Monday died at Wilfden, Middlesex, the Hon. Gen. Otway, in the 78th Year of his Age. He ferred in the Army upwards of 60 Years, and on every Occasion distinguished himself in the Service of his King and Country. He purchased all his Posts in the Army, except his Majority, to which he was advanced by the late Earl Stanhope, then Commander of her late Majesty Queen Anne's Forces in Spain, in Consequence of the General's faving his and Gen. Carpenter's Lives in a Battle, by which Means the Victory was obtained. The General served all the Spanish War; was at the Siege of Vigo, the relieving Barcelona, and the taking Gibraltar and Port-Mahon. On the Accession of King George the First, being a reduced Major, Earl Stanhope procured him the Majority in Gen. Echlin's Dragoons in the Year 1715. On General Echlin's going off to the Pretender, the Earl of Stair was appointed to the Command of the Regiment; but being Ambassador at that Time in France, and the Lieut. Col: Upton blind, the Command of the Regiment devolved on the General, and gave him an Opportunity of performing that celebrated Piece of Service at the Battle of Sherrif-Moor, near Dumblain, in Scot-land, which hath been faltely ascribed to the Grey Dragoons; for which eminent Service the late Duke of Argyle, then Commander of the Army in Scotland, returned him Thanks at the Head of the Regiment; and in Consequence thereof, his late Majesty King George the First, gave him leave to purchate a Regiment. He served under Lord Cadogan during the Rebellion of the Year 1715; and was appointed Commander of all the Land Forces on board Sir George Byng's Fleet in the Year 1718. In one Word, he was a loyal, brave, and diligent Officer; a tender Parent, and a sincere Friend.

BOST. ON, Odober 8. A surprizing Concatenation of Ewents to one Man in one Week.

Published on Sunday-married on Monday-had a Child on Tuesday-stole a Horse on Wednesday-banished on Thursday-died on Friday -buried on Saturday. [Great Variety in one Week.]

There are many Articles of Dress manufactured in this Government, which, if wore, would be a great Saving thereto, partrenlarly Knit Stockings, Leather Habits for working, Shoes, &c. more efpecially Shoes for Women, which are made at Lynn, and exceed in Strength and Beauty, any that are usually impossed of Hote's Make, from London.-It is hoped the public spirited Ladies of this Town and Province will turn their immediate Attention to this and other Branches of Manufacture.

It is now confidently affirmed by some, which however may not be true in Fast, that the Severity of the new A tof P.....t is to be imputed to Letters, Representations, NARRATIVES, &c. transmitted to the M....y about two Years ago by Persons of Eminence on this Side the Water ... And that some Copies of Letters are actually in this Town, and others foon expected,....To whatever Caule these Severities are Owing it behoves the Colonies to represent their Grievances in the strongest Point of Light, and to Unite in such Measures as will be effectual to obtain Redress.

It is thought a certain G.—— on the Continent will foon be recalled; and that a L-----t G.....r will be advanced to his Place.

It is feared by many who wish well to Great-Britain, that the new A-t of P----t will greatly Diffress, if not totally Ruin some of HER own Manufactures .-- It is thought that by means of this A-t, less of her Woolien Cloths, to the Amount of some Thousands Sterling, will be purchased in this cold Climate the ensuing Winter. We are told that all the Funerals the last Week were conducted upon the new Plan of Frugality.

Nothing but PRUGALITY can now fave the diffress'd Northern Colonies from impending Ruin. It ought to be a Confolation to the good People of a certain Province, that the greatest Man in it, exhibits the most rigid Example of this political, as well as moral Virtue.

There feems to be a Disposition in many of the Inhabitants of this and the neighbouring Govern-ments to cloath themselves with their own Manu. facture.-At Hampstead on Long-Island," in the Province of New-York, a Company of Gentlemen have fet up a New Woollen Manufactory, and have given Notice to Gentlemen, Shopkeepers, and Others, of any of the Provinces, that by fend ing proper Patterns of any Colour, they may be supplied with Broad-Cloths, equal in Fineness, Colour and Goodness, and cheaper than any imported: The Proprietors give good Baccoragement to any Persons who are any way versed in the Woollen Manusactory, such as Woolcombers, Weavers, Clothiers, Shearers, Dyers, Spinners, Carders, or understanding any Branch of the Broad Cloth, Blanket, or Stroud Manusactory.—At Ja-maica on the said Island, one Tunis Polpham is erecting a Fulling-Mill, which will be compleat in about a Month, and carry on all the Branches of a Fuller and Dyer of Cloth.
