BURLINGTON, New

The SPEECH of his Excellency W. B. Esq. Captain General, Governor in Chief of the Province of New-York, Vice Admiral in the same.

Gentlemen of the Council, and Gentlemen

BY the Papers which I shall show, you will find that, the Indians have committed against the English, and especially to the Borders after the first Intelligence the Frontiers of the neighbouring the Commanding Officer of the County most exposed, to have service, so that he might either detachments, to any Part that should be ordered; He was likewise ordered, all upon the Militia of the other accordingly, when the Indians had adjacent Part of Pennsylvania, he occupy the several Posts which had been during the late War. But notwithstanding come over, and settle within the Limits of this Province Inhabitants of that County were apprehensive of Danger, I ordered Militia of Morris County to their the Advice of the Council, I retained Men from the Regiment of South Carolina at the several Posts to their Assistance been granted, there is no Inhabitants would have abandoned that Part of the Country become the Consequences of which are too obvious. I have also empowered Jonathan with the Militia which are now, to the Frontier, with Provisions both he, and they, place great Confidence of the Legislature of this Province meet with a proper Compensation. After all, Gentlemen, I am far from the whole Militia of the Province, they would be sufficient to secure a Frontier against the Inroads of any of them will always have it in mind all our Care, to steal in upon our Frontiers, and retire with Impunity, far from your own Country, there is carry it into that of the Enemy. I give only, you give them almost all their distant Quarters, settle their own Time for carrying on their if we were to send Parties of Regulars, to cut off the Communication between of Residence, surprise them in the Army their Corn Fields, bring off their, and burn their Habitations, we, be able to oblige them to accept of think proper to dictate. In their own Way, we should find soon be stripped of all its Trade Colonies united in their Measures, Difficulty, as we could then with one that could be furnished by the These having been long my Sentiments method of conducting a War against particular Pleasure to have it now in a Plan of Sir Jeffery Amherst's, execution such Offensive Operations as for reducing the Savages, and securing the English Settlements hereafter the General makes a Request, raised, clothed, and paid by the Crown, and Provisions he undertakes the Crown. They, with the Troops New-York; and such Regulars as be employed in punishing the Savages the Forces raised in the Southern their Operations against the Enemy. The Plan proposed, Gentlemen, is most salutary Effects. It will be a considerable Saving to the Province the Inhabitants from their being exposed to the Frontiers, and maintaining attended not only with a great Expensive Loss to Individuals, who being of Families, their private Affairs in Absence.

Although the People of this Province, if any, Commerce with Indians, on the present Occasion, that forthwith, for making it highly with any military Stores whatever. I have but little more, Gentlemen, must be as fully convinced as myself War we make these Barbarians of our Sentiment, any Person who includes with them, will be but of upon the Effects, and massacre of those who came among them, upon murdering in cold Blood, the C
