To be SOLD, pursuant to the Last Will and Testament of John Colvill, Gentleman, deceased, on the 24th Day of April, 1765, at the House of Mr. Arthur Charlton, in Frederick-Town, in Frederick County, Maryland, for Sterling Money, Bills of Exchange, or Current Money of Pennsylvania, Maryland, or Virginia, at the current Rates of Exchange,

A VERY valuable Tract of LAND called Merryland, in the said County, containing 6300 Acres, lying along the Foot of the lower Side of the Shenandoe Mountain, and along the Banks of Potowmack River, within 12 or 13 Miles of Frederick-Town, where great Trade and Business is carried on. It is very convenient for a Dutch Settlement, as many of those People live near and about it. It is well Watered and Wooded, and in the Neighbourhood of two large Iron-Works. It will be Sold altogether, or in Lots or Parcels of 500 or 1000 Acres, as may be most convenient to the Purchasers; for one Half of which, a Year's Credit will be given (if desired) upon giving good Security, and allowing Interest. A Plat of the said Tract may be seen in the Hands of Mr. Charlton abovesaid.

A false and scandalous Advertisement, published in the Maryland Gazette, of the 6th of this Instant September, in the Name of John Patterson, Agent for the Earl of Tankerville, to prejudice the Sale of the said Tract, obliges me to obviate the ill Consequences that may arise from it, by publishing such Part of the Testator's Will as I judge may satisfy the Purchasers of my Power to make them a good Title.

This Tract of Land called Merryland, is expressly devised to be Sold for the Payment of Debts and Legacies; and if the Money raised by it, should fall short to discharge them, I am expressly empowered by the Will to raise the Deficiency by a Sale of any of the Virginia Lands or Negroes, (devised to Lord Tankerville) as shall seem to me most expedient, except his Lordship, choosing rather to prevent the Sale of any Part of the said Virginia Land and Negroes, will assume upon himself the Discharge of such Deficiency; and wholly quit, exonerate, and indemnify me, as Executor, therefrom.

Lord Tankerville is appointed an Executor with me, and the only Debts of Consequence are due to Persons in Great-Britain: I have Prov'd the Will, and given Security in this Country; He hath done neither; so that I am liable to the Payment of Debts; he cannot be compelled. I have wrote to him repeatedly to settle these Affairs in Britain, and save the Virginia Lands from Sale, or give me Bond and Security here, that I might be indemnified against the Creditors: But after waiting almost Nine Years for his Lordship's Determination, he still declines giving me such Indemnification; and the Creditors, now wearied with Delays and Disappointments, have actually commenced Suits against me; even for the very Legacies which this Agent, Patterson, so impudently asserts to be paid.

Out of Respect to his Lordship, I shall forbear, at this Time, mentioning his Payments of Debts and Legacies, or other Proceedings, except called upon by this sagacious Agent to answer some other Essay of his Wit and Veracity.

I should not have mentioned these Circumstances, but to detect the Falshoods in the said Advertisement to discourage the Sale of this Land, evidently not to my Disadvantage, but his Lordship's, as it may force the Sale of some of the Virginia Lands or Negroes, which I have aim'd at preserving to him entire.

It would afford very little Amusement to the Public, and be very disagreeable to me, to enter into an Altercation with such a Person as Patterson is well known to be: But this may be necessary for me to say, that I shall (God willing) attend the Sale, produce the original Papers, together with an authentick Copy of the Will, under which I derive my Power (which will shew the Fallacy of his Lordship's being appointed Residuary Legatee, as also that his Concurrence in the Sale is not necessary) sufficient to convince any Purchaser, that his Title from me cannot be impeach'd. When this is done, it may be a Question, whether any Thing but invincible Ignorance, and matchless Effrontery, could influence Patterson to grieve the Public with an Advertisement, directly to the manifest Prejudice of his Principal, and reflect with Stupidity and Falshood.

THOMAS COLVILL. N. B. The Plat, and an authentick Copy of the Will, will be lodg'd with Mr. Charlton in due Time.

WHEREAS there is a D

Howard, Son of Benjamin scriber living in Baltimore County, on a Point and near the Elk-Ridge Land, been thought by many Persons to be a good Title for Building a Town, and Gentlemen of Elk-Ridge, and taken a great many Lots on the same, and a Dispute seems to put a Stop to the same. This is to inform the Purchasers of the said Lots, That if the Land should be sold to the Subscriber, they shall have it with said Howard. And I find a Gentleman that inclines to purchase the said Land, is a very fine Place for that Purpose, and has a very level and dry, with the Sea Trade, and a fine, rich, back of it, from whence is brought large Quantities of Indian Corn, Hemp, Beef, Pork, &c. Articles for Merchandize. Sept. 25, 1764.

There is likewise two good Plantations of Land, with convenient Houses and Orchards, which Rent for 1000 bacco yearly, each.

Likewise a Tract of Land called Merryland, containing about 60 Acres, and a good Orchard, on the said Land.

The Owner may have her again, on proving his Property, and paying Charges.
