Piscataway, March 29, 1764.

AFTER the Breaking up of the Store in this Place, which belonged to Messieurs JAMES FODD and COMPANY, all Persons indebted to the said Company, were desired to discharge their Debts, or settle by Bond; but as most of them have paid little Regard to the Notice given them there, and some have been so unreasonable as to refuse to give their Bonds, notwithstanding this Manner of Settlement was proposed with a View of making Payments more easy, by waiting till such Time as they could get their Tobacco ready, or more conveniently raise the Money: I must now inform these People, that they need not expect any further Indulgence, for he who assisted for some Time in that Store (and who is now impowered to collect the Debts due to the Company) has Orders to commence Suits against such as will not settle to his Satisfaction, and to have Recourse to Means of Compulsion, when those of Mildness will not answer.

Notice is also given, That the LOT in Piscataway, which belongs to the said Company, will be exposed to Public Sale on the First Tuesday in June, on which stands a very convenient Store-House, with a Comping-Room, a good Lumber House, a Stable, and a Kitchen.
