that were compelled to enter into the Service of the other.
And by an Article of the Treaty between the Kings of Poland and Prussia, the former cedes to the latter all that he possesses on the farther Side of the Oder, and the Superiority of the Banks of that River; for which he is to receive an Equivalent, the Amount of which is not mentioned in the Treaty.

A new Treaty of Commerce is on the Carpet between France and Holland.
A Number of Teachers are retaining to be sent to New-York and Philadelphia; for the two Colleges established in those Colonies.
March 31. We are told, that a great Change is already begun amongst the Ministry. It is said his Grace the Duke of Devonshire will be made First Lord of the Treasury, in the Room of Lord Bute, who will be made Lord Chamberlain of the Household; Mr. Pitt, to be Secretary of State; and several great Commoners, who now enjoy high Posts, on their Resignation, will be treated Peers.

Ten Ships of War are ordered to be fitted for North-America, and to be there stationed.
John Newe, Esq. of Pliflow, in Essex, was last Night interred at West-Ham. He has left, amongst other charitable Legacies, 100 l. to the Society for erecting Protestant Schools in Ireland; and 100 l. for the propagating the Gospel in foreign Parts.
We are assured, by authentic Advices from Paris, that the French East-India Company have presented a Memorial to the Court of Versailles, requesting to be exempted from sending a Garrison to Goree, as it is not worth the Expence.

Col. Josias Martin, Speaker of the Assembly in Antigua, is appointed Captain-General of the Leeward Islands, in the Room of George Thomas, Esq.
The Cargo of the Spanish Man of War lost near Ramsgate, is valued at upwards of 70,000 l.
If Credit may be given to some private Letters by the last Dutch Mail, Col. Draper has executed his Expedition against the Philippine Islands with Success.

Some of the French Inhabitants in Canada are selling their Estates to English Subjects, in Order to retire either to France, or to some of the French Colonies in America.
Last Wednesday a new Dock was opened at Plymouth Yard, to receive his Majesty's Ship Union, of 90 Guns; and altho' it was a remarkably low Spring-Tide, she went in with the greatest ease, and had more Water than was sufficient. This Dock is reckoned the largest in England, and thought to be equal to any in Europe.

It is said Encouragement will be given to our disbanded Soldiers to go and settle at Quebec, and our other Acquisitions on the River St. Lawrence.
We hear that the Works of Milford Haven will be carried on, notwithstanding the Peace, which will be a Means of giving Employment to a considerable Number of our discharged Seamen and Soldiers.
The French have entirely evacuated all the Places belonging to the King of Prussia upon the Lower Rhine, and his Prussian Majesty's Troops have taken peaceable Possession of them.

General Kingsley's Regiment, which came over with the second Division from Germany, are ordered to Winchester. This Regiment has remarkably distinguished itself in nine Battles, in one of which they lost half their Men, and in the whole have lost near 2000 Men since the Commencement of the War, whose Places were continually filled up as Occasion required, to keep them complete.
Some Officers, and two Engineers, are gone, or going to Dunkirk, to view the Fortifications of that Place, which are to be demolished by Treaty, and to view the new Works erected during the two last Wars.

We hear that the Underwriters (in Consideration of the Bravery of our British Tars) are come to a Resolution to insure no Ships but those that are wholly navigated by such Hands, as it would be very impolitic to continue foreign Sailors in the Merchants Service after the Conclusion of the Peace.
Extract of a Letter from Portsmouth, March 24.
Yesterday the Tamar Sloop was paid off in the Harbour. There is an Order for six small Sloops, to be put in Commission again, the Rainbow (a 40 Gun Ship, which will be the Commodore's) Vulture, Trial, Tamer, Fly, and Viper Sloops, to go to Halifax.

It is said that the Garrison of Bellisle will be transported to Minorca.
Belfast, March 23. The Lords of Appeals have reversed the Judgment of the Vice Court of Admiralty of Jamaica, condemning the Ship General Johnson, and Brig Jenny, belonging to Belfast and New-York, for having loaded Sugars at Monto Christi, and ordered said Vessels and Cargoes to the Owners.
New-Castle, March 19. By a Letter from Berwick, dated the 15th Inst. we learn, that dreadful have been the Effects of the late Storm along the Coast in that Neighbourhood. A large Vessel, Name unknown, attempting the Harbour at Holy Island, struck upon the Rocks, and immediately sunk; all the Crew perished. Another Brigantine, very near the Entrance of the Bar, struck the same Misfortune. A third, a Sloop, belonging to Lynn, and laden with Coals from Sunderland, soon succeeded to the Fate of the former. And the Nancy, Bryan Burlington, a Brigantine belonging to Plymouth, laden also with Coals from the same Port, met the same Fate; amidst among the Breakers, and immediately righting up, drove upon the Rocks at the Castle-point; a box four of the Hands were saved, by the Assistance of a Boat from the Shore; the rest, among which was the Master, having been with'd overboard, the Ship and Cargo it is thought will be tried. A Ship, appearing to be a pretty large one, was seen on Sunday upon one of the Tern Islands, with some of her Sails, Sanctions, from whence it is feared she stands in all lost: One also is said to be in the Eastward of the Islands, and another overjet, the sailing in the East-way. Still
