The MARR

[XXth Year.]

LONDON, April 14.

IT is astonishing, that (notwithstanding the Complaints of the Poor, and repeated Complaints of the Deputies of Provisions) those who have it in their Power to exert that Power to put a Stop to the Exportation of Wheat, before it be too late. For this has been the Case, the Exportation at the Ports, instead of being, as it used to be, thirty, forty, or fifty Wagon Loads of Wheat delivered in a Morning; and this is not a tenth of the Grain that is brought there by Water, which is exported with as much Expedition as the Wind, Tide, and Shipping will admit of; and this being no inconsiderable Part, they cannot but stand for the latter. Now, if many other Ports in the Kingdom export as much Wheat in Proportion, and with as much Expedition, as this does, in a few Weeks, be impossible to rectify this Grievance till the next Crop, and perhaps not then, if we should have a very favourable Harvest; so that (according to old Proverbs) when the Seed is sown, they'll reap the Scurf.

The Integrity, Brown, from Calco Bay to London, sailed at Sea the 17th of March, in Lat. 39: 6, Longitude 43. The Crew were taken up by the Calcutta frigate, Virginia to Glasgow.

Yesterday there was but a thin Market at Smithfield, Cattle sold somewhat dearer than on Monday.—One Butcher purchased a small Hoops-Lamb, which weighed above 20 lb. but remarkably fat, for which he gave 55 s.

It is reported, that the Dutch Agents have given in Orders for Guns, Pistols, Swords, &c. for the Use of the Forces going to the East-Indies; all to be furnished with utmost Expedition.

A considerable Quantity of Plate, Furniture, &c. Property of a late Suckler for Liberty, has for these preceding Days, been selling at the Royal Exchange.

Large Orders are gone to Cork and Dublin, for Beef, Pork, and Butter, which it is hoped will in some Measure reduce the exorbitant Price of Provisions in this City, &c.

March 24. It is with the greatest Satisfaction we take notice the Public; that, from the great Attention our most gracious Sovereign has for the Good of his Subjects, the Interest of Man is soon like to be purchased of his Proprietors, and annexed to the Crown of Great-Britain. We need not remind our Readers how often, and in what a Variety of Shapes, is important a Measure, both in the Hon. House of Commons, and out of it; has been to no Manner of Purpose recommended for above thirty Years past, altho' the fatal Effects arising from this notorious Seat of Smuggling have glaringly disgraced and impoverished the Nation.

The Russian Ministers at Ratibon and Hamburg, are engaged a great Number of German Families, Manufacturers, &c. to go and settle in the North-East Part of Russia as soon as they enter, a Man has 8, a Woman 5, a Child 3 Shillings heavy Money, allowed them daily for their Maintenance, and they are sent to Lubek at the Expence of Russia's Expence, where they embark for Petersburg.

Yesterday arrived here a Mail from Lisbon, in 16 Days by which we have Advice of the Arrival there of 32 English Ships, all laden with Corn from London.

The new Treaty of Commerce between this Court and Russia is far advanced, and will be, it is said, very advantageous to the two Nations—though the English Colonies of America are now in a Condition to furnish us with many Articles which we have a long Time imported from the Northern Countries.

About Three Weeks ago an Officer of the Regiment of Champagne being at Mass at Douay in French Flanders, a Burgher happened to tread upon his Dog, which he resented the Officer, that he beat the Man severely; and on his making Resistance, killed him on the Spot. This outrage so incensed the Inhabitants, that they gathered about the House where the Officer lodged, demolished the Windows, laid his Baggage, and threw it out into the Street; broke his Post-chaise, and burnt his Horses, and afterwards fell upon the Officer, and dragged him through the Kennel, till he died. The Officers on Duty taking the Alarm, sent to Arms; secured all the Gates, and upon the Townsmen, and killed Nine, wounded many more, and soon dispersed the rest. This Affair being properly represented, is now under Consideration at Court, and it is thought the Regiment will be broke.

The Distemper among the horned Cattle has very much abated, which has been effected by hanging Four or Five Onions about the Beast's Neck directly after they are taken ill, and will not cost. Those Onions save the Infection out, and look the next Day as if they had been boiled. This Remedy is to be repeated several times, and the Onions which have been used, are to be buried in a deep Hole. In a few Days after, the Cattle are taken with a Running at the Nose, which carries off that Distemper. It is also proper at that Time to hang up some Onions in the distemper'd Cattle's Stables.

April 7. On Wednesday Evening the Thanks of the Society of Arts, &c. in the Strand, were given to Lord Southwell, for communicating a Piece of Glass which he made by some of our American Indians, of a Wood called Silk Grass. A Manufacture, the Ingenuity of which was very much admired.

April 10. Yesterday Morning several Thousand Journey-men Silk Weavers went in Procession from Spitalfields, and waited on his Majesty at the Queen's Palace in St. James's Park, with a Petition, representing the miserable Condition to which themselves and Families are reduced by the clandestine Importation of French Silks. They waited before the Court-yard, and two Gentlemen, belonging to the said Manufactory, had the Honour to be introduced to his Ma-
