St. Mary's County, August 29, 1763
WHEREAS, notwithstanding the many hea-Denunciations in Scripture against all fa-as shall be Instrumental in the Separation of Maand Wife, I have good Grounds to believe, th-by the evil and malicious Insinuations, and by the alone, of some envious busy Persons, my Wi-Ruth was prevailed on to absent and elope fr-me, her legal and affectionate Husband, sometime in December last, and still continues in such N-Elopement: And to prevent the ill Consequencthat I have been menaced shall attend, I am necessitated to give this public Notice to all Person-to give her no Credit on my Account: For as the Affections appear to be as clearly alienated from me, as the Curse in Holy Writ expressed must be incurred by her Adversers, so I think it Justice for me, to be discharged of all Debts that shall be by her contracted; hereby declaring that I will pay none from this Date. LAWRENCE WHYTE
