

The GENERAL ASSEMBLY of this State, on Consideration of the GOVERNOR'S Speech, and Resolution made by the GENERAL, in Compliance with the same, voted a Thousand Mts. to be employed in Operations against the Enemy in the Spring.

From New-York we learn, that the British, under the Command of Pondiac, at Detroit, were tired of the War, and in the different Attacks of the Fort, York, Row Gallies, between Ninety and a Hundred of the various: That they had delivered up to Major Gladwin Seventeen English Prisoners: That Pondiac had ordered the Names of near Forty Frenchmen (some of them of Consequence at Montreal) who were concerned in this War: And that the Garrison at Detroit was supplied with every Necessary till the First of July, and the Soldiers hearty and well.

From Pittsburgh we have Advice, that two Messengers arrived there from Detroit, who bring the same respecting the Indians we have from New-York, in coming through the Indian Towns, over the Ohio, found about Seventy wounded Men, which had not a Word of the Wounds they received in the Engagement Colonel BOUQUET: That Fifty of their Warriors lost their Lives in these Actions: And that they, in general, seemed heartily tired of the War.

ANNAPOLIS, January 5.

On the 14th of December, some very indifere inhuman People, in Lancaster County, in Pennsylvania, in cool Blood, fell upon and murdered Six Friend Indians, who were Residents of that County: And Governor PENN has issued a Proclamation for the apprehending of them.

Next Thursday the General Assembly of the Colony of Virginia are to meet at Williamsburg.

THOSE Gentlemen and Ladies who have been obliged me by Subscribing to the CIRCULATING LIBRARY, will do me a singular Favour by signifying, before the 19th of this Month, whether they decline or continue their Subscription, as the Year will then expire with the Majority of them; and unless I am certain of the Number of those who will contribute to support the Scheme, I intend to dispose of the whole Collection by Auction; for, I am sorry to be under the Necessity of observing it, notwithstanding the general Utility of the Undertaking, and the improving Entertainment it must communicate to the Mind, yet the Encouragement it has hitherto received, is too inconsiderable to enable me to carry it on without injuring my Circumstances, by expence I must unavoidably be at in furnishing the Library with new Books; which I cannot possibly do, unless the Number of Subscribers extend to what they did last Year: In which Case, tho' I could not be in my Power to render the Plan as extensive as I at first proposed, by importing a fresh Cargo every Year, yet those who oblige me with their Approbation, may depend on being supplied with every Opportunity with all such new Performances as may merit the Attention of the Judicious.
