ADVERTISEMENTS of a moderate
after: And Long Ones in Proportion

HAMBURG, August 12.

THOUGH the Credit of the trading Houses of this City begins to revive, Trade is still in a languid State. It is certain that four Merchants have failed; but to prevent more Bankruptcies, several of the principal Merchants have subscribed for a Million and a Half of Bank Marks, which will agree with the Merchants of Berlin for a sum. In the mean Time our Bank advances upon Ingots of Gold and Silver, and even upon household Goods.

Amsterdam, Aug. 19. Here is a Scheme handed to support public Credit, as also some capital in this City without Money, and by that to restore a general Confidence upon the Exchange of Amsterdam.

Constantinople, July 4. We hear from Aleppo, the Six Brothers, Sader, Anthony, Diab, Annette, Dragoman and Barataire, have made Bankruptcy of above Three Hundred Thousand; the English, some Turkish Traders, and European Merchants, are considerable Losers. The French are but little concerned in the Mount Etna, July 15. The new Eruption of Mount Etna, still continues. The Eruption was heard very distinctly twenty Miles from the 29th part to the 1st Instant, the Mountain threw out a prodigious Quantity of very fine Sand, which fell in a Kind of a Fog, to the distance of 25 Miles round, and darkened the Air such, that in the Town of Catania, People scarce see to walk the Streets.

Morocco, July 21. The Emperor of Morocco led at the Head of his Army, from Mequinez to the mountainous Country, inhabited by the Moors, in order to oblige them to pay Tribute. An obstinate Engagement, which lasted two Days, and cost the Emperor 7000 Men, he gained a great Victory. After which he marched to the west, to recover a Town that has been long possessed by the Algerines. He is speedily expected in Tunis, where there is no Doubt he will levy much Money as he can.

Corfica, July 25. Our Letters from Corfica bring us, that in the Affair of the 18th, under the Command of Furiani, the Genoese lost upwards of 2000 Men. General Matra's Nephew was mortally wounded in it. However, the Republic appears to be disposed to desist from the Corfican War, and has just sent again a large Convoy of war-ships to Bastia.

LONDON, August 18.

Yesterday there was a great Levee at St. James's, to compliment his Majesty on the safe Delivery of the Queen, and the Birth of a Prince.

Tuesday an Express was sent to the Lord-Viscount of Ponthill in Wiltshire, for his Lordship to come to Town to hold a Court of Common Pleas, which is summoned for To-morrow, in order to pay the City's respectful Congratulations to his Majesty, upon the Birth of another Prince.

It is said that the Right Hon. the Lord-Mayor is to go up with the Address in the grandest Manner possible, accompanied with an additional Band of Music, Kettle-Drums, &c.

The Stationers, Printers, and Booksellers at Amsterdam, in Holland, kept, on Tuesday, the 2d Instant, their grand Jubilee of One Hundred Years, to commemorate the Invention of Printing; on that occasion there were Illuminations and other demonstrations of Joy.

Accounts from Dublin say, that great Disturbances continued among the Weavers in that City; that the Master-Weavers had ordered a Meeting to consider of legal Means for redressing Grievances, and putting a Stop to the Importation of foreign Goods, either directly from France, or by the way of Chester.

Prussian Majesty seems determined to keep his Army as it was during the War; because Peace does not appear durable. It is certain that the Prussian Monarch has announced Venice against the Dutch, who have constructed a Dyke, at the Expence of 50,000 l. Sterling, in the Part of East Friesland which belongs to his Majesty, whereby they can lay that Country under Water, six Feet deep, in a few Hours.

August 23. On Saturday last an Express arrived from Holland, with an Account of several more Bankruptcies there.

Letters from Cadiz, by Yesterday's French Mail, bring an Account of the Arrival of the Flota, with near 6,000,000 Sterling on board in Specie and Merchandize.

By the last Letters from Cadiz, Orders had been dispatched to Ferrol and Carthage, for the Building of a Number of Frigates, from 20 to 30 and 40 Guns, on which a great many extra Hands will be employed.

On the 11th Inst. about Half an Hour after XI at Night, there was such a Storm at Brussels, that the Inhabitants thought the End of the World was come. Amidst the most dreadful Peals of Thunder, the Lightning was such, that the Heavens seemed all on Fire, and the City every Moment in Danger of being involved in the general Conflagration. To this Thunder and Lightning succeeded a Storm of Hail, which lasted eight or ten Minutes. The whole Storm continued two Hours. The Bigness of the Hail-stones was that of a large Nut; some were as big as a Hen's Egg. It may easily be conceived what Havock was made; all the Fruits of the Earth, the Verdure and Herbs, are cut and beat to the Ground; even the Trees are as bare of Leaves and Fruit, as in the Month of January. The Windows of one Half of the Number of the public Edifices, Churches, Palaces, and private Dwelling-houses, at Brussels, are broke, and the Roofs, particularly those of Slate, much damaged. Many of the Inhabitants died, and others are very ill by the Fright. It is remarkable, that the Quarter of the Town called Le Rivage, scarce suffered any thing. The Cloud which sent out this Storm, was rather long than broad; its Direction was from Halle towards Mechlin. The Damage done to the Windows only, is a very considerable Object. The Magistrates have, on this Occasion, given Permission to Glaziers, who are not Freeman, to work in the City for two Months.

