the fame, and beat down the greatest Part, toge-ther with the Light, which ferred as a Guide for Vessels coming there in the Night. The Gan Battery was thrown down, and the Cannon into the Sea. All the Jetties suffered, several Breaches being made, that there is no Passage for Carriages. A great many Shops and Warehoules were thrown into the Sea, Several removed their Goods, expecking to be all down the next Tide, which incvitably would have been, if the Wind and Sea had kept up. .. A great deal of the Craft suffered, being dashed to Pieces.

The Money computed to be on board the Hanover Packet from Lilbon, loft off Padflow in the late Storm, is about 16 or 17,000 l. A Number of Persons are employed to watch the Wreck. I fays, "We have had fuch a Hurricane last Night, as the oldest Men in this Town declare they do not remember the like: Many of the Houses are stript, Chimnies blown down, and the Ships in the Har-bour broke loofe: Ten Ships drove on Shore between Bland's Cliff and, the White Nab, and feveral Persons were drowned."

We have Accounts from Lincolnshire, of great Damage being done by the late dreadful Storm; that near Spalding the Banks were broken in feveral Places, and the Cattle carried away or drowned, fo that it is computed upwards of 3000 Sheep were lost, besides Horses, &c. One Person lost above 200 Sheep.

Dec. 9. We hear the late Storm of Wind has done as much Damage in France and Holland, as it has in England. thas in England.

Dec. 10. On Tuefday Night last, soon after the Verdict was given for Mr. Wilkes, a Man knocked at his Door, desiring to speak with him on particular Business: It appearing, by his Dialect, he was a Scotchman, and being an entire Stranger, he was refuted Admittance; on which he went away to a Coffee houle near Parliament-firet, where he was overheard by a Person then present, to declare, that himself and ten more Men were determined to cut Mr. Wilkes off, let the Event be what it would; the Gentleman gave an Information of the above Declaration, next Morning, by Letter, to Mr. Wilkes defiring him to be on his Guard; the Affair then rested till Thursday Morning, when the same Person, as, is supposed, brought a Letter to Mr. Wilker's House, figued Alexander Dun, the Purport of which was to beg an Interview with him on an Affair of the most interesting Nature, when he was defired to call again at one o'Clock which he did accordingly; and leven o'Glock was, then the Hoar appointed; in the Interim, Mr., Wilkes had got feveral of his Friends, Gentlemen of Distinction, about him. At the same Hour the Man, came, and was, ushered into the Parlour, where he waited a short Time, and was informed that Mr. Wilkes was then alone, and he should be infroduced to his Presence; but, on going out at, the Parlour Door, two Gendemen, who had placed themselves behind it, seized him by each Arm, and flung him on, his Back; on learching him, a new Penknise was found in his Pocket, which he pretended he had purchased about nine Months ago; On being farther questioned, he said fix Months, and at last owned he bought it at Cha-Months, and at last owned are nought it at some tham about a fortnight fince. Previous to the Time appointed by Mr. Wilkes for his Interview, with Mr. Dun, proper Affidavits, containing an accurate detail of the whole Transaction were pre-pared, and a Warrant procured from the Hon. Mr. Julice Wilmot for apprehending him, which was immediately executed land we are informed that authenticated Byidence of the whole Proceedings was Yelferday land before an august Alfembly, who ordered the Tipstaff to bring the faid Mr. Dun to be examined before that Hon. Honie this Day.
