

The Insurgents, it seems, intended to rendezvous at Germantown; but the Precautions taken at the several Ferries over Schuylkill impeded their Junction; and those who assembled there, being made acquainted with the Force raised to oppose them, listened to the reasonable Discourses and Advice of some prudent Persons, who voluntarily went out to meet and admonish them; and of some Gentlemen sent by the Governor, to know the Reasons of their Insurrection; and promised to return peaceably to their Habitations, leaving only two of their Number to present a Petition to the Governor and Assembly; on which the Companies raised in Town were thanked by the Governor on Tuesday Evening, and dismissed, and the City restored to its former Quiet.

But on Wednesday Morning there was a fresh Alarm, occasioned by a false Report, that Four Hundred of the same People were on their March to Attack the Town: Immediately, on Beat of Drum, a much greater Number of the Inhabitants, with the utmost Alacrity, put themselves under Arms; but as the Truth was soon known, they were again thanked by the Governor, and dismissed; the Country People being really dispersed, and gone home according to their Promise.

Extract of a Letter from Burlington, Jan. 21. Lieutenant Shaw, who commanded our Detachment at Niagara, after the Death of Captain Johnston, is come down from thence, and says, that the very Warriors, who were at the Attack of our People at the North End of Lake Erie, were at Sir William Johnson's, making their Submission, as he passed by."

ANNAPOLIS, February 16. Some few Days ago, at Oxford, as two little Girls of Mr. Pempillon's, were sitting by a Fire Side by themselves, the Fire flew and catch'd the Cloaths of one of them, and burnt her to that Degree that she Died in a few Hours after.
