

"I will not trouble you with my poor Thanks. Thanks are due to You from the whole English Nation, and from ALL the Subjects of the English Crown. They will be paid You, together with every Testimony of Zeal and Affection to THE LEARNED SERJEANT, who has so ABLY and so CONSTITUTIONALLY pleaded my Cause, and in mine (with Pleasure I say it) THE CAUSE OF LIBERTY. Every Testimony of my Gratitude is justly due to you, and I take Leave of THIS COURT with a Veneration and Respect, which no Time can obliterate, nor can the most grateful Heart sufficiently express."

Serjeant GLYNN.

A Copy having been taken of the following Letter, which was sent OPEN to the Earl of Halifax, to be forwarded to Paris, we take the Liberty of presenting it to our Readers.

MY DEAREST POLLY, Tower, Sunday, May 1. I HAVE got Half an Hour's Leisure to pay my Compliments to you, and to relieve you from the Anxiety you will, from the kind Affection you bear me, be in at hearing of my Commitment to this Place. Be assured that I have done nothing unworthy of a Man of Honour, who has the Happiness of being your Father. You shall never in future Life blush for me. I am only accused of Writing the last North-Button, yet my Sword has been taken from me, all my Papers have been stolen by Ruffians, and I have been forcibly brought here. I have not yet seen my Accusers, nor have I heard who they are. My Friends are refused Admittance to me. Lord Temple, and my Brother, could not be allowed to see me Yesterday. As an Englishman, I must lament that my Liberty is thus wickedly taken away, yet I am not unhappy, for my Honour is clear, my Health good, and my Spirit unshaken, I believe indeed, invincible. The most pleasing Thoughts I have are of you; and the most agreeable News I can hear, will be the Continuance of your Health. I beg you not to write a Word of Politics.

At present, my dear Girl, can you get me made Membre du Parlement de Paris, for ours has lost all their Privileges? Yours has a few left.—My best Compliments to Madame.—I hope to kiss her Hand by the End of June, and that we shall all make our Tour together, and laugh at all the Follies and Regrettes of this Country.—Continue to love me, and believe me, with the greatest Warmth of Affection, Your obliged Father, JAMES WILKES.

Though Mr. Wilkes be discharged, on Account of his being a Member of Parliament, from his Imprisonment in the Tower; yet he is not freed from the Accusation against him. The Point before the Court of Common-Pleas, was not the Proof of his Guilt, but the Nature of his Offence, whether it deprived him of his Privileges as a Member of Parliament, which extend to all Cases, except Treason, Felony, and Breach of the Peace. The Warrant of the Commitment accuses him not of High Treason, but of Writing and Publishing a Libel. But a Libel in the Sense of the Law, is only a high Misdemeanor (though in arbitrary Reigns it has been held to be more) and at most has a Tendency to disturb the Peace.

Mr. Wilkes, however, had been scarcely discharged, when a Gentleman of Eminence in the Law stood up, and told my Lord Chief Justice, that he had just received a Note from the Attorney and Solicitor-General, to treat his Lordship would not give Mr. Wilkes Leave to depart till their coming, which would be instant, as they had something to offer against his Plea of Privilege. But this Motion was laughed at by the whole Court, as the Question was decided, and Mr. Wilkes already discharged.

We are informed that Mr. Wilkes's Franks have been charged, in Violation of the Privilege of Parliament.

May 7. Yesterday Morning, at Four o'Clock, a terrible Fire broke out at the House of the Right Honourable Lady Viscountess Dowager Moleworth, in Little-Brock-street, Grosvenor-square, which burnt furiously for some Time, and at length entirely consumed the house. Lady Moleworth, and two of her Daughters, who lay in the same Room with her, were unhappily burnt to Death; and another of her Ladyship's Daughters jumped out of a Window, and broke her Thigh, which, we are informed, was obliged to be cut off Yesterday. The Governess to the young Ladies was likewise burnt, and one of the Maid Servants jumped out of a two Pair of Stairs Window, but getting on the Spikes of the Iron Rails, was immediately killed. A Footman also threw himself out of the Window, and fell into the Area, and was carried to the Hospital, where he soon after died. Other of the Servants are said to be missing.—It is reported the Fire broke out in Captain Moleworth's Apartment, occasioned by burning a Candle all Night in the Room. The Captain was saved by getting over a Wall by help of a Ladder. It was near Half an Hour before any Engines came, as the Watchmen were gone off their Stands, and the second Floor and Garrets were in Flames before any Engines began to play. One unhappy Circumstance is said to have attended, that her Ladyship had the Key of the House Draw constantly brought to her every Night; and when the Fire was first discovered by some of the Servants, they went to her Ladyship's Room, which was in Flames, and consequently could not get the Key, which chiefly occasioned the melancholy Circumstances before related.

BRIDGE-TOWN, (in BARBADOS) June 2.

Last Monday Afternoon three Frenchmen, under Pretence of going on board a Vessel that was to sail that Evening, prevailed on two Negroes to take them off; but as soon as they got over the Bar, one of them displaced the Boy at the Helm, and bore away to Leeward: On this, one of the Negroes jumped over-board, swam on Shore, and soon alarmed the Wharf: They were immediately pursued, and by the Vigilance of a white Man in a Speight's-Town Boat, belonging to Mr. Ford, were brought back, and are now under Confinement in our Goal. They were fired at as they passed the Fort, but proceeded with an undaunted Resolution till they were overtaken.