August 27. The Elector of Mentz, whose Death is mentioned lately in the London Gazette, was chosen to that Electorate on the 5th of July last, on the Death of Count d'Ostain Engelheim, and died on the 15th of August, so that he has enjoyed his Dignity but about six Weeks. He was Baron Breidback of Burrisheim, Great Dean of that Chapter. The Election is in the Chapter. He is temporal Sovereign of the Country, the Revenues whereof are upwards of 100,000 l. Sterling per Annum.

The following Persons are talked of for Secretary of State, in the Room of the Right Hon. the Earl of Egremont, viz. Mr. Pitt, Charles Townshend, Lord Shelburne, Lord Egmont, Lord Sandwich, Lord Barrington, and Lord Harcourt.

We hear that a Monument is to be erected on the North Side of Westminster-Abbey, to the Memory of the brave Adm. Boscawen.
Wednesday two eminent Houses of this City stopped Payment; but Yesterday one of them opened.

The French, during the late War, built, at an Expence of a Million and a Half Sterling, 300 Flat-Bottomed Boats, capable of carrying 75,000 Troops, with their Arms, &c. including 15,000 Cavalry. These Boats, we hear, they have lately sold by Auction at Dunkirk, for old Timber. Some of them sold for about forty Guineas.

August 30. On Saturday the Right Hon. William Pitt had a Conference of near three Hours with his Majesty, at the Queen's Palace; and we hear that Yesterday Mr. Pitt set out for the Duke of Newcastle's Seat, at Clermont.

Yesterday Morning a Messenger was dispatched to the Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor, at his Seat at the Grange, in Hampshire.

Yesterday Morning an Express was sent to Chatsworth, in Derbyshire, for the Duke of Devonshire to come to Town immediately; and it is said that several if not most of the Lords in the Opposition, will speedily repair to Town.

His Majesty has appointed Robert Wood, Esq; to have the Management of the Affairs of the southern Department, till another principal Secretary is appointed in the Room of the Earl of Egremont; but the Earl of Halifax signs all the Dispatches that go from the said Office.

By Letters from Hamburg, of the 19th Inst. we are advised, that the Plan which was formed there by the Merchants to support one another had failed, which had occasioned fourteen Merchants Houses to stop Payment on the 17th, and on the next Day they were followed by thirteen more. It is added, that one of the greatest Merchants at Berlin has failed.

Some of our Merchants received, on Saturday last, by the Dutch Mail, a List of 34 Bankrupts at Hamburg, and 4 at Altena. There are no English among them.

Yesterday Mr. Pitt was again in Conference with his Majesty about two Hours, at the Queen's Palace, in the Park.

The greatest Merchant at Berlin having failed, his Prussian Majesty offered to advance him 200,000 Rix-Dollars; which Offer he declined accepting of, not being sufficient; but the King of Prussia has granted him his Protection for ten Years.

They write from Amsterdam, of the 22d Inst. that the German Jews residing there had subscribed 300,000 Florins, and their Synagogue 60,000 Ditto, to support the Merchants there, according to the Association entered into.

It is said, in a Letter received by the last Mail, that the Governor General of the French West-Indies, immediately after taking Possession of the Islands of Martinico and Guadaloupe, levied a Sum upon the Inhabitants of those Islands to the Amount of 500,000 l. Sterling.

The following are the Changes talked of, in Consequence of the Revolution which it is supposed is going to be made in the Ministry, but as yet nothing certain is known relating to them.

The Right Hon. William Pitt, and Charles Townshend, Secretaries of State.

The Right Hon. Earl Temple, First Lord of the Treasury.

The Right Hon. Earl Hardwicke, President of the Council.

The Right Hon. Henry Bilson Legge, Chancellor of the Exchequer.

And his Grace the Duke of Devonshire again Lord Chamberlain.

When this Paper went to Press a Report prevailed, that Mr. Pitt was appointed First Lord of the Treasury; and it is doubtful whether Lord Temple, or the Earl of Egmont, will succeed Lord Egremont, deceased, as one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

September 1. We are informed that above 3000 Ship-Carpenters, and others, are daily employed at Brest, Rochefort, Toulon, Marseilles, and other Places in France, on the royal Navy; and that they would have, in about two Years Time, a very formidable Fleet.

General Webb's Regiment came home from the Havanna in the Tyger Man of War. The whole Regiment now consists only of 36 Rank and File.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, Aug. 12.

"You would be astonished at the Number of English that are in this City; it is impossible to pass through a single Street without meeting them; they are so profuse in their Expences, that the French cannot be persuaded there is a poor Englishman in the World. Assure yourself the French are meditating a heavy Blow against England, and it will soon take Effect, if the Ministry can compass the Abolishment of the Farmers General, and lay an equal Tax on the People; they will by this Means increase the Revenue 300 Millions of Livres, and get rid of 90,000 Collectors, somewhat like your Excisemen, therefore detestable. The Aim of the French Ministry seems to be to get a strong Body of Men in the West-Indies, before they declare themselves; for this Purpose there is scarcely a single Ship sails for the Islands without Soldiers on board it. The English who are here on the Spot talk very freely among themselves of an approaching Rupture, and indeed every Thing bears the Appearance of it; how this will be relieved in England, you best know who are on the Spot."

Extract of a Letter from Dunkirk, Aug. 20.
"Believe none of the Reports relative to the Demolition of this Place: The Canette, it is true,