CHARLES-TOWN, (in South-Carolina) June 14.

From Fort Prince-George, Keehowee, we are informed of the Great Warrior's Return to the Nation, with some Frenchmen, some Ammunition, and some Brandy: That the Northern Indians have been troublesome to the Cherokees, about the Upper-Towns, Valley, and Middle-Settlements, and have killed and scalped Eight of them, two of which were Sons of Attakullkulla; whereupon he was gone out with a Party of 60 Men to take Satisfaction; and, that being convinced no Trade would be sent from hence to the Over hills, he intends, upon his Return, to make Application to Governor Fauquier for a Trade from Virginia: And that about 30 Creeks have lately been at Toogoulou, laying in Wait for some Augusta Traders to the Over-hills, from one of whom (John Walker) they took four Keggs of Rum, and some other Things, as he was going up; and from another that was returning, his Horses and Leather; the last they gave a pretty severe Correction to. The Reason they give for this Conduct is, that those Traders steal whole Droves of Horses from them.

Extra of a Letter from the Havana, May 13.

"The King's Ships and Prizes are all fitted out and ready for the Sea.—The Count de Aranga is appointed Governor of Cuba, and was to sail from Cadix the beginning of April.—Admiral Kepple, hourly expected from Jamaica, it is said, will proceed for England, and not wait for the Garrison the Destination whereof is not known here. A few Days ago one of the Murderers of Mess. Boyd and Read of Philadelphia, was tried by a Court-Martial, and sentenced to be hanged, his Head cut off, and put on the most conspicuous Place, viz. the Land Port Gate, and his Body cast into the Sea, without Benefit of Clergy, which Sentence was approved of by the General, and put in Execution two Days afterwards.—Quarter-master Frazer, formerly a Serjeant of the Royal, and the first Man that entered the Moro at the Storm, was likewise hanged some Days ago, for killing a Soldier whom he suspected of being too free with his Wife."

ANNAPOLIS, July 21.

We have the Pleasure of acquainting our Readers, That Col. Crisp, and his Family, were not cut off by the Indians a few Days ago; but if he has not speedy Relief, it is feared he will be soon. By a Letter from thence (the Old Town, which is about 15 Miles on this Side Fort-Cumberland) we are informed, That on the 13th Instant Six Men who were at work in the Wheat Field, were fired on by Five Indians, who killed one of the Six, but on being fired at by one of the White Men, and seeing others coming to engage them, retired without scalping him. That on the 14th five Indians crept up to, and fired on, about 16 White Men, who were about a Hundred Yards from the Colonel's Hoofe, and wounded one Man; but on the White Men's returning their Fire, the Indians fled, some of them being wounded, as the Blood they lost shewed, and were pursued about a Mile. That on the 15th, as Mr. Samuel Stanbury Welder was going to his Hoofe, which is about 300 Yards from the Colonel's, with four Men and several Women, some Indians rushed on them from a Rising Ground; when the People saw them, they ran towards the Colonel's, hallooing, whereupon 16 or 18 Men who were there, went to meet the Indians, and firing on them, killed one, who was left, and wounded others, as appeared by the Blood which fell from them as they ran off; but Mr. Welder was killed by a Shot from the Indians. When the Indians run off on the 14th, they left three Bundles behind them; and when they fled on the 15th, they left three of their Guns, a Pistol, and other Things, and, by some particular Mark on one of the Guns, it is known, that these Indians were some of the Party that passed by the Old Town in the Spring, when they told Col. Crisp they were going to make War on the Cherokees.

Last Wednesday Capt. Peter Butler, of Frederick-Town, Maryland, called out his Company of Militia, and in a few Hours they raised 20 Men, with Money to Pay them; to Range on the other Side Cawcebeagas, from Fort-Fredrick to the Temporary Line, to protect the distressed Inhabitants in gathering in their Harvest.

Another Company of Rangers, consisting of 40, were likewise raised in another Part of that County, for the same Purpose. The Gentlemen thereabouts have shewn a noble Spirit. In a Letter from a Gentleman in Virginia, dated the 13th, he writes, "I have been at Lord Fairfax's since I saw you, and only returned this Day; while I was there, we were alarmed every Day with Accounts of the Indians being in that Neighbourhood, which occasioned many of the Inhabitants to leave their Plantations, and retire with what Effects they could carry, into the most convenient Forts. The Militia of the five Frontier Counties have been drafted and sent up into Frederick and Hampshire, and many Gentlemen have gone out Volunteers."

Since our last, a good many of the Tobacco Ships have arrived from London, at different Parts of the Province.

With Capt. Love, came in Passenger, the Hon. DANIEL DULANY, Esq; Recorder of this City, and Secretary of the Province, who arrived safe at his House in Town on Monday last.

EDMUND KEY, Esq; Barrister at Law, came in with Capt. Ridgely, and Landed below, near his Father's.

On Monday last, towards Evening, Mr. Edward Brown, of Kent-Island, was found Dead on the Road near his House, with his Skull Fractured. He parted with one of his Neighbours a few Minutes before, in seeming good Health, and whether his Horse flung him, or he was taken in a Fit, he being a very Corpulent Man, cannot be known: He was a Man well esteemed in his Neighbourhood, and has left a formidable Family.
